Race John Howard And The Remaking Of Australia:

Race Andrew Markus, 2001 In the last decade of the 20th century racial issues became very prominent in Australian public life moving from fringe to centre stage This text seeks to explain this change and to make sense of this issue s increasingly disturbing profile in modern Australian life Chapters include coverage of Aboriginal land rights the treatment of asylum seekers and the fate of reconciliation     A Concise History of Australia Stuart Macintyre, 2009-06-29 Australia is the last continent to be settled by Europeans but it also sustains a people and a culture tens of thousands years old For much of the past 200 years the newcomers have sought to replace the old with the new This book tells how they imposed themselves on the land and brought technology institutions and ideas to make it their own It relates the advance from penal colony to a prosperous free nation and illustrates how as a nation created by waves of newcomers the search for binding traditions was long frustrated by the feeling of rootlessness until it came to terms with its origins The third edition of this acclaimed book recounts the key factors social economic and political that have shaped modern day Australia It covers the rise and fall of the Howard government the 2007 election and the apology to the stolen generation More than ever before Australians draw on the past to understand their future     John Winston Howard Peter Van Onselen, Wayne Errington, 2008 A portrait of one of Australia s longest serving prime ministers this biography goes behind the public image to find neither the strong willed man of principle his supporters like to imagine nor the cunning opportunist painted by his foes The discussion covers Howard s suburban middle class upbringing and his success at implementing his policies concluding that although the image of the ordinary bloke has helped his enduring popularity heandmdash like George Bushandmdash possesses a number of uncommon strengths that have made him one of the most formidable leaders in Australian political history     Social Work Research Heather D'Cruz, Martyn Jones, 2004-05-18 This is a very useful introductory text it is well structured has a very accessible style and guides students through exercises that are relevant and appropriate The book is unique in that it goes beyond general textbooks and I will be very happy to recommend it to my students Beth Humphries Reader in Social Work Lancaster University The role of research in social work has become increasingly critical and relevant to training and practice Social Work Research has been designed to address this and to demonstrate the importance of research for improving social work practice Written in an engaging and accessible style the book explains the links between practice knowledge and research It succeeds in bridging the gap between theory and reality by discussing a range of research paradigms and placing them in the context of professional social work It also goes beyond other textbooks to discuss the political and ethical contexts that are intrinsic to social work practice Other key features of the book include Fulfills QAA benchmarks in social work training social work research is a required topic on undergraduate degrees Addresses topical issues such as the need for evidence based practice and an awareness of ethics International in scope draws upon international literature Grounded in real life research through case studies User friendly and student focused it includes

Trapped by History Darryl Cronin, 2021-04-15 The Australian nation has reached an impasse in Indigenous policy and practice and fresh strategies and perspectives are required Trapped by History highlights a fundamental issue that the Australian nation must confront to develop a genuine relationship with Indigenous Australians The existing relationship between Indigenous people and the Australian state was constructed on the myth of an empty land terra nullius Interactions with Indigenous people have been constrained by eighteenth century assumptions and beliefs that Indigenous people did not have organised societies had neither land ownership nor a recognisable form of sovereignty and that they were savage but could be civilized through the erasure of their culture These incorrect assumptions and beliefs are the foundation of the legal constitutional and political treatment of Indigenous Australians over the course of the country s history They remain ingrained in governmental institutions Indigenous policy making judicial decision making and contemporary public attitudes about Indigenous people Trapped by History shines new light upon historical and contemporary examples where Indigenous people have attempted to engage and dialogue with state and federal governments These governments have responded by trying to suppress and discredit Indigenous rights culture and identities and impose assimilationist policies In doing so they have rejected or ignored Indigenous attempts at dialogue and partnership Other settler countries such as New Zealand Canada and the United States of America have all negotiated treaties with Indigenous people and have developed constitutional ways of engaging cross culturally In Australia the limited recognition that Indigenous people have achieved to date shows that the state is unable to resolve long standing issues with Indigenous people Movement beyond the current colonial relationship with Indigenous Australians requires a genuine dialogue to not only examine the legal and intellectual framework that constrains Indigenous recognition but to create new foundations for a renewed relationship based on intercultural negotiation mutual respect sharing and mutual responsibility This must involve building a shared understanding around addressing past injustices and creating a shared vision for how Indigenous people and other Australians will associate politically in the future

