Res 43 Spring 2003:

Exotic Nation Barbara Fuchs, 2011-12-30 In the Western imagination Spain often evokes the colorful culture of al Andalus the Iberian region once ruled by Muslims Tourist brochures inviting visitors to sunny and romantic Andalusia home of the ingenious gardens and intricate arabesques of Granada s Alhambra Palace are not the first texts to trade on Spain s relationship to its Moorish past Despite the fall of Granada to the Catholic Monarchs in 1492 and the subsequent repression of Islam in Spain Moorish civilization continued to influence both the reality and the perception of the Christian nation that emerged in place of al Andalus In Exotic Nation Barbara Fuchs explores the paradoxes in the cultural construction of Spain in relation to its Moorish heritage through an analysis of Spanish literature costume language architecture and chivalric practices Between 1492 and the expulsion of the Moriscos Muslims forcibly converted to Christianity in 1609 Spain attempted to come to terms with its own Moorishness by simultaneously repressing Muslim subjects and appropriating their rich cultural heritage Fuchs examines the explicit romanticization of the Moors in Spanish literature often referred to as literary maurophilia and the complex often silent presence of Moorish forms in Spanish material culture The extensive hybridization of Iberian culture suggests that the sympathetic depiction of Moors in the literature of the period does not trade in exoticism but instead reminded Spaniards of the place of Moors and their descendants within Spain Meanwhile observers from outside Spain recognized its cultural debt to al Andalus often deliberately casting Spain as the exotic racial other of Europe

Beautiful Agitation Anneka Lenssen, 2020-09-29 In modern Syria a contested territory at the intersection of differing regimes of political representation artists ventured to develop strikingly new kinds of painting to link their images to life forces and agitated energies Examining the works of artists Kahlil Gibran Adham Ismail and Fateh al Moudarres Beautiful Agitation explores how painters in Syria activated the mutability of form to rethink relationships of figure to ground outward appearance to inner presence and self to world Drawing on archival materials in Syria and beyond Anneka Lenssen reveals new trajectories of painterly practice in a twentieth century defined by shifting media technologies moving populations and the imposition of violently enforced nation state borders The result is a study of Arab modernism that foregrounds rather than occludes efforts to agitate against imposed identities and intersubjective relations

Muthanna/Mirror Writing in Islamic Calligraphy Esra Akin-Kivanç, 2020-09-15 Muthanna also known as mirror writing is a compelling style of Islamic calligraphy composed of a source text and its mirror image placed symmetrically on a horizontal or vertical axis This style elaborates on various scripts such as Kufic naskh and muhaqqaq through compositional arrangements including doubling superimposing and stacking Muthanna is found in diverse media ranging from architecture textiles and tiles to paper metalwork and woodwork Yet despite its centuries old history and popularity in countries from Iran to Spain scholarship on the form has remained limited and flawed Muthanna Mirror Writing in Islamic Calligraphy provides a comprehensive study of the text and its forms beginning with an explanation of the visual principles and techniques used in its creation Author Esra Akin Kivanc explores muthanna s relationship to similar forms of writing in Judaic and Christian contexts as well as the specifically Islamic contexts within which symmetrically mirrored compositions reached full fruition were assigned new meanings and transformed into more complex visual forms Throughout Akin Kivanc imaginatively plays on the implicit relationship between subject and object in muthanna by examining the point of view of the artist the viewer and the work of art In doing so this study elaborates on the vital links between outward form and inner meaning in Islamic calligraphy

Sainthood and Authority in Early Islam: Al-Hakim al-Tirmidhi's Theory of wilaya and the Reenvisioning of the Sunni Caliphate Aiyub Palmer,2019-12-09 In Sainthood and Authority in Early Islam Aiyub Palmer recasts wil ya in terms of Islamic authority and traces its development in both political and religious spheres up through the 3rd and 4th Islamic centuries This book pivots around the ideas of al ak m al Tirmidh the first Muslim theologian and mystic to write on the topic of wil ya By looking at its structural roots in Arab and Islamic social organization Aiyub Palmer has reframed the discussion about sainthood in early Islam to show how it relates more broadly to other forms of authority in Islam This book not only looks anew at the influential ideas of al Tirmidh but also challenges current modes of thought around the nature of authority in Islamicate societies

The Hegemony of Heritage Deborah L. Stein,2018-05-11 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more The Hegemony of Heritage makes an original and significant contribution to our understanding of how the relationship of architectural objects and societies to the built environment changes over time Studying two surviving medieval monuments in southern Rajasthan the Ambika Temple in Jagat and the kalingji Temple Complex in Kailaspuri the author looks beyond their divergent sectarian affiliations and patronage structures to underscore many aspects of common practice This book offers new and extremely valuable insights into these important monuments illuminating the entangled politics of antiquity and revealing whether a monument s ritual record is affirmed as continuous and hence hoary or dismissed as discontinuous or reinvented through various strategies The Hegemony of Heritage enriches theoretical constructs with ethnographic description and asks us to reexamine notions such as archive and text through the filter of sculpture and mantra

