Martone, 2011-08-15 Is it truth or fiction Memoir or essay Narrative or associative To a writer like Michael Martone questions like these are high praise Martone's studied disregard of form and his unruffled embrace of the prospect that nothing no story no life is ever quite finished have yielded some of today's most splendidly unconventional writing Add to that an utter weakness for pop Americana and what Louise Erdrich has called a deep affection for the ordinary and you have one of the few writers who could pull off something like Racing in Place Up the steps of the Washington Monument down the home stretch at the Indy Speedway and across the parking lot of the Moon Winx Lodge in Tuscaloosa Alabama Martone chases and is chased by memories and memories of memories He writes about his grandfather's job as a meter reader those seventies era hotels with atrium lobbies and open glass elevators and the legendary temper of basketball coach Bob Knight Martone as Peter Turchi has said looks under stones the rest of us leave unturned So what is he really up to when he dwells on the make of Malcolm X's eyeglasses or the runner up names for Snow White's seven dwarfs In My Mother Invents a Tradition Martone tells how his mom as the dean of girls at a brand new high school in Fort Wayne Indiana constructed a nostalgic past out of nothing Sitting at their dining room table she came up with everything from the school colors orange and brown to the yearbook title Bear Tracks Look and then look again Martone is saying You never know I never know      American Craft
