Seed Provision And Agricultural Development:

Seed Provision & Agricultural Development Robert Tripp, 2001 Examines origins growth and performance of seed provision systems and relates Seed Provision & Agricultural Development Robert Tripp, 2001 This work investigates the strengths and weaknesses of seed management in traditional farming systems African Seed Enterprises Paul van Mele, Jeffery Westwood Bentley, Robert G. Guéi, 2011 In most developing countries good quality seed is hard to obtain and farmers struggle to save seed from one year to the next This title takes a people centred look at the companies public agencies and family farms that are taking on this role and making a difference to food security across Africa Agriculture Investment Sourcebook World Bank, 2005-04-08 Investing to promote agricultural growth and poverty reduction is a central pillar of the World Bank's current rural strategy Reaching the Rural Poor 2003 This Sourcebook addresses how to implement the rural strategy by sharing information on investment options and identifying innovative approaches that will aid the design of future lending programs for agriculture It provides generic good practices and many examples that demonstrate investment in agriculture can provide rewarding and sustainable returns to development efforts It is divided into eleven self contained modules Each module contains three different types of subunits that can also be stand alone documents I Module Overview II Agricultural Investment Notes III Innovative Activity Profiles The stand alone nature of the subunits allows flexibility and adaptability of the material Selected readings and web links are also provided for readers who seek more in depth information The Sourcebook draws on a wide range of experiences from donor agencies governments institutions and other groups active in agricultural development It is an invaluable reference tool for policy makers professionals academics and students and anyone with an interest in agricultural investments Sustainable maize production systems for Nepal. Proceedings of a Maize Symposium; Kathmandu (Nepal); 3-5 Dec 2001 Rajbhandari, N.P. , Ransom, J.K. , Adhikari, K. , Palmer, A.F.E., 2014-07-01 Innovation in India Shyama V. Ramani, 2014-07-14 Examines the evolution of sectoral system of innovation in industries that are important to India's economic development Participatory Plant Breeding: Concept and Applications Atul Bhargava, Shilpi Srivastava, 2019-04-13 Plant breeding has played a significant role in the development of human civilizations Conventional plant breeding has significantly improved crop yield by genetically manipulating agronomically important traits However it has often been criticized for ignoring indigenous germplasm failing to address the needs of the marginal and the poor farmers and emphasizing selection for broad instead of local adaptation Participatory plant breeding PPB is the process by which the producers and other stakeholders are actively involved in a plant breeding programme with opportunities to make decisions throughout The Working Group on Participatory Plant Breeding PPBwg was established in 1996 under the framework of the Consultative Group on International Agricultural Research CGIAR Research in PPB can promote informed participation and trust in research among consumers and producers and in recent years PPB has had a significant impact on food production by quickly and cost effectively producing improved crop varieties At the same time there has been significant research in the area PPB offers significant advantages that are particularly relevant to developing countries where large investments in plant breeding have not led to increased production especially in the marginal environments In addition to the economic benefits participatory research has a number of psychological moral and ethical benefits which are the consequence of a progressive empowerment of the farming communities PPB can empower groups such as women or less well off farmers that are traditionally left out of the development process This book explores the potential of PPB in the coming decades The topic is more relevant since international breeding efforts for major crops are aimed at decentralizing local breeding methods to better incorporate the perspective of end users into the varietal development process The first book incorporating the upcoming research on this novel breeding approach it reviews the important tools and applications of PPB in an easy to read succinct format with illustrations to clarify these complex topics It provides readers with a basic idea of participatory plant breeding as well as advances in the field and insights into the future to facilitate the successful integration of farmers into breeding programmes This book is a valuable reference resource for agriculturists agricultural advisers policy makers NGOs post doctoral students and scientists in agriculture horticulture forestry and botany

Assessing the constraints affecting production and deployment of maize seed in DTMA countries of West Africa , International law of relevance to plant genetic resources: a practical review for scientists and other professionals working with plant genetic resources Susan Bragdon, 2004 History and development The FAO global system for the conservation and sustainable use of plant genetic resources for food and agriculture The International treaty on plant genetic resources for food and agriculture The Convention on Biological Diversity Origin and movement of OGR implications for access and benefit sharing policies The TRIPS agreement UPOV Phytosanitary and biosafety measures Development and improvement of genetic resources Cross cutting issues Economic issues , More than a resource - the social significance of local seed systems and seed exchange in the Global South Jonas Metzger, 2023-05-31 Seeds are at the heart of a transformation process that affects more than two billion people worldwide This study on smallholder farmers in Tanzania examines how local seed systems are anchored in the socio cultural structures of smallholder life worlds Using the example of seeds the close interweaving of agricultural and social practice is traced and it is worked out how individual processes of modernisation brought in from outside have far reaching consequences for smallholder coexistence The study provides a concrete detailed and differentiated account of everyday farming life and of how smallholder households deal with seeds A particular focus is on seed exchange relationships and how these provide both social security and social cohesion in the study region The study is based on extensive field research and intensive interviews with farmers who also have their own say in the work

Seed Policy and Programmes in the Near East and North Africa , 2000-01-01 This publication presents the proceedings of the Regional Technical Meeting on Seed Policy and Programmes in the Near East and North Africa held in Larnaca Cyprus from 27 June to 2 July 1999 The meeting was organised by the Agricultural Research Institute in Nicosia Cyprus in collaboration with the Seed and Plant Genetic Resources Service of the FAO In line with the Rome Declaration on World Food Security and the World Food Summit Plan of Action the meeting recognised that one of the major challenges facing most countries in the Near East and North Africa is the need to invest significant resources in strengthening their capacity to increase the availability of good quality seeds of a wider range of plant varieties This will contribute to the maximisation of both agrobiodiversity and productivity in order to achieve national food security while reducing environmental degradation and the depletion of natural resources The meeting proposed and agreed to establish a Regional Consultative Forum on Seed Policy and Programmes for the Near East and Africa CFS NENA The forum will facilitate intercountry scientific and technical co operation on seed production and supply and promote crop genetic resources evaluation conservation and utilisation in the region

Seed system of Pakistan: Policy challenges and prospects Rana, Abdul Wajid, Gill, Sitara, Akram, Iqra, 2022-09-26 The seed industry in Pakistan has undergone significant developments since the 1950s and has transitioned from Green Revolution to Gene Revolution The 2015 amendment in the Seed Act 1976 and the enactment of Plant Breeders Rights Act and Rules have provided long awaited intellectual property protection for proprietary seed Notwithstanding this fundamental change the challenge of effective enforcement of intellectual property rights remains This paper presents how the seed industry has evolved over the years through evaluating the regulatory and institutional framework along with looking into the major challenges that still plague the seed system of Pakistan It also explores how the private sector can be incentivized to invest in the seed sector while protecting the farmers rights Findings reveal that there seems to be a lot of scope for strengthening the seed system of Pakistan via encouraging private sector participation mainly through developing proactive markets with strong institutional mechanism along with scientific and time bound regulatory approval framework An appraisal of the international best practices divulges that technological backstopping developing public private partnerships building institutional capacity for effective enforcement of regulatory regime and availability of information to farmers for selecting quality seed are equally vital for creating a well functioning seed system in Pakistan
