Through These Eyes Elizabeth Williams,2019-12-09 Through These Eyes is a collection of experiences and challenges in the form of stories during my nursing career that left an indelible mark upon my mind Some of these experiences help to mold the way I saw my job and cared for my patients Sometimes in executing one s job as a nurse was like weathering a storm The medical situation could be very critical the storm brutal survival depended on your execution of the client s plan of care to save him her and to save yourself On days like that you really had to even breathe thoughtfully Every day was a challenge to me I prayed for guidance from a God who doesn t exist for so many but for me the I am was my lifeline He was here before knowledge therefore there was never a situation I didn t trust him to help me assess and execute I fought for every life that was put in my care as though my very existence depended on it And you know what it did As a part of the Medical Profession Registered Nurses have adopted an oath to serve without harm Through These Eyes T/Sgt. James Lee Hutchinson, Ed.S.,2005-10-05 This is the story of Eighth Air Force bombing missions leaving England to blast targets in Hitler s Third Reich in 1944 45 Each clear day the skies filled with hundreds of B17 Flying Fortress bombers and their escorts crossing the English Channel toward enemy targets protected by anti aircraft batteries and German fighters waiting to attack the heavy bombers The skies over the target were filled with black flak appearing to be so thick you could walk on it The exploding shells filled the space with flying chunks of iron as bombers started their bomb run on the target We often could hear the flak pelting our plance like a buckshot on a tin roof This flak would often strike a vital part of the plane or wound a member of the crew Our waist gunner was wounded on our tenth mission Some missions we could count hundreds of holes in our plane after we landed safely in England Bombers receiving a direct hit were blown out of the sky and another ten man aircrew was lost Planes severely damaged had to drop out of formation and face enemy fighters alone unless some of our P 51 or P 47 escort fighters protected them Bombers disabled or on fire had no choice but to order the crews to bail out Airmen who survived the parachute jump were captured and placed into German prisoner of war camps POW They were classified as missing in action Forty eight photos some sixty years old are included in this 350 page book to illustrate the story of the author s childhood in the Great Depression through the great air war of World War II A description of each mission from a sixty year old diary is included I think you will enjoy the story of a teenage Radio Gunner s experiences in the Mighty Eighth Air Force

A Look Through My Eyes Dawn Vandenberg,2012-11-09 This book begins with the story of a young boy Rem Vandenberg who was born in 1937 in the Netherlands just before the onslaught of the Second World War His youth was a struggle to exist under the German occupation and in combating the deprivation of poverty Added to these hardships was the ongoing personal battle he fought daily in accepting the doctrines of the Roman Catholic Church which were heavily imposed on him by the uncompromising adult belief of the time His authoritarian father loaded with the responsibility of caring for the large family was staunch in upholding his strong principles and instilling them into his children Of a less serious nature and with a strong desire to be free of the bonds restricting him from freedom of expression and thought Rem was often on the punitive end of the discipline rod both at school and home Opposing this oppression was the endless love and compassion of his mother who through the strength of her faith was able to engulf the whole family under her mantle of love and bind them together into a caring family unit At a young age Rem had to begin work to help support the family What he was expected to do for a few cents per week was beyond the capability of this small undernourished lad His father insisted on strength of character and allowed him to be pushed to the limit of his endurance Held by the love of his family but tormented with the urge to be free of restrictions Rem finally took his life in his own hands At the age of sixteen driven by the spirit of adventure he left home and joined the merchant navy His first voyage was on a whaling ship to the South Pole which was followed by voyages throughout the world for the next few years On sailing into his first Australian port his desire to stay in Australia took over He jumped ship and went inland where he took a job on the railway After six months as gang worker he was finally picked up by the law and experienced a short jail sentence before being deported back to Holland His love for Australia was strong and within two years he returned as a legal migrant and still lives in his beloved land today
