Secrets Of Walden Rising:

Secrets of Walden Rising Allan Baillie, 1997 Walden a town noted for its history of violence and murder and a bandit's hidden treasure reappears as the lake that covers it begins to dry up      Voices of the Other Roderick McGillis, 2013-05-13 This book offers a variety of approaches to children's literature from a postcolonial perspective that includes discussions of cultural appropriation race theory pedagogy as a colonialist activity and multiculturalism The eighteen essays divide into three sections Theory Colonialism Postcolonialism The first section sets the theoretical framework for postcolonial studies essays here deal with issues of otherness and cultural difference as well as the colonialist implications of pedagogic practice These essays confront our relationships with the child and childhood as sites for the exertion of our authority and control Section 2 presents discussions of the colonialist mind set in children's and young adult texts from the turn of the century Here works by writers of animal stories in Canada the U S and Britain works of early Australian colonialist literature and Frances Hodgson Burnett's A Little Princess come under the scrutiny of our postmodern reading practices Section 3 deals directly with contemporary texts for children that manifest both a postcolonial and a neo colonial content In this section the longest in the book we have studies of children's literature from Canada Australia Africa the Caribbean and the United States

Atlanta Rising Frederick Allen, 1996-05-25 For visitors and recent arrivals Atlanta Rising will serve as the essential primer on the ins and outs of the South's capital city For natives the book offers up a rich menu of surprising new facts and fresh insights about their own hometown      Treasure Hunters Allan Baillie, 2002-08-01 The long barrel of a skeletal gun coughed streams of fire into the night In a few moments the deck of the fishing boat burst into flame Pat has joined his father on an old boat off the coast of a troubled Indonesian island to search for treasure But as they follow a trail of clues to the world's richest shipwreck the violence on the island coils around them In this powerful action packed thriller master storyteller Allan Baillie takes us on a quest where the dangers are real and the cost of a mistake could be life      Literature Connections to World History 712 Lynda G. Adamson, 1998-06-15 Identifying thousands of historical fiction novels biographies history trade books CD ROMs and videotapes these books help you locate resources on world history for students Each is divided into two sections In the first part titles are listed according to grade levels within specific geographic areas and time periods They are further organized by product type Both books cover world history from Prehistory and the Ancient World to 54 B C to the modern era Other chapters include Roman Empire to A D 476 Europe and the British Isles Africa and South Africa Australia New Zealand Pacific Islands and Antarctica Canada China India Tibet and Burma Israel and Arab Countries Japan Vietnam Korea Cambodia and Thailand and South and Central America and the Caribbean The second section has an annotated bibliography that describes each title and includes publication information and awards The focus is on books published since 1990 and all have received at least one award      Australian Made Sonia Mycak, Amit Sarwal, 2018-08-30 Australian Made is a collection of essays about the writers the readers and the texts of multicultural Australia Presenting the work of critics and scholars from both Australia and abroad this collection creates a synergy between local and international perspectives as it explores what it means for a writer or a reader to be Australian and a text to be Australian made The Cambridge History of Australian Literature Peter Pierce, 2009-09-17 Draws on scholarship from leading figures in the field and spans Australian literary history from colonial origins indigenous and migrant literatures as well as representations of Asia and the Pacific and the role of literary culture in modern Australian society Death, Gender and Sexuality in Contemporary Adolescent Literature Kathryn James, 2009-02-10 Considering the trope of woman death the eroticizing of death and the ways in which the gendered subject is represented in dialogue with the processes of death dying and grief James shows how representations of death in young adult literature are invariably associated with issues of sexuality gender and power Saving Abbie Allan Baillie, 2000-10-02 Ian first met Abbie the orangutan when they were trapped together on a sinking freighter in the middle of a cyclone Now Ian is taking Abbie back home giving her freedom in the jungles of Borneo But it s not as simple as he thought it would be There is something much worse than a cyclone waiting for them this time The thrilling sequel to Wreck Krakatoa Lighthouse Allan Baillie, 2009-03-02 Suddenly there was a trench across the beach about ten meters away from the fishermen where before there had been nothing but