Racism In America From Milk And Honey To Ham And Eggs:

Racism in America Robert McClory, 1981-01-01 Racism in the United States Meyer Weinberg, 1990-05-21 This volume represents the most comprehensive book length bibliography on the subject of racism available in the United States. Compiler Meyer Weinberg has surveyed a wide ranging group of material and classified it under 87 subject headings drawing on articles, books, congressional hearings and reports, theses and dissertations, research reports and investigative journalism. Historical references cover the long history of racism while the heightened awareness and activity of the recent past is also addressed in detail. In addition to works that fit the narrow definition of racism as a mode of oppression or group denial of rights based on color, Weinberg includes references dealing with sexism, antisemitism, economic exploitation and similar forms of dehumanization. References are grouped under a series of subject headings that include Civil Rights, Desegregation, Housing, Socialism and Racism, Unemployment and Violence against Minorities. Items which do not have self-explanatory titles are annotated and virtually every section is thoroughly cross-referenced. Also included is one section of carefully selected references on racism in countries other than the United States. Unlike the remainder of the book, this section is not comprehensive but rather provides an opportunity to view racism comparatively. The volume concludes with an author index. This work will be a significant addition to both academic and public libraries as well as an important resource for courses in racism, sociology and black history.

Motherhood and Representation E. Ann Kaplan, 2013-07-23 From novels of the nineteenth century to films of the 1990s, American culture abounds with images of white middle class mothers. In Motherhood and Representation, E. Ann Kaplan considers how the mother appears in three related spheres: the historical in which she charts changing representations of the mother from 1830 to the postmodernist present; the psychoanalytic which discusses theories of the mother from Freud to Lacan and the French Feminists; and the mother as she is figured in cultural representations in literary and film texts such as East Lynne, Marnie and The Handmaid's Tale as well as in journalism and popular manuals on motherhood. Kaplan's analysis identifies two dominant paradigms of the mother as Angel and Witch and charts the contesting and often contradictory discourses of the mother in present day America.

Race Relations in the United States Mary A. Vance, 1985 The Education of Poor and Minority Children, 1986-09-23 With this first supplement to his world bibliography which was published in 1981, Weinberg continues his efforts to retrieve and provide access to the many invaluable contributions on the subject of educating the world's poor and minority children that are frequently overlooked in the prevailing emphasis on mainstream educational and institutional concerns. Covering the literature that appeared between 1979 and 1985 in some 20,000 entries, this volume offers a detailed introduction to schooling as it is affected by the social, economic and political forces around it.
