The Experimenters Eva Díaz, 2014-12-25 In the years immediately following World War II Black Mountain College an unaccredited school in rural Appalachia became a vital hub of cultural innovation Practically every major artistic figure of the mid twentieth century spent some time there Merce Cunningham Ray Johnson Franz Kline Willem and Elaine de Kooning Robert Motherwell Robert Rauschenberg Dorothea Rockburne Aaron Siskind Cy Twombly the list goes on and on Yet scholars have tended to view these artists time at the College as little more than prologue a step on their way to greatness With The Experimenters Eva Díaz reveals the importance of Black Mountain College and especially of three key teachers Josef Albers John Cage and R Buckminster Fuller to be much greater than that Díaz's focus is on experimentation Albers Cage and Fuller she shows taught new models of art making that favored testing procedures rather than personal expression These methodologies represented incipient directions for postwar art practice elements of which would be sampled and often wholly adopted by Black Mountain students and subsequent practitioners The resulting works which interrelate art and life in a way that imbues these projects with crucial relevance not only reconfigured the relationships among chance order and design they helped redefine what artistic practice was and could be for future generations Offering a bold compelling new angle on some of the most widely studied creative figures of modern times The Experimenters does nothing less than rewrite the story of art in the mid twentieth century

Introduction to Landscape Design John L. Motloch, 2000-08-25 Outstanding explorations of design concepts principles and processes This Second Edition of Introduction to Landscape Design offers even broader coverage of the environmental human technological and aesthetic issues associated with landscape design than the first edition Beginning with the way we perceive manage and design the landscape it moves on to explore the forces that influence land design An overview of landscape management planning and design includes a discussion of the roles and integration of the professions involved modes of professional practice and site scale design processes The book explores the ecology of design and the integration of land design decisions into dynamic systems This fully updated new edition Presents landscape design as a synergism of art and science Addresses the interplay between buildings and sites Provides insights into the breadth of people environment relationships Places special emphasis on our growing understanding of interrelationships between the landscape and human decisions A superb introduction for students as well as a useful reference for practicing professionals this book is an excellent guide for anyone who wants to develop a better understanding of landscape design Expanding the Vision of Rurality in the US Educational System Yoho, Louise M., Moore, Jarrett, 2023-09-28 The dominant narratives of US rurality within educational research and literature centers on the Appalachian and southern US perspectives However there is a need to add texture and expand the vision of rurality in US schools and education Expanding the Vision of Rurality in the US Educational System provides readers especially college and university faculty in pre service education programs with a better understanding of the rural students they teach and the rural communities where they will eventually teach It also attempts to move the discourse beyond the deficit framework for understanding rural communities Though the book does not ignore barriers in rural communities it focuses on the strengths and opportunities available to rural educators without depending on the rural idyllic Covering key topics such as diversity belonging and regional rurality this premier reference source is ideal for administrators policymakers industry professionals researchers academicians scholars practitioners instructors and students Office of Education Research Reports, 1956-65 Educational Research Information Center (U.S.), 1967 Office of Education Research Reports, 1956-65, ED 002 747-ED 003 960 Educational Research Information Center (U.S.), 1967 Office of Education Research Reports, 1956-1965 United States. Watson,Jeffrey S. Brooks,Floyd D.

Beachum,2017-04-01 In this book we considered new territory for educational leadership by looking to music for lessons and inspiration that may inform the next generation of schools leaders Each chapter focuses on an artist or group whose work serves to refine extend and challenge our thinking in regards to educational leadership You will find a vast array of musical forms of expression analyzed and described by an equally diverse collection of educational leadership scholars and practitioners There may be some who question the academic appropriateness or relevance of a text such as this one Our response is that part of our ongoing mission should be to break ourselves out of academic silos and forge meaningful connections between seemingly disparate disciplines Furthermore educational leadership stands to gain more by drawing from the arts and specifically musical influences Finally music is an obvious part of most of our lives why not explore the ways in which it impacts us on an academic level and not just a personal level In sum we ask that as you read the chapters of this book you reflect on your own musical tastes and favorite artists Education (Entering the Shift Age, eBook 7) David

Houle,2012-11-26 We are leaving the Information Age and transitioning into the Shift Age a time of transformation and change that offers both great risk and incredible opportunity In Entering the Shift Age David Houle identifies and explains the dynamics and forces that have shaped our world and will continue to reshape our world for the next 20 years He shows how the Shift Age means a world fully global yet focused on the individual where the speed of change is so fast that change itself is the new norm He also comments from the front lines of the Shift Age on issues and topics that affect our lives from business and technology to environment media and global culture eBook 7 looks at the profound changes soon to occur at all levels of education more in the next two decades Age than in the last two centuries Part 4 The Future of the Shift Age

Introduction Chapter 19 Education Four Hundred Years of English Education , The International Emergence of Educational Sciences in the Post-World War Two Years Thomas Popkewitz,Daniel Pettersson,Kai-Jung Hsiao,2020-10-25 The book brings together contributions from curriculum history cultural studies visual cultures and science and technology studies to explore the international mobilizations of the sciences related to education during the post World War Two years Crossing the boundaries of education and science studies it uniquely examines how the desires of science to actualize a better society were converted to the search for remaking social life that paradoxically embodied cultural differences and social divisions The book examines how cybernetics and systems theories traveled and were assembled to turn schools into social experiments and laboratories for change Explored are the new comparative technologies of quantification and the visualization of educational data used in the methods of mass observation The sciences not only about the present but also the potentialities of societies and people in the psychologies of childhood concerns for individual development growth and creativity teacher education and the quantification and assessments of educational systems The book also explores how the categories and classifications of the sciences formed at intersections with the humanities the arts and political practices This informative volume will be of interest to researchers academics and postgraduate students in the fields of curriculum studies the history of the social sciences the history of education and cultural studies and to educators and school leaders concerned with education policy
