Writing Changes: Alphabetic Text and Multimodal Composition Pegeen Reichert Powell, 2020-04-01 Writing Changes moves beyond restrictive thinking about composition to examine writing as a material and social practice rich with contradictions. It analyzes the assumed dichotomy between writing and multimodal composition which incorporates sounds, images and gestures as well as the truism that all texts are multimodal. Organized in four sections, the essays explore alphabetic text and multimodal composition in writing studies, specific pedagogies that place writing in productive conversation with multimodal forms, current representations of writing and multimodality in textbooks, of instructors' attitudes toward social media and of writing programs, ideas about writing studies as a discipline in the light of new communication practices. Bookending the essays are an introduction that frames the collection and establishes key terms and concepts and an epilogue that both sums up and complicates the ideas in the essays.

Potter,Christina L. Baade,Roberta Montemorra Marvin,2020-10-06 A collection of essays examining the roles played by music in American and European society during the Second World War Global conflicts of the twentieth century fundamentally transformed not only national boundaries power relations and global economies but also the arts and culture of every nation involved An important unacknowledged aspect of these conflicts is that they have unique musical soundtracks Music in World War II explores how music and sound took on radically different dimensions in the United States and Europe before during and after World War II Additionally the collection examines the impact of radio and film as the disseminators of the war s musical soundtrack Contributors contend that the European and American soundtrack of World War II was largely one of escapism rather than the lofty solemn heroic and celebratory mode of war music in the past Furthermore they explore the variety of experiences of populations forced from their homes and interned in civilian and POW camps in Europe and the United States examining how music in these environments played a crucial role in maintaining ties to an idealized home and constructing politicized notions of national and ethnic identity This fascinating well constructed volume of essays builds understanding of the role and importance of music during periods of conflict and highlights the unique aspects of music during World War II A collection that offers deeply informed interdisciplinary and original views on a myriad of musical practices in Europe Great Britain and the United States during the period Gayle Magee co editor of Over Here Over There Transatlantic Conversations on the Music of World War I
