Salvation And Mibion Of God:

Salvation and Mission of God Purna Chandra Jena,2001 Salvation to the Ends of the Earth Andreas J.

Köstenberger,2020-09-15 The saving mission of Jesus constitutes the foundation for Christian mission and the Christian gospel is its message This second edition of a classic NSBT volume emphasizes how the Bible presents a continuing narrative of God s mission providing a robust historical and chronological backbone to the unfolding of the early Christian mission

The Mystery Mission of Salvation in Christ Jesus Dr Ibim Alfred,2017-08-26 For the past twenty years I have thought and developed an interest in what I call the mystery mission of salvation in Christ Jesus This curiosity has intensified over the past three years and I am compelled by the divine spirit of Christ Jesus to put my belief and faith in ink on paper Apostle Paul the greatest theologian stated Yet when I preach the gospel I cannot boast for I am compelled to preach 1 Cor 9 16 Like Paul I am writing this book not of my own choice but of necessity I believe I have been entrusted with this assignment to unveil the mystery mission of salvation in Christ Jesus Paul stated For Christ s love compels us because we are convinced that one died for all and therefore all died 2 Cor 5 14 The love shown by Christ Jesus Gal 2 20 Rom 8 35 38 is the model of authentic existence and compels believers like Paul who thought that he had no choice but to imitate the selflessness of Christ Jesus to preach the Gospel of salvation in Christ Jesus As a believer in the Savior our Lord and God Christ Jesus I am obliged to write this book about the Son of God who wrought salvation to the universe through his birth on the first Christmas Day his mission on earth for about three years his cruel death on the cross on the first Good Friday and his ultimate resurrection on the first Easter Sunday morning My purpose in this book is not to boast on human intelligence or ability on the contrary it is to show the love of Christ Jesus who condescended and descended humbly from his divine heavenly city to this sinful earthly city in order to bring eternal salvation to all those who believe in him I do hope and pray ardently and fervently that this book might help just one person to come to know salvation in Christ Jesus for the first time or open the spiritual eye and mind of a believer to have a deeper and more holy understanding of the amazing grace and love of Christ Jesus who brings salvation to humanity by his wonderful and mysterious mission of salvation which is unveiled in this book That person in either situation could be you

Salvation Belongs to Our God Christopher J. H. Wright,2013-05-14 Christopher Wright uses this verse as a lens through which he surveys the Bible s teaching on salvation Every phrase in the verse resonates with significant themes in the Old and New Testaments all of which combine to show that the Bible tells the story of God s salvation very broadly indeed in relation to the character and purposes of God the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ the redemption of all creation the joy of Christian experience and the responsibility of Christian mission This clear deep and warm hearted exposition enriches our grasp of the Bible s multi faceted teaching about salvation The Mission of God's People

Christopher J. H. Wright,2010 Author Chris Wright offers a sweeping biblical survey of the holistic mission of the church providing practical insight for today s church leaders Wright gives special emphasis to theological trajectories of the Old Testament that not only illuminate God's mission but also suggest priorities for Christians engaged in God's world-changing work

The Mystery Mission of Salvation in Christ Jesus Ibim Alfred, 2017-08-26 For the past twenty years I have taught and developed an interest in what I call the mystery mission of salvation in Christ Jesus. This curiosity has intensified over the past three years and I am compelled by the divine spirit of Christ Jesus to put my belief and faith in ink on paper. Apostle Paul, the greatest theologian, stated: Yet when I preach the gospel I cannot boast, for I am compelled to preach. 1 Cor 9:16. Like Paul, I am writing this book not of my own choice but of necessity. I believe I have been entrusted with this assignment to unveil the mystery mission of salvation in Christ Jesus. Paul stated: For Christ's love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all and therefore all died. 2 Cor 5:14. The love shown by Christ Jesus (Gal 2:20, Rom 8:35-38) is the model of authentic existence and compels believers like Paul, who thought that he had no choice but to imitate the selflessness of Christ Jesus to preach the Gospel of salvation in Christ Jesus. As a believer in the Savior, our Lord and God, Christ Jesus, I am obliged to write this book about the Son of God who wrought salvation to the universe through his birth on the first Christmas Day, his mission on earth for about three years, his cruel death on the cross on the first Good Friday, and his ultimate resurrection on the first Easter Sunday morning. My purpose in this book is not to boast on human intelligence or ability; on the contrary, it is to show the love of Christ Jesus who condescended and descended humbly from his divine heavenly city to this sinful earthly city in order to bring eternal salvation to all those who believe in him. I do hope and pray ardently and fervently that this book might help just one person to come to know salvation in Christ Jesus for the first time or open the spiritual eye and mind of a believer to have a deeper and more holy understanding of the amazing grace and love of Christ Jesus who brings salvation to humanity by his wonderful and mysterious mission of salvation, which is unveiled in this book. That person, in either situation, could be you.

