With Her Own Hands Nicole Nehrig, 2025-08-19 A rich and intimate exploration of how women have used textile work to create meaningful lives from ancient mythology to our current moment. Knitting, sewing, embroidery, quilting throughout history, these and other forms of textile work have often been dismissed as merely women's work and attached to ideas of domesticity and obedience. Yet as psychologist and avid knitter Nicole Nehrig wonderfully explores in this captivating book, textile work has often been a way for women to exercise power. When their voices were silenced and other avenues were closed off to them, women used the tools they had: often a needle and thread to seek freedom within the restrictive societies they lived in. Spanning continents and centuries, With Her Own Hands brings together remarkable stories of women who have used textiles as a means of liberation: from an eighteenth-century Quaker boarding school that used embroidered samplers to teach girls math and geography to the Quechua weavers working to preserve and revive Incan traditions today and from the Miao women of southern China who, in the absence of a written language, pass down their histories in elaborate story cloths to a midcentury British women's postal art exchange. Textiles have been a way for women to explore their intellectual capacities, seek economic independence, create community, process traumas, and convey powerful messages of self-expression and political protest. Heartfelt and deeply moving, With Her Own Hands is a celebration of women who have woven their own stories and a testament to their resilience.

In Pursuit of Beauty Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1986 This project is the first comprehensive study of a phenomenon that not only dominated the American arts of the 1870s and 1880s but also helped set the course of such later developments in the United States as the Arts and Crafts movement, the indigenous interpretation of Art Nouveau, and even the rise of modernism. In fact, the early history of the Metropolitan, its founding, its sponsorship of a school of industrial design, and its display of decorative works is inextricably tied to the Aesthetic movement and its educational goals. In Pursuit of Beauty, Americans and the Aesthetic Movement comprised some 175 objects, including furniture, metalwork, stained glass, ceramics, textiles, wallpaper, painting, and sculpture. Some of these had rarely been displayed; others, although familiar, were being shown in new and even startling contexts. The exhibition and catalogue are arranged thematically to illustrate both the major styles of a visually rich movement and the ideas that generated its diversity.
