Race and Ethnicity: Debates and controversies Harry Goulbourne, 2001      The Legal Status and Perspectives of Ethnic Minorities in European States Magdalena Butrymowicz, 2022-03-02 The way we exist in society defines our place in its social structures and reaffirms our belonging identity and dignity Europe is a continent characterized by many internal conflicts and ongoing struggles inside societies The battlefield is society itself where state law clashes with ethnic law over the very identity of society Exploring debates from Scandinavia to Spain about the religious and political autonomy and freedom this book explains that the violation of the rights of ethnic minorities and indigenous peoples such as the Sami and Basque peoples remains a problem in Europe In addition to these political conflicts Magdalena Butrymowicz analyzes the legal and religious culture within minority ethnic structures themselves Ultimately this book raises timely questions about the balance between state control and legal autonomy for ethnic minorities across Europe advocating for a new definition of ethnic law as the right of ethnic minorities creating their legal and ethnic identity The book will interest anyone exploring the dynamic between European states and the ethnic minorities that live in them      Windrush (1948) and Rivers of Blood (1968) Trevor Harris, 2019-10-18 This volume looks at Britain since 1948 the year when the Empire Windrush brought a group of 492 hopeful Caribbean immigrants to the United Kingdom Post war Britain may still be the most common label attached to studies in contemporary British history but the contributors to this book believe that post Windrush Britain has an explanatory power which is equally useful The objective is to study the Windrush generation and Enoch Powell's now infamous speech not only in their original historical context but also as a key element in the political social and cultural make up of today's Britain Contributions to the book use a diversity of approaches from the lucid forward looking assessment by Trevor Phillips which opens the volume through Patrick Vernon's account of the legacy of Powell's speech in Birmingham and how it inspired him to launch a national campaign for Windrush Day to the plea from novelist and playwright Chris Hannan for a fully inclusive national conversation to help overturn deeply ingrained prejudice in all parts of our society      The Race Controversy in American Education Lillian Dowdell Drakeford Ph.D., 2015-07-28 In this unique two volume work expert scholars and practitioners examine race and racism in public education tackling controversial educational issues such as the school to prison pipeline charter schools school funding affirmative action and racialized curricula This work is built on the premise that recent efforts to advance color blind race neutral educational policies and reforms have not only proven ineffective in achieving racial equity and equality of educational opportunities and outcomes in America's public schools but also exacerbated existing inequalities That point is made through a collection of essays that examine the consequences of racial inequality on the school experience and success of students of color and other historically marginalized populations Addressing K 12 education and higher education in historically black as well as predominantly white institutions the work probes the impact of race and racism on education policies and reforms to determine the role schools school processes and school structures play in the perpetuation of racial inequality in American education Each volume validates the impact of race on teaching and learning and exposes the ways in which racism manifests itself in U S schools In addition practical recommendations are presented that may be used to confront and eradicate racism in education By exposing what happens when issues of race and racism are marginalized or ignored this collection will prepare readers to resist and perhaps finally overcome the racial inequality that plagues America s schools      Social Issues in Living Color Arthur W.

Handbook of Mixed Racial and Ethnic Classification Zarine L. Rocha,Peter J. Aspinall,2020-01-03 This handbook provides a global study of the classification of mixed race and ethnicity at the state level bringing together a diverse range of country case studies from around the world The classification of race and ethnicity by the state is a common way to organize and make sense of populations in many countries from the national census and birth and death records to identity cards and household surveys As populations have grown diversified and become increasingly transnational and mobile single and mutually exclusive categories struggle to adequately capture the complexity of identities and heritages in multicultural societies State motivations for classification vary widely and have shifted over time ranging from subjugation and exclusion to remediation and addressing inequalities The chapters in this handbook illustrate how differing histories and contemporary realities have led states to count and classify mixedness in different ways for different reasons This collection will serve as a key reference point on the international classification of mixed race and ethnicity for students and scholars across sociology ethnic and racial studies and public policy as well as policy makers and practitioners Controversies in Minority Voting Bernard N.
