School Makes Sense Sometimes:

School Makes Sense--sometimes! Jean Gatch, Susan Turnbull, 1980 Presents some of the ways in which school is fun even though it often seems crazy illogical or unfair Making Sense of School Choice Joel A. Windle, 2016-04-29 Making Sense of School Choice explains why school choice fails to deliver on its promise to meet the needs of culturally diverse populations even in one of the world's most marketized education systems Windle offers fresh insights into the transnational processes involved in producing educational inequalities Organizational Behavior for School Leadership Leslie S. Kaplan, William A. Owings, 2017-05-12 Organizational Behavior for School Leadership provides a theoretical and practical framework to help emerging leaders build the mental models they need to be effective Presenting traditional modern and contemporary perspectives each chapter offers opportunities for readers to reflect on the ideas and apply their leadership perspective and skills to their own work settings In this way this important book helps graduate students in educational leadership understand organizational situations and circumstances an essential step in making appropriate decisions about people school operations and the community that generate improved student and teacher outcomes Special features include Guiding questions chapter openers to initiate student thinking Case studies and companion rubrics engage students in applying content to real life school scenarios with guiding rubrics to help think through answers Reflections and relevance interactive learning activities simulations and graphic assignments deepen readers understanding PSEL Standards each chapter aligns with the 2015 Professional Standards for Educational Leaders Companion website includes case studies and rubrics supplementary materials additional readings and PowerPoint slides for instructors Modern Reading Practices and Collaboration Between Schools, Family, and Community Almeida, Ana Patrícia, Esteves, Sandrina, 2022-04-29 Language is one of the greatest predictors of personal social academic and professional success No one is born a reader instead learning to read is a process that requires time effort and availability The only way for reading comprehension to develop is through practice one learns to read by reading As such it is integral to acknowledge the importance of knowing how to read and facilitating this skill in schools and at home Reading is a cornerstone for learning and no child will know academic success if their reading ability is compromised Modern Reading Practices and Collaboration Between Schools Family and Community is a premier reference book that consolidates knowledge on reading competence It presents the processes inherent in the act of reading and the mechanisms underlying the teaching and learning of reading as well as all recent research in this area Covering topics such as communication development learning motivation and transliteracy this innovative title is an excellent resource for preservice teachers childhood educators educators of K 12 and higher education academic libraries teacher training lecturers faculty and administration of K 12 and higher education researchers and academicians How Schools Do Policy Stephen J. Ball, Meg Maguire, Annette Braun, 2012 Over the last 20 years international attempts to raise educational standards and improve opportunities for all children have accelerated and proliferated This has generated a state of constant change and an unrelenting flood of initiatives changes and reforms that need to be implemented by schools In response to this a great deal of attention has been given to evaluating how well policies are realised in practice implemented Less attention has been paid to understanding how schools actually deal with these multiple and sometimes contradictory policy demands creatively working to interpret policy texts and translate these into practices in real material conditions and varying resources how they are enacted Based on a long term qualitative study of four ordinary secondary schools and working on the interface of theory with data this book explores how schools enact rather than implement policy It focuses on contexts of policy work in schools teachers as policy subjects teachers as policy actors policy texts artefacts and events standards behaviour and learning policies This book offers an original and very grounded analysis of how schools and teachers do policy It will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students of education education policy and social policy as well as school leaders in the UK and beyond

Teenagers' Perspectives on the Role of Religion in their Lives, Schools and Societies. A European Quantitative Study Pille Valk,Gerdien Bertram-Troost,Markus Friederici,Céline Béraud,2009 Religion is on the European agenda again The secularisation paradigm has lost its explanatory power and the newly coined term post secularism is used to describe the realisation that in the current social transformation religion cannot be ignored any longer The quantitative study presented in this book is part of the research effort by the REDCo project REDCo is the abbreviation for Religion in Education A contribution to Dialogue or a Factor of Conflict in Transforming Societies of European Countries The project brought together nine research teams from eight European countries England Estonia France Germany The Netherlands Norway Russia and Spain The research involved interdisciplinary cooperation between specialists in the different academic fields of education religious education sociology political science anthropology psychology theology and religious studies The book offers valuable interpretations and inspirations on the question how the students in the 14 16 year age group in Europe see the ir relevance of religions for dialogue and conflict in their daily lives in the school environment and in society as a whole The young respondents of the quantitative study are clearly aware that the diversity of religious and non religious worldviews is the reality of the European contexts they have to manage within Most of them are convinced that religion must be addressed in schools as it is too important as factor in social life and for the coexistence of people from different cultural and religious backgrounds throughout Europe to be ignored Faith, Diversity, and Education Allison

Blosser,2019-06-12 This volume explores how conservative Christian schools are shaping education in America and in turn students attitudes about diversity Based on data collected as part of a year long ethnographic study of a K 12 conservative Christian school in the South this volume analyzes the way that diversity was thought about and acted upon in a school and how these decisions affected students and teachers across racial differences The book demonstrates that conservative Christian theology defined a school s diversity efforts It also reveals the complexity of addressing diversity in a context that is largely wary of it at least in its typical secular usage The findings presented in the book raise important questions about school vouchers the influence of religious beliefs on educators decision making in schools the morality and existence of Christian schools and diversity initiatives in white spaces Faith Diversity and Education An Ethnography of a Conservative Christian School will be of great interest to researchers academics and postgraduate students in the fields of education sociology and religion ISET 2019 Farid Ahmadi,Dyah Rini Indriyanti,Virgiawan Adi Kristianto,2019-06-29 The proceedings of International Conference on Science Education and Technology 2019 are the compilation of articles in the internationally refereed conference dedicated to promote acceleration of scientific and technological innovation and the utilization of technology in assisting pedagogical process