Anti-racist Discourse on Muslims in the Australian Parliament Jennifer E. Cheng, 2017-11-15 Anti racist Discourse on Muslims in the Australian Parliament examines anti racist discourse in contemporary Australian politics in particular how politicians contest and challenge racism against a minority group that does not constitute a traditional race Using critical discourse analysis this book firstly deconstructs the racist xenophobic and discriminatory arguments against Muslims Secondly it highlights the anti racist counter discourse to these arguments Since blatantly racist statements are less common nowadays the book focuses on manifestations of culturalist racism It does this by investigating how talk about Muslims positions them as not Australian or as not belonging to Australia the book takes such discursive exclusion from the nation as one of the most widespread forms of culturalist racism in Western liberal democracies In addition to contributing to the theoretical discussion on the relationship between Muslims racism and anti racism the book expands on methods that apply critical discourse analysis and the discourse historical approach by providing a practical guide to analysing anti racist political discourses

Asian Migration and Education Cultures in the Anglosphere Megan Watkins, Christina Ho, Rose Butler, 2019-03-27 Asian migration and mobilities are transforming education cultures in the Anglosphere prompting mounting debates about tiger mothers and dragon children and competition and segregation in Anglosphere schools This book challenges the cultural essentialism which prevails in much academic and popular discussion of Asian success and in relation to Asian education mobilities As anxiety and aspiration within these spaces are increasingly ethnicised the children of Asian migrants are both admired and resented for their educational success This book explores popular perceptions of Asian migrant families through in depth empirically informed accounts on the broader economic social historical and geo political contexts within which education cultures are produced This includes contributions from academics on global markets and national policies around migration and education classed trajectories and articulations local formations of ethnic capital and transnational assemblages that produce education and mobility as means for social advancement At a time when our schooling systems and communities are undergoing rapid transformations as a result of increasing global mobility this book is a unique and important contribution to an issue of pressing significance This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies

Bianco in Questione Susan Petrilli, 2007 The Outsiders Within Peta Stephenson, 2007 An engaging account of the ways in which over hundreds of years Indigenous and Asian people across northern and central Australia have traded intermarried and built hybrid communities It is also a disturbing expose of the persistent sometimes paranoid efforts of successive national governments to police marginalize and outlaw these encounters

The White Possessive Aileen Moreton-Robinson, 2015-05-15 The White Possessive explores the links between race sovereignty and possession through themes of property owning property being property and becoming propertyless Focusing on the Australian Aboriginal context Aileen Moreton Robinson questions current race theory in the first world and its preoccupation with foregrounding slavery and migration The nation she argues is socially and culturally constructed as a white possession Moreton Robinson reveals how the core values of Australian national identity continue to have their roots in Britishness and colonization built on the disavowal of Indigenous sovereignty Whiteness studies literature is central to Moreton Robinson s reasoning and she shows how blackness works as a white epistemological tool that bolsters the social production of whiteness displacing Indigenous sovereignties and rendering them invisible in a civil rights discourse thereby sidestepping thorny issues of settler colonialism Throughout this critical examination Moreton Robinson proposes a bold new agenda for critical Indigenous studies one that involves deeper analysis of how the prerogatives of white possession function within the role of disciplines Asylum

