Structural Information and Communication Complexity Pascal Felber, 2008-06-17 The Colloquium on Structure, Information, Communication and Complexity (SIROCCO) is an annual research meeting focused on the relationship between information and efficiency in decentralized, distributed, parallel and network computing. This year SIROCCO celebrated its 15th anniversary. Over the years, the colloquium has become a widely recognized forum bringing together researchers interested in the fundamental principles underlying the interplay between local structural knowledge and global communication and computation complexity. SIROCCO covers topics such as distributed algorithms, compact data structures, information dissemination, informative labeling schemes, combinatorial optimization and others with potential applications to large scale distributed systems including global computing platforms, peer-to-peer systems and applications, social networks, wireless networks and network protocols such as routing, broadcasting, localization. SIROCCO 2008 was held in Villars-sur-Ollon in the Swiss Alps, June 17-20, 2008. There were 52 contributions submitted to SIROCCO 2008. All papers underwent a thorough refereeing process where each submission was reviewed by at least 3 and on average 3.4 Program Committee members. After in-depth discussions, the Program Committee selected 22 high quality contributions for presentation at the colloquium and publication in this volume. We thank the authors of all the submitted papers, the Program Committee members and the external reviewers. Without their dedication, we could not have prepared a program of such quality. There were two invited speakers at SIROCCO 2008: Nicola Santoro, Carleton University and Boaz Patt-Shamir, Tel Aviv University. We express our gratitude to the SIROCCO Steering Committee and in particular to Pierre Fraigniaud for his enthusiasm and his invaluable help throughout the preparation of this event.
