Christian Insight Meditation Mary Jo Meadow, Kevin Culligan, Daniel Chowning, 2007-08-28 Despite the long history of mysticism within Christianity and its many and varied approaches to meditation and contemplative prayer more and more Christians have turned to Eastern religions to find a kind of guidance for their interior life that they were not able to find in Christianity Some have completely abandoned the religion of their childhood believing they have found the pearl of great price in Eastern meditation Christian Insight Meditation offers an ancient Buddhist meditation practice within a Christian prayer tradition to teach readers a process of inner purification meant to lead to deeper Christian faith and to the direct vision of God This wonderful inspiring book offers reliable guidance and a way for any of us to begin to follow the footsteps of such towering figures as John of the Cross and Teresa of Avila Readers will soon discover for themselves the power of Christian Insight Meditation to bring inner peace and healing and to deepen and enhance their Christian life and the inseparable connection between wisdom and compassion known for centuries to both Christian and Buddhist meditators

Without Buddha I Could Not be a Christian Paul F. Knitter, 2013-01-01 An honest unflinching tale of re finding one s faith from one of the world s most famous theologians Without Buddha I Could Not Be a Christian narrates how esteemed theologian Paul F Knitter overcame a crisis of faith by looking to Buddhism for inspiration From prayer to how Christianity views life after death Knitter argues that a Buddhist standpoint can encourage a more person centred conception of Christianity where individual religious experience comes first and liturgy and tradition second Moving and revolutionary this book will inspire Christians everywhere Christianity Looks East Peter Feldmeier, 2006 This fascinating book takes a fresh look at interreligious dialogue with St John of the Cross and Bhadantacariya Buddhaghosa as representatives of Christian and Buddhist paths to liberation As the world is increasingly experienced as a global village dialogue with other religious traditions is widely regarded as possibly the greatest modern or post modern challenge and the distinctive journey of our time Dialogue not only informs our understanding of various expressions of holiness it also can inform one s own religious faith and practice This book investigates a form of dialogue that can be a model for future dialogues Without laying assumptions on the nature of religious experience it allows these classic texts and their representative religions to speak for themselves What is often lacking in this history of dialogue is its lack of appreciation for distinctive religious paths and the experiences described therein The Mystic Heart Wayne Teasdale, 2010-10-06 Drawing on experience as an interreligious monk Brother Wayne Teasdale reveals the power of spirituality and its practical elements He combines a profound Christian faith with an intimate understanding of ancient religious traditions The Other Side of Nothingness

Beverly J. Lanzetta, 2001-02-22 From the mystic's experience of nothingness and the desert The Other Side of Nothingness offers a theology of humility sensitive to religious pluralism and to the pain of spiritual oppression With a passionate concern for contemporary interreligious issues Beverly J Lanzetta provides insight into how mystical consciousness overturns claims of dogmatic truth and prepares the self to experience the radical openness of divinity The work draws on a variety of Christian mystical texts including those of Meister Eckhart Gregory of Nyssa Pseudo Dionysius Saint Teresa of Avila Saint Bonaventure and the anonymous author of The Cloud of Unknowing while also making reference to Buddhism Judaism Islam and Hinduism and the thought of contemporary social mystics such as Heschel Gandhi Merton Thurman and Day Lanzetta illustrates how the annihilatory mystical experience draws the seeker to a place beyond a tradition's self understanding to new dimensions of the sacred and in some cases to new revelatory paradigms It is here that she provokes our thought in her statement that the divine nature is itself pluralistic non absolute and continually giving birth to new traditions By showing how nothingness functions in mystical experience as a catalyst for the liberation of our hearts we are brought to a vision of theology that is nonviolent and inclusive of all creation Being Prayer---Transforming Consciousness Mary Rees, 2006 Being Prayer offers timeless guidance a clear simple yet personal and challenging path for living fully in harmony and integrity with things just as they are It also provides rich resources for further study based on individual needs and interests

Growing in Love and Wisdom Susan J. Stabile, 2012-10-02 Although raised Roman Catholic Susan Stabile was ordained as a Tibetan Buddhist nun and devoted 20 years of her life to practicing Buddhism before returning to Catholicism in 2001 In Growing in Love and Wisdom she draws on this unique dual perspective to explore the value of interreligious dialogue the spiritual dynamics that operate across faith traditions and how Buddhist meditation practices can deepen Christian prayer She begins by examining the values and principles shared by the two faiths and shows that both traditions seek to effect a fundamental transformation in the lives of believers Both stress the need for experiences with deep emotional resonance that goes beyond the level of concepts to touch the heart The center of the book offers 15 Tibetan Buddhist contemplative practices adapted for Christian use Stabile provides clear instructions on how to do these meditations and helpful commentary on each explaining its purpose and the relation between the Buddhist original and her Christian adaptation of it Throughout she highlights the many remarkably close parallels between the teachings of Jesus and the Buddha The meditations offered in this unusual book will be extremely useful to thoughtful Christians to those responsible for giving spiritual direction and also to Buddhist sympathizers who will be intrigued and pleased to see familiar contemplations handled so skillfully by a former Buddhist practitioner who has gratefully learned so much from her former religion and now introduces the riches of that tradition to her fellow Christians Liberating Mindfulness Stearns, Gail J., 2022-05-18 Attempts to reclaim mindfulness from the commercial and corporate juggernaut it has become and to demonstrate its usefulness in spiritual including Christian life Hawk Rising John Cowan, 2009-06 Thousands in the Western world have sought a brighter life through the practice of Eastern meditation While many have experienced a deeper sense of calm most have never experienced the enlightenment promised by these methods Through witty entertaining anecdotes Hawk Rising shares the secret to understanding observing and then managing a calming approach that softens but does not stifle the desire for achievement John Cowan has spent his lifetime learning within the worlds of spirituality and motivational psychology and offers an innovative method derived from the Buddhist system that effectively reduces anxiety through meditation and visualization Cowan teaches through exercises and personal stories that viewing the imagination as part of the here and now will end frustration and increase the ability to begin each day with renewed power and confidence Anyone interested in remaining in the hustle and bustle of the world and still achieving a new level of inner peace will benefit from his explorations of the sources of anxiety its causes and how to develop a method for being usefully anxious while living a free active and creative life
