Racialized Boundaries Race Nation Gender Colour And Class And The Anti Racist Struggle:

Racialized Boundaries Floya Anthias,1992 Written and informed by the experiences of women from different ethnic minorities in Britain this book analyzes ethnicity as a political rather than a cultural phenomenon It develops an overall perspective for analyzing the constructs of race and racism Border Patrols Deborah Steinberg,Debbie Epstein,Richard Johnson,1997-01-01 This book explores the ways sexual divisions are constituted regulated and transgressed Postcolonial contraventions Laura Chrisman,2013-07-19 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license This book analyses black Atlantic studies colonial discourse analysis and postcolonial theory providing paradigms for understanding imperial literature Englishness and black transnationalism Its concerns range from the metropolitan centre of Conrad's Heart of Darkness to fatherhood in Du Bois's The Souls of Black Folk from the marketing of South African literature to cosmopolitanism in Achebe and from utopian discourse in Parry to Jameson's theorisation of empire New Racial Landscapes Malcolm James,Helen Kim,Victoria Redclift,2016-03-17 The chapters in this volume examine the racial and ethnic landscape of Britain in a contemporary era of neoliberalism and financial crisis A key aspect of neoliberal thought is the belief that we live in a post racial in which the problems of racism and xenophobia have been overcome However cultural retrenchment and coded xenophobia have been sweeping the political terrain accompanied by new racisms and new racial subjects that only close contextual analysis can unpick The scholarship contained in this collection challenges those who suggest that we live in a post racial time By focusing on particular locations in Britain at a particular moment the volume explores local stories of race and racism across changing sociopolitical ground This book is essential reading for scholars and students of race racism diaspora multiculturalism post colonialism transnationalism and post race This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies Routledge International Handbook of Contemporary Social and Political Theory Gerard Delanty,Stephen P. Turner,2011-03-23 The Handbook will address a range of issues that have emerged out of recent social and political theory It will focus on key themes as opposed to schools of thought or major theorists Each chapter is an emerging cutting edge topic that is of interest both to social theory and to political theory Most topics will have a clear and substantive focus on social or political problems

Contextual Strategic Entrepreneurship Nezameddin Faghih,Amir Forouharfar,2021-12-06 This edited volume discusses the contextual nature of strategic entrepreneurship It unfolds the concept of context in strategic entrepreneurship and demonstrates how entrepreneurial strategies differ among various countries societies and entrepreneurial ecosystems Written by global experts in strategic entrepreneurship research chapters discuss emerging issues in the field such as barriers to strategic entrepreneurship entrepreneurial resourced based view mixed embeddedness social media marketing competitiveness in small enterprises strategic learning and the triple helix approach to university business government strategic cooperation Affirming that strategic decisions planning and formulations are greatly context related endeavors and hence any true understanding of entrepreneurial strategy starts with appropriate understanding of relevant context this volume makes a vital contribution to the discussion of strategic entrepreneurship Intersectional Pedagogy Kim A. Case, 2016-07-07 Intersectional Pedagogy explores best practices for effective teaching and learning about intersections of identity as informed by intersectional theory Formatted in three easy to follow sections this collection explores the pedagogy of intersectionality to address lived experiences that result from privileged and oppressed identities After an initial overview of intersectional foundations and theory the collection offers classroom strategies and approaches for teaching and learning about intersectionality and social justice With contributions from scholars in education psychology sociology and women s studies Intersectional Pedagogy include a range of disciplinary perspectives and evidence based pedagogy Global Feminist Politics Suki Ali, Kelly Coate, Wangui wa Goro, 2000-03-23 Featuring an international panel of cutting edge feminist thinkers Global Feminist Politics examines the changing context for feminist political action its meaning and forms

Public Space Reader Miodrag Mitrašinić, Vikas Mehta, 2021-03-30 Recent global appropriations of public spaces through urban activism public uprising and political protest have brought back democratic values beliefs and practices that have been historically associated with cities Given the aggressive commodification of public resources public space is critically important due to its capacity to enable forms of public discourse and social practice which are fundamental for the well being of democratic societies Public Space Reader brings together public space scholarship by a cross disciplinary group of academics and specialists whose essays consider fundamental questions What is public space and how does it manifest larger cultural social and political processes How are public spaces designed socially and materially produced and managed How does this impact the nature and character of public experience What roles does it play in the struggles for the just city and the Right to The City What critical participatory approaches can be employed to create inclusive public spaces that respond to the diverse needs desires and aspirations of individuals and communities alike What are the critical global and comparative perspectives on public space that can enable further scholarly and professional work And what are the futures of public space in the face of global pandemics such as COVID 19 The readers of this volume will be rewarded with an impressive array of perspectives that are bound to expand critical understanding of public space Tourism, Diasporas and Space Tim Coles, Dallen J. Timothy, 2004-08-02 Diasporas result from the scattering of populations and cultures across geographical space and time Transnational in nature and unbounded by space they cut across the static territorial boundaries more usually deployed to govern tourism In a vibrant interdisciplinary collection of essays from leading scholars in the field this book introduces the main features and constructs of diasporas and explores their implications for the consumption production and practices of tourism Three sets of mutually reinforcing relationships are explored experiences of diaspora tourists the settings and spaces of diaspora tourism the production of diaspora tourism Addressing the relationship between diasporic groups and tourism from both a consumer and producer perspective examples are drawn from a wide spectrum of diasporic groups including the Chinese Jewish Southeast Asian Croatian Dutch and Welsh Until now there has been no systematic and detailed treatment of the relationships between diasporas their consumptions and the tourist experience However here Coles and Timothy provide a unique navigation of the nature of these inter connections which is ideal for students of tourism sociology cultural studies

New Perspectives on Racial Identity Development Charmaine Wijeyesinghe, Bailey W. Jackson, 2012-07-30 For well over a century the United Fruit Company UFCO has been the most vilified multinational corporation operating in Latin America Criticism of the UFCO has been widespread ranging from politicians to consumer activists and from labor leaders to historians all portraying it as an overwhelmingly powerful corporation that shaped and often exploited its host countries In this first history of the UFCO in Colombia Marcelo Bucheli argues that the UFCO's image as an all powerful force in determining national politics needs to be reconsidered Using a previously unexplored source the internal archives of Colombia's UFCO operation Bucheli reveals that before 1930 the UFCO worked alongside a business friendly government that granted it generous concessions and repressed labor unionism After 1930 however the country experienced dramatic transformations including growing nationalism a stronger labor movement and increasing demands by local elites for higher stakes in the banana export business In response to these circumstances the company abandoned production selling its plantations and labor conflicts to local growers while transforming itself into a marketing company The shift was endorsed by the company's shareholders and financial analysts who preferred lower profits with lower risks and came at a time in which the demand for bananas was decreasing in America Importantly Bucheli shows that the effect of foreign direct investment was not unidirectional Instead the agency of local actors affected corporate strategy just as the UFCO also transformed local politics and society

Women's History: Britain, 1850-1945, Racism in Europe Neil MacMaster, 2017-03-08 The study of modern racism has tended to treat anti-Semitism and anti-black racism as separate and unconnected phenomena This innovative study argues that a full understanding of the origins and development of racism in Europe after 1870 needs to examine the structure and interrelationships between the two dominant forms of prejudice Contrary to expectation anti black racism was not confined to the colonial maritime nations of western Europe but perpetrated even the rural societies of central and eastern Europe Likewise anti-Semitism could flourish even in the almost total absence of Jews MacMaster explores the conditions under which modern political movements faced with the crisis of modernity began to draw upon and mobilise the negative stereotypes that through the development of the mass media had become almost universal features of popular culture By weaving together the changing spatial and temporal dimensions of anti-Semitic and anti black prejudice the study provides a fresh and more global framework for understanding modern racism