God's Mission in Asia Ken Christoph Miyamoto, 2007-06-15 Ecumenism in postwar Asia institutionalized in the Christian Conference of Asia displayed a remarkable this-worldliness from its inception in the 1940s. This tendency was in contrast to the tension between the church-centric and world-centric approaches to Christian mission that marked conciliar mission thinking in the West. This work examines the development of such this-worldly holiness in Asian ecumenism, focusing on M. M. Thomas of India and C. S. Song from Taiwan. Special attention is drawn to the idea of God's this-worldly presence that considers God as redemptively at work in world history apart from the church. The study first compares the development of this-worldly holiness in the West and Asia and then examines the thinking of Thomas and Song. The chapters on these two theologians discuss their backgrounds, the basic concerns motivating their intellectual searches, and responses to the questions arising from such concerns. These chapters also try to understand how these theologians view the relationship between God and the world. In so doing, the study highlights the significance of the idea of God's this-worldly presence shared by Thomas and Song in spite of differences in their backgrounds, approaches, and theological formulations. Having compared Thomas and Song, the study concludes that the idea of God's this-worldly presence became central to Asian ecumenism because it offered a common unifying vision to Asian Christians who come from a region characterized by tremendous diversity. The idea helped them to see the diverse peoples, cultures, and religions in Asia under one God who transcends the diversity and still takes it seriously.

A Theology of Revelation J. Scott Duvall, 2025-03-25

A Theology of Revelation by J. Scott Duvall in Zondervan's Biblical Theology of the New Testament series provides a comprehensive look at the theology of John's Apocalypse. One of only a few dedicated theologies of Revelation, Duvall's book leaves no stone unturned in the study of the final book of the Christian canon of Scripture. This thoroughly researched study includes an investigation into the historical framework of the book, authorship, date, and occasion, and purpose; a survey of literary, theological, foundations, genre, text, and canonicity; grammar and symbolic language use of the Old Testament; literary structure and interpretation; and a full literary theological reading of the book, culminating in an exploration of the book's most significant theological themes: God, Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit, the people of God, worship, discipleship, salvation, God's judgment of evil, and the new creation. Readers will find here a study that is clearly written, attentive to the historical literary context, with special attention given to the primary theological themes in the book. Perhaps above all, readers will have their hope in God and his amazing plan reinforced and strengthened.

The Mission of God Christopher J. H. Wright, 2013-01-30

Most Christians would agree that the Bible provides a basis for mission. But Christopher Wright boldly maintains that mission is bigger than that: there is in fact a missional basis for the Bible. The entire Bible is generated by and is all about God's mission. He provides a missional hermeneutic in response to this claim.

The Characterization of God in Acts Ling Cheng, 2015-02-12

Based on the plot-oriented nature of the Acts narrative, a key thought behind this book is how God is revealed in the deployment of characters and events. God's supreme saving will and mission plan determine the development of human history as well as the narrative. God's sovereign authority and power governs the movement of characters and the development of events and thus assures the fulfillment of his salvific plan. From the carrying out of the divine redemptive plan emerges a God who is invisible yet perceivable, dominant yet cogent and continuous yet changing.

V. Joseph, 2019-07-12 The recent rediscovery of the doctrine of the Trinity has left great impact on the thought and life of the Christian Church With this reinstatement the Trinity which was left out for long as an esoteric mystery has captured the imagination of theologians and elicited remarkable trinitarian formulations from across theological traditions This contemporary development has forced the church to review its dogma spirituality and Christian practices through the lens of this central doctrine of the Christian faith One of the important and essential upshots of the doctrine has been the reclamation of a theocentric and trinitarian understanding of mission as the missio Dei In view of the modern renewal of the Trinity and the global expansion of Christianity this book explores insights and perspectives from the trinitarian thoughts of St Augustine and the Indian theologian Brahmabandhab Upadhyay that can inform missio Dei theology relevant for the Indian context Liberating Scripture Michael Barram, John R. Adhinarta, 2012-06-14 With the rise of Pentecostalism in the early twentieth century and growth in the charismatic movement since a resurgence of interest in the Holy Spirit and Christian spirituality in both theology and the church's life has become evident Along with increased interest in the doctrine of the Holy Spirit there are criticisms of the treatment of the doctrine in church history for having neglected the Holy Spirit in both theology and the church's life Critical studies of the treatments of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit in church history have been laboriously conducted However there have not been many studies on the doctrine of the Holy Spirit in Reformed orthodoxy particularly in its confessional standards Recognizing the gap in the history of scholarship this work explores and provides a systematic account of the person and some aspects of the work of the Holy Spirit as presented in the major Reformed confessions and catechisms of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Attention is particularly given to those aspects of the work of the Holy Spirit that have not been greatly explored but are pertinent to contemporary discussions