flat sand The fishermen moved quickly away as the trench heaved grey ash across the sand They sprinted when it hurled black rocks at them Kerta didn t want to go to Krakatoa He knows that a dark spirit Orang Aljeh is there and he is terrified he might wake it But Kerta is there on the volcano and the Ghost of Krakatoa has woken up A powerful story of survival and loss based on the real life events of the Krakatoa eruption in 1883 Winner of the 2010 New South Wales Premier s Literary Award Patricia Wrightson Prize This book is a marvel of precision and economy stuffed to the gunnels with ideas and brimming over with a dark energy a masterclass in how to write Krakatoa Lighthouse is that rare find an exciting moving story that keeps opening the doors to larger questions Baillie puts the reader right there in the moment with stunningly accurate detail yet we never feel the dead hand of history overwhelming us From the 2010 NSW Premier s Literary Award Judges Report Outpost Allan Baillie, 2012-01-25 Something was in the rings that shouldn t have been there Life on the remote moon Ord is dangerous Random eruptions in the ice extreme cold loneliness and loss it s all Dece knows Until one day he sees a mysterious object caught in the rings of the nearby gas planet Cotal With no choice but to investigate what he will find is so extraordinary that it is almost beyond understanding The Routledge Companion to Children's Literature David Rudd, 2012-07-26 The Routledge Companion to Children s Literature is a vibrant and authoritative exploration of children s literature in all its manifestations It features a series of essays written by expert contributors who provide an illuminating examination of why children s literature is the way it is Topics covered include the history and development of children s literature various theoretical approaches used to explore the texts including narratological methods questions of gender and sexuality along with issues of race and ethnicity realism and fantasy as two prevailing modes of story telling picture books comics and graphic novels as well as young adult fiction and the crossover novel media adaptations and neglected areas of children's literature The Routledge Companion to Children's Literature contains suggestions for further reading throughout plus a helpful timeline and a substantial glossary of key terms and names both established and more cutting edge This is a comprehensive and up to date guide to an increasingly complex and popular discipline      Cat's Mountain Allan Baillie, 2006-02-06 Cat scooped leaves to add more over her body and then lay still She could hear crashing from above When Cat is dropped off at her grandmother's hut in a remote part of the bush she suddenly finds herself on her own What has happened and what can she do Piecing together clues Cat starts making sense of things but not the sort of sense she was hoping for A gritty thrilling adventure story from one of the best      Re-visioning Historical Fiction for Young Readers Kim Wilson, 2011-06-15 This study is concerned with how readers are positioned to interpret the past in historical fiction for children and young adults Looking at literature published within the last thirty to forty years Wilson identifies and explores a prevalent trend for re-visioning and rewriting the past according to modern social and political ideological assumptions Fiction within this genre while concerned with the past at the level of content is additionally concerned with present views of that historical past because of the future to which it is moving Specific areas of discussion include the identification of a new sub-genre Living history fiction stories of Joan of Arc historical fiction featuring agentic females the very popular Scholastic Press historical journal series fictions of war and historical fiction featuring multicultural discourses Wilson observes specific traits in historical fiction written for children most notably how the notion of positive progress into the future is nuanced differently in this literature in which the concept of progress from the past is inextricably linked to the protagonist's potential for agency and the realization of subjectivity The genre consistently manifests a concern with identity construction that in turn informs and influences how a metanarrative of positive progress is played out This book engages in a discussion of the functionality of the past within the genre and offers an interpretative frame for the sifting out of the present from the past in historical fiction for young readers      Australian National Bibliography , 1996-12      Classic Teenplots John T. Gillespie, Corinne J. Naden, 2006-08-30 Tells how to create book talks featuring young adult novels and covers one hundred titles giving background information on each book and author a list of main characters a plot summary critical comments and key themes      Books in Print Supplement , 2002      MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures , 2006      Book Review Digest , 1999      The Place Called Dagon Herbert Sherman Gorman, 1927