Violence Against Women in South Asian Communities Ravi K. Thiara, Aisha K. Gill, 2010 This book is powerful challenging and inspirational and is an important contribution to debates on the complex intersections between ethnicity gender and inequality as well as on human rights and violence against women South Asians in Kenya Pascale Herzig, 2006 For more than a century a substantial South Asian minority has been living in Kenya Within a few decades a majority of the Kenyan Asians has managed to transform their living conditions from an impoverished rural background in South Asia to a globalised and economically successful middle class in East Africa Therefore this research sets an example of migration as an opportunity for social mobility The study is based on empirical data collected with South Asians in Kenya who were differentiated by gender age migratory generation and other social boundaries The research is divided into three levels of analysis interethnic and intra ethnic relations i.e. the relations within the South Asian minority as well as the relations within the family To understand the complexity of migrants' lives an approach of geographies of intersectionality was developed which takes different intersecting social boundaries into account and additionally considers the significance of place The study shows that migration has an impact on the relations between genders age groups and migratory generations and leads to changing identities and new lifestyles Book jacket Engendering Migration Journey Herbarry Cheung, 2023-02-01 Drawing on ethnographic research conducted with the Thai migrant community in Hong Kong between 2016 and 2020 this book provides original insights into the complexity and diversity of identity negotiation ethnicity navigation and womanhood reinvention of Thai migrant women in Hong Kong Allowing research to move beyond standard stories of victimized migrants and domestic workers by focusing on the increasing number of Southeast Asians moving into the middle class this ethnographic study of the everyday lived experience of Thai migrant women in Hong Kong will advance a new understanding of transnational migration and mobility at the intersections of gender ethnicity class generation and religion This book illustrates the influence of transnationalism and multiculturalism on migrant women's meaning making and accentuates the importance of diversity within a migrant population in particular the importance of maintaining an intersectional perspective to understand the broader phenomenon of contemporary middle class and professional migration within Southeast Asia Racism, Culture, Markets John Gabriel, 1994 With the aid of case studies which include the Bhopal disaster and the Rushdie Affair John Gabriel explores the connections between cultural representations of race and their historical institutional and global forms of expression Framing Intersectionality Helma Lutz, Maria Teresa Herrera Vivar, Linda Supik, 2016-04-15 Originally conceived by Kimberl Crenshaw in 1989 as a tool for the analysis of the ways in which different forms of social inequality oppression and discrimination interact and overlap in multidimensional ways the concept of intersectionality has attracted much attention in international feminist debates over the last decade Framing Intersectionality brings together proponents and critics of the concept to discuss the state of the art with those that have been influential in the debates that surround it Engaging with the historical roots of intersectionality in the US based race class gender debate this book also considers the European adoption of this concept in different national contexts to explore issues such as migration identity media coverage of sexual violence against men and transnational livelihoods of high and low skilled migrants Thematically arranged around the themes of the transatlantic migration of intersectionality the development of intersectionality as a theory men s studies and masculinities and the body and embodiment this book draws on empirical case studies as well as theoretical deliberations to investigate the capacity and the sustainability of the concept and shed light on the current state of intersectionality research Presenting the latest work from a team of leading feminist scholars from the US and Europe Framing Intersectionality will be of interest to all those with interests in gender women s studies masculinity inequalities and feminist thought Celebrating 40 Years of Ethnic and Racial Studies Martin Bulmer, John Solomos, 2019-12-18 This volume celebrates the 40th Anniversary of Ethnic and Racial Studies It reproduces eleven classic papers published in the journal accompanied by discussions of each paper by invited specialists and responses from the original authors The various discussions in this volume provide an insight into the evolution of contemporary debates and controversies in the field of ethnic and racial studies By bringing together these papers in one volume for the first time this book explores a number of on going debates about race and ethnicity
