Race And Slavery In The Middle East An Historical Enquiry:

Race and Slavery in the Middle East Bernard Lewis, 1990 From the days before Moses up through the 1960s slavery was a fact of life in the Middle East But if the Middle East was one of the last regions to renounce slavery how do we account for its and especially Islam's image of racial harmony How did these long years of slavery affect racial relations In Race and Slavery in the Middle East Bernard Lewis explores these questions and others examining the history of slavery in law social thought practice and literature and art over the last two millennia

Race and Slavery in the Middle East Bernard Lewis, 1990 From the time of Moses up to the 1960s slavery was a fact of life in the Middle East But if the Middle East was the last region to renounce slavery how do we account for its and especially Islam's image of racial harmony This book explores these questions

Racism Kevin Reilly, Stephen Kaufman, Angela Bodino, 2003 Racism has existed throughout the world for centuries and has been at the root of innumerable conflicts and human tragedies including war genocide slavery bigotry and discrimination Defined broadly racism has had many forms and effects from caste prejudice in India and mass extermination in Tasmania to slavery in the Americas and the Holocaust in Europe Put simply racism has been one of the overriding forces in world history for more than a millennium This book provides a global perspective of racism in its myriad forms Consisting of twelve parts and fifty one articles it focuses on racism worldwide over the past thousand years It includes three types of articles original documents scholarly essays and journalistic accounts

Slavery, Diplomacy and Empire Keith Hamilton, 2013-03-04 Throughout the nineteenth century British governments engaged in a global campaign against the slave trade They sought through coercion and diplomacy to suppress the trade on the high seas and in Africa and Asia This collection of essays examines the role played by individuals and institutions in the diplomacy of suppression

Slavery in the Islamic World Mary Ann Fay, 2018-11-17 This edited volume determines where slavery in the Islamic world fits within the global history of slavery and the various models that have been developed to analyze it To that end the authors focus on a question about Islamic slavery that has frequently been asked but not answered satisfactorily namely what is Islamic about slavery in the Islamic world Through the fields of history sociology literature women's studies African studies and comparative slavery studies this book is an important contribution to the scholarly research on slavery in the Islamic lands which continues to be understudied and under represented in global slavery studies

Unbroken Chains Martin Plaut, 2025-08-28 Slavery has torn apart African societies since at least 2 500 BCE from Egypt to the Cape from Mauritania to Somalia Yet most writing covers just one fraction of this history the horrors of the trans Atlantic slave trade Historians and commentators long neglected the equally sizeable far more protracted phenomenon of Indian Ocean slavery and all but passed over Africa's internal practices from Ethiopian kingdoms enslaving conquered peoples to the Sokoto Caliphate capturing non Muslims on a scale matching that of the US plantations Yet overlooked stories of enslavement matter In 1794 Congress authorised construction of the US Navy's first six ships in response to civilian vessels being seized by North Africa's

Barbary corsairs who raided as far as Britain and the Caribbean enslaving hundreds of thousands of Europeans And since abolition of the trans Atlantic trade international concern has moved from traditional to modern forms of slavery leaving Africans enslaved as chattel today with few champions abroad The UN and African Union are too embarrassed to confront the African leaders still permitting this practice Unbroken Chains offers readers a full accessible history of the myriad bondage systems that have devastated African communities over the millennia It is a haunting sensitive powerful read

America on the World Stage Organization of American Historians, 2024-04-22 Recognizing the urgent need for students to understand the emergence of the United States power and prestige in relation to world events Gary W Reichard and Ted Dickson reframe the teaching of American history in a global context Each essay covers a specific chronological period and approaches fundamental topics and events in United States history from an international perspective emphasizing how the development of the United States has always depended on its transactions with other nations for commodities cultural values and populations For each historical period the authors also provide practical guidance on bringing this international approach to the classroom with suggested lesson plans and activities Ranging from the colonial period to the civil rights era and everywhere in between this collection will help prepare Americans for success in an era of global competition and collaboration Contributors are David Armitage Stephen Aron Edward L Ayers Thomas Bender Stuart M Blumin J D Bowers Orville Vernon Burton Lawrence Charap Jonathan Chu Kathleen Dalton Betty A Dessants Ted Dickson Kevin Gaines Fred Jordan Melvyn P Leffler Louisa Bond Moffitt Philip D Morgan Mark A Noll Gary W Reichard Daniel T Rodgers Leila J Rupp Brenda Santos Gloria Sesso Carole Shammas Suzanne M Sinke Omar Valerio Jimenez Penny M Von Eschen Patrick Wolfe and Pingchao Zhu The Ashgate Research Companion to Modern Imperial Histories John Marriott, 2016-03-23 Written by leading scholars this collection provides a comprehensive and authoritative overview of modern empires Spanning the era of modern imperial history from the early sixteenth century to the present it challenges both the rather insular focuses on specific experiences and gives due attention to imperial formations outside the West including the Russian Japanese Mughal Ottoman and Chinese The companion is divided into three broad sections Part I Times surveys the three main eras of modern imperialism The first was that dominated by the settlement impulse with migrants many voluntarily and many more by force making new lives in the colonies This impulse gave way most especially in the nineteenth century to a period of busy and rapid expansion which was less likely to promote new settlement and in which colonists more frequently saw their sojourn in colonial lands as temporary and related to the business mostly of governance and trade Lastly in the twentieth century in particular empires began to fail and to fall Part II Spaces studies the principal imperial formations of the modern world Each chapter charts the experience of a specific empire while at the same time placing it within the complex patterns of wider imperial constellations The individual chapters thus survey the broad dynamics of change within the empires themselves and their relationships with other imperial formations and reflect critically on the ways in which these topics have been approached in the literature In Part III Themes scholars think critically about some of the key features of imperial expansion and decline These chapters are brief and many are provocative They reflect the current state of the field and suggest new lines of inquiry which may follow from more comparative perspectives on empire The broad range of themes captures the vitality and diversity of contemporary scholarship on questions of empire and colonialism encompassing political economic and cultural processes central to the formation and maintenance of empires as well as institutions ideologies and social categories that shaped the lives both of those implementing and those experiencing the force of empire In these pages the reader will find the slave and the criminal the merchant and the maid the scientist and the artist alongside the structures which sustained their lives and their livelihoods Overall the companion emphasises the diversity of imperial experience and process Comprehensive in its scope it draws attention to the particularities of individual empires rather than over generalising as if all empires at all times and in all places behaved in a similar manner It is this contingent and historical specificity that enables us to explore in expansive ways precisely what constituted the modern empire

Researching Racism Muzammil Quraishi, Rob Philburn, 2015-04-21 A welcome and overdue contribution to the field Identifying a need for an empirical guide to complement the abundant theoretical literature this book combines a variety of practical avenues of advice with analytical sophistication without losing any of the subject matter's complexities The contextual chapters are well judged and informative while readers will surely find the careful selection and very clear presentation of the case studies particularly useful in thinking through the projects from start to completion Steve Garner Open University This book offers a one stop guide to the meaning of racism key studies in the field core methodologies and an agenda for research for the future Discussing the salient aspects of race and racism in contemporary society alongside methodological and practical considerations of qualitative research in the field Researching Racism is not only an original textbook but also a crucial guide for anyone beginning their own research on racism Based on Muzammil Quraishi and Rob Philburn's extensive background as researchers supervisors and teachers this book offers a clear and accessible account of an interdisciplinary and complex topic incorporates historical legislative and international dimensions of race and racism outlines and illustrates a range of qualitative research methods provides case studies and engaging examples includes a tool kit for researchers of racism This is an indispensable guide for students wanting to research race and racism across the social sciences

Slaves Without Shackles Nur Sobers-Khan, 2020-08-10 No detailed description available for Slaves Without Shackles

Transgressive Truths and Flattering Lies Markus Schmitz, 2020-04-02 This book explores the formative correlations and inventive transmissions of Anglophone Arab representations ranging from early 20th century Mahjar writings to contemporary transnational Palestinian resistance art Tracing multiple beginnings and seminal intertexts the comparative study of dissonant truth making presents critical readings in which the notion of cross cultural translation gets displaced and strategic unreliability representational opacity or matters of act advance to essential qualities of the discussed works aesthetic devices and ethical concerns Questioning conventional interpretive approaches Markus Schmitz shows what Anglophone Arab studies are and what they can become from a radically decentered relational point of view Among the writers and artists discussed are such diverse figures as Rabih Alameddine William Blatty Kahlil Gibran Ihab Hassan Jabra Ibrahim Jabra Emily Jacir Walid Raad Ameen Rihani Edward Said Larissa Sansour and Raja Shehadeh Social and Gender Inequality in Oman Khalid M. Al-Azri, 2013 Looking at the social political and legal changes in Oman since 1970 this book challenges the Islamic and tribal traditional cultural norms relating to marriage divorce and women's rights which guide social and legal practice in the modern Omani state The book argues that despite the establishment of legal instruments guaranteeing equality for all citizens the fact that the state depends upon Islamic and tribal elites for its legitimacy invalidates these guarantees in practice Two particular features of the legal and cultural regulation of marriage and marital rights are focused on the perceived requirement for kafa' or equality in marriage between so called high and low socio-economic status peoples is examined and the institution of talaq which grants greater rights to men than to women in appeals for divorce This book addresses highly complex subjects with great rigor in terms of empirical research and engagement with theory sociological and political as well as theological and legal It is an interesting investigation of the divisions of authority between the state Islam and tribal norms highlighting barriers to reform in both Oman and wider Islamic society and advocating the removal of such obstacles

