to promote academic dialogues on Chinese culture and education these essays explore important educational and cultural issues in China with a transcultural perspective Decoded Messages Hou-mei Sung, 2009 During the Ming Dynasty numerous new animal themes were created to convey political and ethical messages current at court As the result a sophisticated language of Chinese animal painting was developed employing both the animals symbolic associations and homonymic puns Hou mei Sung s exciting rediscovery of some of these lost meanings has led to a full scale investigation of the evolving history of Chinese animal painting Distinct symbolic meanings were associated with individual motifs but all animals were assigned a place in the universe according to the Chinese concept of nature From the very early yin yang cosmology to later developments of Daoist and Confucian philosophies and ethics Chinese animals gained new meanings related to their historical contexts This book explores these new findings using the colorful animal images and their rich and evolving symbolic meanings to gain insight into unique aspects of Chinese art as well as Chinese culture and history Exhibition Schedule Cincinnati Museum of Art October 2009 February 2010 Women of Chinese Modern Art Doris Sung, 2023-12-31 Winner of the SECAC Award for Excellence in Scholarly Research and Publication Bringing to light the largely overlooked female participation in domestic and international art worlds this book offers the first comprehensive study of how women embroiderers traditionalist calligraphers and painters including Shen Shou Wu Xingfen Jin Taotao and members of Chinese Women s Society of Calligraphy and Painting shaped the terrain of the modern art world and gender positioning during China s important moments of social cultural transformation from empire to republic Drawing on a wealth of previously unexhibited artworks rare artist s monographs women s journals personal narratives diaries and catalogs of international expositions Doris Sung not only affirms women s significant roles as guardian and innovator of traditionalist art forms for a modern nation but she also reveals their contribution to cultural diplomacy and revaluation of Chinese artistic heritage on the international stage in the early twentieth century Visual Culture Wars at the Borders of Contemporary China Paul Gladston, Beccy Kennedy-Schtyk, Ming Turner, 2022-01-01 This edited collection brings together essays that share in a critical attention to visual culture as a means of representing contributing to and or intervening with discursive struggles and territorial conflicts currently taking place at and across the outward facing and internal borders of the People s Republic of China Elucidated by the essays collected here for the first time is a constellation of what might be described as visual culture wars comprising resistances on numerous fronts not only to the growing power and expansiveness of the Chinese state but also the residues of a once pervasively suppressive Western colonialism imperialism The present volume addresses visual culture related to struggles and conflicts at the borders of Hong Kong the South China Sea and Taiwan as well within the PRC with regard the so called Great Firewall of China and differences in discursive outlook between China and the West on the significances of art technology gender and sexuality In doing so it provides a vital index of twenty first century China s diversely conflicted status as a contemporary nation state and arguably nascent empire

The Future History of Contemporary Chinese Art Peggy Wang, 2021-01-26 A revelatory reclaiming of five iconic Chinese artists and their place in art history During the 1980s and 1990s a group of Chinese artists Zhang Xiaogang Wang Guangyi Sui Jianguo Zhang Peili and Lin Tianmiao ascended to new heights of international renown Even as their fame increased they came to be circumscribed by simplistic Western interpretations of their artworks as social and political critiques a perspective that privileged stories of dissidence over deep engagement with the art itself Through in depth case studies of these five artists Peggy Wang offers a corrective to previous appraisals demonstrating how their works address fundamental questions about the forms meanings and possibilities of art By the end of the 1980s Chinese artists were scrutinizing earlier waves of Western influence and turning instead to their own heritage and culture to forge their own future histories As the national trauma of the 1989 Tiananmen Square massacre converged with the mounting expansion of the global art world these artists turned to art as a profoundly generative site for grappling with their place in the world Wang demonstrates how they consciously and energetically sought to make their own ideas about art and art history visible in contemporary art Wang s argument is informed by extensive primary research including close examination of the artworks analysis of Chinese language documents and archives and deeply personal interviews with the artists Their words uncover layers of meaning previously obscured by the popular and often recycled assessments that many of these works have received until now Beyond Wang s reinterpretation of these individual artists she contributes to an urgent conversation on the future direction of art history how do we map engagements between art from different parts of the world that are embedded within different art histories What does it mean for histories of contemporary art and art history more generally to be inclusive The new understandings offered in this book can and should be engaged when considering current hierarchies in histories of Chinese art the global art world and the intersections between them Art Books, 1950-1979 R.R. Bowker Company, 1979

Commentaries on Selected Model Investment Treaties Chester Brown, 2013-01-17 The existing literature on the substantive and procedural aspects of bilateral investment treaties BITs relies heavily on investment treaty arbitration decisions as a source of law What is missing is a comprehensive analytical review of state practice This volume fills this gap providing detailed analyses of the investment treaty policy and practice of nineteen leading capital exporting states and emerging market economies The authors are leading experts in government academia and private legal practice and their chapters are largely based on primary source materials Each chapter provides a description of the regulatory or policy framework governing foreign investment both inflows and outflows with a historical presentation of the state s Model BIT an examination of internal government processes and practices relating to treaty negotiation conclusion ratification and record keeping and a detailed article by article analytical commentary of the state s Model BIT elucidating the policy behind each provision and highlighting the ways in which the actual investment treaty practice of that state deviates from this standard text This commentary is supplemented by the case law relevant to that state s investment treaties This commentary

will be of immense assistance to counsel and arbitrators engaged in arguing and determining the proper interpretation of BITs and investment chapters in Free Trade Agreements and to government officials and scholars engaged in BIT policy formulation and implementation It will serve as a standard resource for legal practitioners scholars policy makers and other stakeholders in the field of international investment policy law and arbitration