The Changing Status of Arable Habitats in Europe Clive Hurford,Phil Wilson,Jonathan Storkey,2021-01-29 This edited volume documents the current nature conservation status of arable habitats in Europe Arable farming systems have evolved in the European landscape over more than ten thousand years and now occupy nearly 30% of the European land area They support species that have life cycles closely synchronised with traditional cereal growing many of which have experienced massive declines throughout Europe For example in Britain of the 100 plant species exhibiting the greatest declines in the latter half of the 20th century 47 were typical of arable land Despite this the habitat and many of the species associated with it remains unprotected across much of Europe The 22 chapters cover a range of topics including Regional accounts describing the impact of changing agricultural practices on the arable flora The results of research and surveillance projects on the soil organisms bryophyte flora invertebrate fauna and pollinators of arable habitats The potential for designing multifunctional and resilient agricultural landscapes The use of ex situ conservation to aid the reintroduction of rare arable plants Case studies illustrating how changing agricultural practices have impacted on bird populations in Europe The roles of remote sensing in monitoring agricultural systems How agri environment schemes can help restore the biodiversity in arable habitats and A look forward at ways to help ensure the future security of the species associated with arable habitats It is clear that the biodiversity of arable land throughout Europe has undergone major changes particularly during the second half of the 20th century and that these changes are continuing into the 21st century We need to develop a deeper appreciation of farmland wildlife and its integration into farming systems to ensure its future security in a world where value is increasingly expressed in terms of material profit This book is particularly relevant to practitioners policy makers and managers working in the fields of nature conservation agri environment schemes and land management and to researchers working in the fields of conservation biology terrestrial ecology nature conservation applied ecology biodiversity agriculture agricultural ethics and environmental studies Muqarnas, Volume 26 Gülru Necipoglu, 2009-10-26 Muqarnas is sponsored by The Aga Khan Program for Islamic Architecture at Harvard University and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Cambridge Massachusetts Muqarnas 26 contains articles on a variety of topics that span and transcend the geographic and temporal boundaries that have traditionally defined the history of Islamic art and architecture Contributors include Robert McChesney Mattia Guidetti Marcus Schadl Christian Gruber Katia Cytryn Silverman Doris Abouseif Olga Bush Emine Fetvacı Moya Carey Bernard O Kane Hadi Maktabi Nadia Erzini and Stephen Vernoit Building Histories Mrinalini Rajagopalan, 2017-03-01 Building Histories offers innovative accounts of five medieval monuments in Delhi the Red Fort Rasul Numa Dargah Jama Masjid Purana Qila and the Qutb complex tracing their modern lives from the nineteenth century into the twentieth Mrinalini Rajagopalan argues that the modern construction of the history of these monuments entailed the careful selection manipulation and regulation of the past by both the colonial and later postcolonial states Although framed as objective archival truths these histories were meant to erase or marginalize the powerful and persistent affective appropriations of the monuments by groups who often existed outside the center of power By analyzing these archival and affective histories together Rajagopalan works to redefine the historic monument far from a symbol of a specific past the monument is shown in Building Histories to be a culturally mutable object with multiple stories to tell Heritage or Heresy B. Schildgen, 2016-01-23 This is an account of the roles of local and national movements and of memory and regret in the destruction or preservation of the architectural artistic and historic legacy of Europe in which the author examines what is cultural heritage and why it matters Nagapattinam to Suvarnadwipa Hermann Kulke, K Kesavapany, Vijay Sakhuja, 2009 The expansion of the Cholas from their base in the Kaveri Delta saw this growing power subdue the kingdoms of southern India as well as occupy Sri Lanka and the Maldives by the early eleventh century It was also during this period that the Cholas initiated links with Song China Concurrently the Southeast Asian polity of Sriwijaya had through its Sumatran and Malayan ports come to occupy a key position in East West maritime trade requiring engagement with both Song China to the north and the Chola kingdom to its west The apparently friendly relations pursued were however to be disrupted in 1025 by Chola naval expeditions against fourteen key port cities in Southeast Asia This volume examines the background course and effects of these expeditions as well as the regional context of the events It brings to light many aspects of this key period in Asian history Unprecedented in the degree of detail assigned to the story of the Chola expeditions this volume is also unique in that it includes translations of the contemporary Tamil and Sanskrit inscriptions relating to Southeast Asia and of the Song dynasty Chinese texts relating to the Chola Kingdom

Renegade Women Eric R Dursteler, 2011-06-15 This book uses the stories of early modern women in the Mediterranean who left their birthplaces families and religions to reveal the complex space women of the period occupied socially and politically In the narrow sense the word renegade as used in the early modern Mediterranean referred to a Christian who had abandoned his or her religion to become a Muslim With Renegade Women Eric R Dursteler deftly redefines and broadens the term to include anyone who crossed the era's and region's religious political social and gender boundaries Drawing on archival research he relates three tales of women whose lives afford great insight into both the specific experiences and condition of females in and the broader cultural and societal practices and mores of the early Mediterranean Through Beatrice Michiel of Venice who fled an overbearing husband to join her renegade brother in Constantinople and took the name Fatima Hatun Dursteler discusses how women could convert and relocate in order to raise their personal and familial status In the parallel tales of the Christian Elena Civallesi and the Muslim Mihale atorovic who both entered a Venetian convent to avoid unwanted arranged marriages he finds courageous young women who used the frontier between Ottoman and Venetian states to exercise a surprising degree of agency over their lives And in the actions of four Muslim women of the Greek island of Milos Aiss her sisters Emin and Catig and their mother Maria who together left their home for Corfu and converted from Islam to Christianity to escape Aiss's emotionally and financially neglectful husband Dursteler unveils how a woman's attempt to control her own life ignited an international firestorm that threatened Venetian Ottoman relations A truly fascinating narrative of female instrumentality Renegade Women illuminates the nexus of identity and conversion in the early modern Mediterranean through global and local lenses Scholars of the period will find this to be a richly informative and thoroughly engrossing read
