Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications ,2003 The American Journal of Religious Psychology and Education ,1907 American Protestants and TV in the 1950s M. Rosenthal,2007-10-01 Americans in the 1950s faced the challenge of negotiating the new medium s place in the home and in American culture in general Using the American Protestant experience of the introduction of television Rosenthal illustrates the importance of the interplay between a new medium and its users Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications United States.

Superintendent of Documents,1980 February issue includes Appendix entitled Directory of United States Government periodicals and subscription publications September issue includes List of depository libraries June and December issues include semiannual index Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian,Mark A. Lamport,2015-05-07 Christianity regards teaching as one of the most foundational and critically sustaining ministries of the Church As a result Christian education remains one of the largest and oldest continuously functioning educational systems in the world comprising both formal day schools and higher education institutions as well as informal church study groups and parachurch ministries in more than 140 countries In The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contributors explore the many facets of Christian education in terms of its impact on curriculum literacy teacher training outcomes and professional standards This encyclopedia is the first reference work devoted exclusively to chronicling the unique history of Christian education across the globe illustrating how Christian educators pioneered such educational institutions and reforms as universal literacy home schooling Sunday schools women s education graded schools compulsory education of the deaf and blind and kindergarten With an editorial advisory board of more than 30 distinguished scholars and five consulting editors TheEncyclopedia of Christian Education contains more than 1 200 entries by 400 contributors from 75 countries These volumes covers a vast range of topics from Christian education History spanning from the church s founding through the Middle Ages to the modern day Denominational and institutional profiles Intellectual traditions in Christian educationBiblical and theological frameworks curricula missions adolescent and higher education theological training and Christian pedagogy Biographies of distinguished Christian educators This work is ideal for scholars of both the history of Christianity and education as well as researchers and students of contemporary Christianity and modern religious education Journals of the Century Jim Cole,Tony Stankus,2014-02-25 Get the experts perspective on the top journals of the 20th century The Journals of the Century project gathered some of America s top subject expert librarians to determine the most influential journals in their respective fields Thirty two contributing authors led by Editor Tony Stankus reviewed journals from over 20 countries that have successfully shaped the evolution of their individual specialties worldwide Their choices reflect the history of each discipline or profession taking into account rivalries between universities professional societies for profit and not for profit publishers and even nation states and international ideologies in each journal's quest for reputational dominance. Each journal was judged using criteria such as longevity of publication, foresight in carving out its niche, ability to attract none are in the employ of any publisher but each is fully credentialed and well published and many are award winners. The authors guide college and professional school librarians on limited budgets via an exposition of their analytical and critical winnowing process in determining the classic resources for their faculty students and working professional clientele. The chapters are logically grouped together in six clusters that reflect the commonly shared interests of library liaisons and the range of like-minded academic departments they typically serve. These clusters include: The Helping Professions (chapters on social work, education, psychology, sociology, and library and information sciences); Music, Museums, and Methodists (chapters on visual arts, anthropology, archaeology, philosophy, and the American religious experience); Business and Law (chapters on business and economics plus legal literature); War and Peace (chapters on modern history, political science, and international relations and military affairs); Physical Sciences and Engineering (chapters on mathematics and the physical sciences as well as engineering and computer science); Life, Health, and Agriculture (chapters on medicine and surgery, pharmacy, physical therapy, and nutrition); agriculture and veterinary medicine. Journals of the Century answers questions such as: Which university press leads in high ranking titles in the helping professions? In what crime fighting journal, ironically mentioned within the Music, Museums, and Methodists cluster, do anthropologists routinely publish? What two journals cover the biggest yearly expense of most working Americans and rank highly within both chapters of the Business and Law cluster? What family of British publications has remained indispensable reading for political and military readers for over a century in the War and Peace Cluster? What society in the Physical Sciences and Engineering cluster publishes more journals than any other publisher in this book, covering topics from light bulbs and computers to MRIs and windmills? What one word-titled journal has joined the venerable pair of Nature and Science as the most important reporters of world-class breakthroughs in basic biomedical science and many many more. Journals of the Century includes extensive commentaries on each cluster by the editor with graphical representations by world regions and publishing sectors contributing to each chapter. ISSN numbers for print editions and URL addresses for online editions are provided in a comprehensive title index. This unique book is an essential resource for serials librarians in academia, new reference librarians familiarizing themselves with classic titles and collection evaluators, and college accreditation examiners.

The American Encounter with Buddhism, 1844-1912 Thomas A. Tweed, 2005-10-12. In this landmark work, Thomas Tweed examines nineteenth-century America's encounter with one of the world's major religions. Exploring the debates about Buddhism that followed upon its introduction in this country, Tweed shows what happened when the transplanted religious movement came into contact with America's established culture and fundamentally different Protestant tradition. The book, first published in 1992, traces the efforts of various American interpreters to make sense of Buddhism in Western terms. Tweed demonstrates that while many of those interested in Buddhism considered themselves dissenters from American culture they did not abandon some of the basic values they shared with their fellow Victorians In the end the Victorian understanding of Buddhism even for its most enthusiastic proponents was significantly shaped by the prevailing culture Although Buddhism attracted much attention it ultimately failed to build enduring institutions or gain significant numbers of adherents in the nineteenth century Not until the following century did a cultural environment more conducive to Buddhism s taking root in America develop In a new preface Tweed addresses Buddhism s growing influence in contemporary American culture The Church School Journal ,1876
