The History in Literature Herbert Lindenberger,1990 Herbert Lindenberger was one of the first literary critics to call for some kind of return to historical thinking in literary criticism His ten essays cover canon formation the historical status of genres and the ways that art and criticism are embedded within institutional frameworks Lindenberger argues that what we label historical assumes strikingly different shapes in different historical situations and that present shape empowers new kind of knowledge He writes We may well discover that our century old form of organization within the humanities no longer fits the type of knowledge we are producing The lively and topical essays of The History in Literature demonstrate Lindenberger s capacious and diverse knowledge his incisive wit and his formidable critical skills

The Cultural Devolution Neil Mulholland,2017-10-23 Title first published in 2003 What happened to art in Britain when the balance began to shift from public to private subsidy following the IMF crisis in 1976 In this polemical book Neil Mulholland charts the political and cultural shifts in art in Britain from the mid 1970 s to the end of the twentieth century His account covers the key trends and artists of this extraordinarily diverse period including critical postmodernism feminism neoconservatism object sculpture the new image Brit Art and Scottish neoconceptualism and traces the development of critical thinking from the opinions of critics such as Richard Cork John Roberts and Matthew Collings to tabloid press art scandals The Cultural Devolution offers a broad critical and historical framework within which to understand public debate on the merits of young British artists such as Damien Hirst while looking beyond such celebrities to re discover the wealth and range of work produced Essential reading for anyone interested in contemporary art in Britain

Facing Eden Steven A. Nash,Bill Berkson,1995-01-01 The San Francisco Bay Area boasts one of the richest and most continuous traditions of landscape art in the entire country Looking back over the past one hundred years the contributors to this in depth survey consider the diverse range of artists who have been influenced by the region s compelling union of water and land peaks and valleys and fog and sunlight Paintings sculpture graphic arts photography landscape architecture earthworks conceptual art and designs in city planning and architecture are all represented The diversity reflects not just the glories of nature but also an exploration of what constitutes landscape in its broadest most complete sense Among the more than two hundred works of art are those by well known artists and designers such as Bernard Maybeck Diego Rivera

Dorothea Lange Ansel Adams Richard Diebenkorn Joan Brown Lawrence Halprin and Christo Lesser known artists are here as well resulting in an exceptional array of approaches to the natural environment The essays also explore key themes in the Bay Area s landscape art tradition including the ethnic perspectives that have played an essential role in the region s art The inexhaustible ability of the land to stimulate different personal meanings is made clear in this volume and the effect yields a deeper understanding of how art can shape our lives in ways both spiritual and practical how the landscape without constantly merges with the landscape within Published in association with The Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco The San Francisco Bay Area boasts one of the richest and most continuous traditions of landscape art in the entire country Looking back over the past one hundred years the contributors to this in depth survey consider the diverse range of artists who have been influenced by the region s compelling union of water and land peaks and valleys and fog and sunlight Paintings sculpture graphic arts photography landscape architecture earthworks conceptual art and designs in city planning and architecture are all represented The diversity reflects not just the glories of nature but also an exploration of what constitutes landscape in its broadest most complete sense Among the more than two hundred works of art are those by well known artists and designers such as Bernard Maybeck Diego Rivera Dorothea Lange Ansel Adams Richard Diebenkorn Joan Brown Lawrence Halprin and Christo Lesser known artists are here as well resulting in an exceptional array of approaches to the natural environment The essays also explore key themes in the Bay Area s landscape art tradition including the ethnic perspectives that have played an essential role in the region s art The inexhaustible ability of the land to stimulate different personal meanings is made clear in this volume and the effect yields a deeper understanding of how art can shape our lives in ways both spiritual and practical how the landscape without constantly merges with the landscape within Published in association with The Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco
