Race, Ethnicity, Gender and Human Rights in the Americas Celina Romany, 2001      Intimate Partner Violence and Advocate Response , Melissa Beske, 2016-04-21 Intimate Partner Violence and Advocate Response Redefining Love in Western Belize offers new insight into the cross cultural analysis of gender based intimate partner violence by blending activist anthropology with in depth ethnographic research to evaluate and help ameliorate the crisis in Belize Drawing from twenty months of fieldwork in the Belizean Cayo District conducted between 2002 and 2013 Melissa A Beske investigates the prevalence and complexity of partner abuse the contributing cultural and structural factors and the advocate dynamics across local national and transnational frameworks in combating the problem Combining enlivened narratives comparative viewpoints and scholar activism this book not only illustrates the lived suffering of partner abuse in Cayo but it also engages with the passionate commitment of survivors and supporters as they endeavor to create a more equitable and peaceful community In doing so it demonstrates an effective strategy for the interdisciplinary assessment of gender based abuse which satisfies demands for theoretical impartiality while simultaneously enabling researchers to take an ethical stand in social causes      Narratives of Mass Atrocity Sarah Federman, Ronald Niezen, 2022-09-08 Offers a narrative approach to post conflict intervention showing how legalism following mass violence encourages dangerous binaries      Power Interrupted Sylvanna M. Falcón, 2016-04-16 In Power Interrupted Sylvanna M Falc n redirects the conversation about UN based feminist activism toward UN forums on racism Her analysis of UN antiracism spaces in particular the 2001 World Conference against Racism Racial Discrimination Xenophobia and Related Intolerance in Durban South Africa considers how a race and gender intersectionality approach broadened opportunities for feminist organizing at the global level The Durban conference gave feminist activists a pivotal opportunity to expand the debate about the ongoing challenges of global racism which had largely privileged men s experiences with racial injustice When including the activist engagements and experiential knowledge of these antiracist feminist communities the political significance of human rights becomes evident Using a combination of interviews participant observation and extensive archival data Sylvanna M Falc n situates contemporary antiracist feminist organizing from the Americas specifically the activism of feminists of color from the United States and Canada and feminists from Mexico and Peru alongside a critical historical reading of the UN and its agenda against racism      The Multivoiced Body Fred Evans, 2009-03-30 Ethnic cleansing and other methods of political and social exclusion continue to thrive in our globalized world complicating the idea that unity and diversity can exist in the same society When we emphasize unity we sacrifice heterogeneity yet when we stress diversity we create a plurality of individuals connected only by tenuous circumstance As long as we remain tethered to these binaries as long as we are unable to imagine the sort of society we want in an age of diversity we cannot achieve an enduring solution to conflicts that continue unabated despite our increasing proximity to one another By envisioning the public as a multivoiced body Fred Evans offers a solution to the dilemma of diversity The multivoiced body is both one and many heterogeneous voices that at once separate and bind themselves together through their continuous and creative interplay By focusing on this traditionally undervalued or overlooked notion of voice Evans shows how we can valorize simultaneously the solidarity diversity and richness of society Moreover recognition of society as a multivoiced body helps resist the pervasive countertendency to raise a chosen discourse to the level of one true God pure race or some other oracle that eliminates the dynamism of contesting voices To support these views Evans taps the major figures and themes of analytic and continental philosophy as well as modernist postmodernist postcolonial and feminist thought He also turns to sources outside of philosophy to address the implications of his views for justice citizenship democracy and collective as well as individual rights Through the seemingly simple conceit of a multivoiced body Evans straddles both philosophy and political practice confronting issues of subjectivity language communication and identity For anyone interested in moving toward a just society and politics The Multivoiced Body offers an innovative approach to the problems of human diversity and ethical plurality

Puerto Rico under Colonial Rule Ramon Bosque-Perez, Jose Javier Colon Morera, 2006-06-01 Puerto Rico one of the last and most populated colonial territories in the world occupies a relatively unique position Its lengthy interaction with the United States has resulted in the long term acquisition of expanded legal rights and relative political stability At the same time that interaction has simultaneously seen political intolerance and the denial of basic rights particularly toward those who have challenged colonialism In Puerto Rico under Colonial Rule academics and intellectuals from the fields of political science history sociology and law examine three themes evidence of state sponsored political persecution in the twentieth century contemporary issues and the case of Vieques

Violent Intimacy Tiantian Zheng, 2022-06-30 Winner of the 2022 Research Publication Book Award from the Association of Chinese Professors of Social Sciences in the United States Based on ethnographic research with victims of intimate partner violence since 2014 this book brings to the forefront women s experiences of negotiations about and contestations against violence and men s narratives about the reasons for their violence Using an innovative methodology online chat groups it foregrounds the role of history structural inequalities and the cultural system of power hierarchy in situating and constructing intimate partner violence Centering on men and women s narratives about violence this book connects intimate partner violence with invisible structural violence the historical cultural political economic and legal context that gives rise to and perpetuates violence against women Through examining the ways in which women s lives are constrained by various forms of violence hierarchy and inequality this book shows that violence against women is a structural issue that is historically produced and politically and culturally engaged

Making a Killing Alicia Gaspar de Alba, Georgina Guzmán, 2010-11-01 Since 1993 more than five hundred women and girls have been murdered in Ciudad Juarez across the border from El Paso Texas At least a third have been sexually violated and mutilated as well Thousands more have been reported missing and remain unaccounted for The crimes have been poorly investigated and have gone unpunished and unresolved by Mexican authorities thus creating an epidemic of misogynist violence on an increasingly globalized U S Mexico border This book the first anthology to focus exclusively on the Ju rez femicides as the crimes have come to be known compiles several different scholarly interventions from diverse perspectives including feminism Marxism critical race theory semiotics and textual analysis Editor Alicia Gaspar de Alba shapes a multidisciplinary analytical framework for considering the interconnections between gender violence and the U S Mexico border The essays examine the social and cultural conditions that have led to the heinous victimization of women on the border from globalization free trade agreements exploitative maquiladora working conditions and border politics to the sexist attitudes that pervade the social discourse about the victims The book also explores the evolving social movement that has been created by NGOs mothers organizing efforts and other grassroots forms of activism related to the crimes Contributors include U S and Mexican scholars and activists as well as personal testimonies of two mothers of femicide victims Multicentered Feminism MariaCaterina La

Movements for Human Rights David L. Brunsma, Keri Iyall Smith, Brian Gran, 2016-09-07 How do people work together to advance human rights Do people form groups to prevent human rights from being enforced Why In what ways do circumstances matter to the work of individuals collectively working to shape human rights practices Human society is made of individuals within contexts tectonic plates not of the earth's crust but of groups and individuals who scrape and shift as we bump along competing for scarce resources and getting along These movements large and small are the products of actions individuals take in communities within families and legal structures These individuals are able to live longer yet continue to remain vulnerable to dangers arising from the environment substances struggles for power and a failure to understand that in most ways we are the same as our neighbors Yet it is because we live together in layers of diverse communities that we want our ability to speak to be unhindered by others use spirituality to help us understand ourselves and others possess a space and objects that are ours alone and join with groups that share our values and interests including circumstances where we do not know who our fellow neighbor is For this reason sociologists have identified the importance of movements and change in human societies When we collaborate in groups individuals can change the contours of their daily lives Within this book you will find the building blocks for human rights in our communities To understand why sometimes we enjoy human rights and other times we experience vulnerability and risk sociologists seek to understand the individual within her context Bringing together prominent sociologists to grapple with these questions Movements for Human Rights Locally and Globally offers insights into the ways that people move for and against human rights

Muslim Minorities and Social Cohesion Abe Ata, 2020-09-22 This book examines various attempts in the West to manage cultural linguistic and religious diversity focusing on Muslim minorities in predominantly non Muslim societies An international panel of contributors chart evolving national identities and social values assessing the way that both contemporary Western societies and contemporary Muslim minorities view themselves and respond to the challenges of diversity Drawing on themes and priority subjects from Islamic Culture within Euro Asian Australian and American international research they address multiple critical issues and discuss their implications for existing and future policy and practice in this area These include subjects such as gender the media citizenship and multiculturalism The insight provided by this wide ranging book will be of great use to scholars of Religious Studies Interreligious Dialogue and Islamic Studies as well as Politics Culture and Migration Rethinking American Women's Activism Annelise Orleck,2014-10-17 In this enthralling narrative Annelise Orleck chronicles the history of the American women s movement from the nineteenth century to the present Starting with an incisive introduction that calls for a reconceptualization of American feminist history to encompass multiple streams of women s activism she weaves the personal with the political vividly evoking the events and people who participated in our era s most far reaching social revolutions In short thematic chapters Orleck enables readers to understand the impact of women s activism and highlights how feminism has flourished through much of the past century within social movements that have too often been treated as completely separate Showing that women s activism has taken many forms has intersected with issues of class and race and has continued during periods of backlash Rethinking American Women s Activism is a perfect introduction to the subject for anyone interested in women s history and social movements