A Short History of Slavery James Walvin, 2007-03-01 As we approach the bicentenary of the abolition of the Atlantic trade Walvin has selected the historical texts that recreate the mindset that made such a savage institution possible morally acceptable even Setting these historical documents against Walvin's own incisive historical narrative the two layers of this extraordinary definitive account of the Atlantic slave trade enable us to understand the rise and fall of one of the most shameful chapters in British history the repercussions of which the modern world is still living with

Slavery and Bondage in Medieval North India Shadab Bano, 2024-11-15 This book examines slavery in India from the Turkish conquest of North India to the centuries of Mughal rule It focuses on the northern Islamic regimes treatment of slavery but not limited or determined by the actions and demands of the ruling class alone Societies normalized the practices and the norms were socially constituted which included slaves acceptance resistance and use of agency in the process It shows how the transformations on the ground made the social economic and ethical environment of slavery no longer the same over the centuries and the expansion or contraction of slavery corresponded to the structural changes and ethical developments specific to the Indian milieu The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of South Asian studies history and slavery

Narratives of Dependency Elke Brüggen, Marion Gymnich, 2024-05-20 Given that strong asymmetrical dependencies have shaped human societies throughout history this kind of social relation has also left its traces in many types of texts Using written and oral narratives in attempts to reconstruct the history of asymmetrical dependency comes along with various methodological challenges as the 15 articles in this interdisciplinary volume illustrate They focus on a wide range of different factual and fictional text types including inscriptions from Egyptian tombs biblical stories novels from antiquity the Middle High German Rolandslied Ottoman court records captivity narratives travelogues the American gift book The Liberty Bell and oral narratives by Caribbean Hindu women Most of the texts discussed in this volume have so far received comparatively little attention in slavery and dependency studies The volume thus also seeks to broaden the archive of texts that are deemed relevant in research on the histories of asymmetrical dependencies bringing together perspectives from disciplines such as Egyptology theology literary studies history and anthropology

Invisible Slaves W. Kurt Hauser, 2017-10-01 In Invisible Slaves W Kurt Hauser discusses slavery around the world with research and firsthand stories that reframe slavery as a modern day crisis not a historical phenomenon or third world issue Identifying four types of slavery chattel slavery debt bondage forced labor and sex slavery he examines the efforts and failures of governments to address them He explores the political economic geographic and cultural factors that shape slavery today illustrating the tragic human toll with individual stories Country by country the author illuminates the harsh realities of modern day slavery He explores slavery's effects on victims including violence isolation humiliation and the master slave relationship and discusses the methods traffickers use to lure the vulnerable especially children into slavery He assesses nations based on their levels of slavery and efforts to combat the problem citing the rankings of the United States Trafficking Victims Protection Act He concludes with an appeal to governments and ordinary citizens alike to meet this humanitarian crisis with awareness and action

Historic Engagements with Occidental Cultures, Religions, Powers A. Richards, I. Omidvar, 2015-12-11 This book explores centuries of power relations and imperial and civilizing rhetorics overarching themes highlighted in these infrequently heard accounts by eastern travelers to the West Considered in depth are evolutions in mental frameworks and practices that led to the emergence of anticolonial consciousness and strategies of protest

African Re-Genesis Jay B Haviser, Kevin C MacDonald, 2016-07 An exploration of the archaeology of the African diaspora

The harem, slavery and British imperial culture Diane Robinson-Dunn, 2017-03-01 This book focuses on British efforts to suppress the traffic in female slaves destined for Egyptian harems during the late nineteenth century It considers this campaign in relation to gender debates in England and examines the ways in which the assumptions and dominant imperialist discourses of these abolitionists were challenged by the newly established Muslim communities in England as well as by English people who converted to or were sympathetic with Islam While previous scholars have treated antislavery activity in Egypt first and foremost as an extension of earlier efforts to abolish plantation slavery in the New World this book considers it in terms of encounters with Islam during a period which it argues marked a new departure in Anglo Muslim relations This approach illuminates the role of Islam in the creation of English national identities within the global cultural system of the British Empire This book would appeal to those with an interest in British imperial history Islam gender feminism and women's studies slavery and race the formation of national
