Philosophy of Education George Herbert Mead, Gert J. J. Biesta, Daniel Trohler, 2015-11-17 Never before published this book features George Herbert Mead's illuminating lectures on the Philosophy of Education at the University of Chicago during the early 20th century These lectures provide unique insight into Mead's educational thought and reveal how his early psychological writings on the social character of meaning and the social origin of reflective consciousness was central in the development of what Mead referred to as his social conception of education The introduction to the book provides an overview of Mead's educational thought and places it against the wider social intellectual and historical background of
