

events always reflect the opinions of the recorder.

WHAT KIND OF PEOPLE TAKE THE TROUBLE TO RECORD THESE ACCOUNTS?

An early Jewish historian, Josephus, suggested that there are three main motivations for historians—

- Those who write to gain recognition for their scholarly achievements.
- Those who write to glorify a particular group of people.
- Those who try to preserve the facts and truth of our past.

HOW DO WE FIT INTO THE SCHEME OF HISTORY FROM GOD'S PERSPECTIVE?

- God created each of us with a plan and purpose.
- We are not just one out of billions and billions of people living in a world that is billions and billions of years old.
- Our individual lives, decisions and actions have a significant impact on human history.
- We were created to be a special part of a particular time and place in history.

Two basic world views that color history:

Atheistic (without God)

(Includes Humanism & Communism)

• Creation was "by chance"

• Man is constantly evolving to higher state of perfection

• Universe is defined by matter (visible objects)

• History is cyclical, spiraling

• Life has little purpose or meaning, especially for the "masses"

• No or little individual responsibility

• Events explained only in terms of natural order

• Claim the Bible to be largely myth and legend

Theistic (with God)

(Includes biblical Christianity)

+ Believe the Bible to be the word of God and a reliable historical document, as well as a handbook for daily living

+ Individual responsibility

+ Man's nature is sinful, has need of a Savior

+ God created the heavens and the earth

+ Each individual has significance and meaning

+ History is linear with a definable beginning heading toward a purposeful end (the judgement day and the end of time as we know it)

+ Universe is defined in spiritual terms

+ Allows for the possibility of miracles, or events that occur outside the expected natural order