Seekers Linda Briskman,Alperhan Babacan,2009-05-27

Multiculturalism and Integration Michael Clyne,James Jupp,2011-07-01 Multiculturalism has been the official policy of all Australian governments Commonwealth and State since the 1970s It has recently been criticised both in Australia and elsewhere Integration has been suggested as a better term and policy Critics suggest it is a reversion to assimilation However integration has not been rigorously defined and may simply be another form of multiculturalism which the authors believe to have been vital in sustaining social harmony Hate Speech and Freedom of Speech in Australia Katharine Gelber,Adrienne Sarah Ackary Stone,2007 Hate speech laws have existed in various forms in Australia for well over a decade Unlike other countries such as the United States and Canada they have not faced constitutional hurdles to their existence The general acceptance of hate speech laws in Australia opens intellectual space for the exploration of a range of interesting questions regarding the laws operation the underlying values they pursue and the context within which hate speech is occurring How should the regulation of hate speech be balanced against Australia s political and cultural commitment to freedom of speech Who are the hate speakers and how does their speech manifest What types of hate speech are targeted by existing laws How are these laws enforced How can the laws be changed to improve governments response to hate speech How does the emergence of bills of rights affect the regulation of hate speech Drawing on a broad range of academic and practical experts this book addresses these questions The essays in first part of this book outline the landscape within which hate speech regulation occurs They include consideration of the legal policy and historical context for vilification the ways in which the language of hatred is changing and a new look at the longstanding debate about the tension between freedom of speech and hate speech as a conflict between liberty and equality In part two the book considers the practice of hate speech regulation in a variety of Australian institutions and includes practical perspectives from the legal profession In the final part the essays consider hate speech regulation within a broader human rights framework taking into account the emergence of bills of rights in Australian states Migration and Insecurity Niklaus Steiner,Robert Mason,Anna Hayes,2013 Migration and Insecurity addressess an important but rarely considered aspect of migration how are migrants and refugees received in their new homes What defines inclusion and exclusion for migrants and how does this affect the concept of belonging in a transnational society In these essays the distinguished contributors discuss the places in which migrants and refugees construct and experience their belonging and situate this discussion in the context of the international system and government policy Chapters interrogate the notion of Migration, Belonging and the Nation State Alperhan Babacan, Supriya Singh, 2010-03-08 The book questions how modern migration and globalisation have impacted upon notions of belonging and identity within nation states across the world This book provides theoretical and empirical accounts of the relationship between identity rights nationalism race and ethnicity The authors cover the complexity of the topic as identification has become much more multifaceted The authors cover difficult and cutting edge issues relating to citizenship nation formation identity remittances transnational families migration and asylum in the context of Australia Malaysia Pakistan and Sri Lanka These critical issues inform and shape key policy and program responses of many governments and are subject of topic in international relations forums between nation states

Museums and Racism Kylie Message, 2018-05-15 Racism is a hot topic in museums today as well as an urgent social issue Focused on the broad field of multicultural policy Museums and Racism examines how the Immigration Museum in Melbourne Australia has responded to political culture and public debate around racism Analysis focuses on the conceptualization of the Immigration Museum in the mid 1990s and on the most recent permanent exhibition to be opened there in 2011 which coincided with the publication of a new multicultural policy for Australia The opening of the National Museum of Australia in Canberra in the intervening period is also examined in some detail as a comparative case study to provide a sense of the broader national social and political context Message argues that each of the three episodes demonstrates the close relationship between museum and exhibition development on the one hand and policy politics and public opinion on the other hand Including a discussion of examples from the United States and other relevant contexts Museums and Racism is key reading for students and scholars of museum studies and cultural studies around the world The book should also be of great interest to museum practitioners and policymakers in the area of multiculturalism Liberals

Israel and Settler Society Lorenzo Veracini, 2006-01-20 The struggle between Israel and the Palestinians is not unique whatever the media may suggest Lorenzo Veracini argues that the conflict is best understood in terms of colonialism as like many other societies Israel is a settler society Looking at the evolution of other colonial regimes apartheid South Africa French Algeria and Australia Veracini presents a thoughtful interpretation of the dynamics of colonialism He challenges two important myths firstly that the Israeli Palestinian dispute is unique and defies comparative approaches and secondly that the struggle is mainly based in nationality and religion and therefore different to typical colonial conflicts Comparing and contrasting official apartheid regimes with the more recent history of Israel and Palestine he offers a critical perspective on colonialism as well as important new insights into patterns of imperialism today      Selling the War on Terror Jack Holland, 2013 Considers the principal members of Coalition of the Willing in Afghanistan Iraq the United States Britain Australia Despite significant cultural historical and political overlap the War on Terror was nevertheless rendered possible in these contexts in distinct ways drawing on different discourses narratives of foreign policy identity
