On the Voices, Contexts and Tasks of Theology: Experiments in Quaker and Feminist Thought Rachel Muers, 2025-10-16 Who is Christian theology for what is it for and what can it do Rachel Muers explores the voice of Christian theology the relationship between the subject of theology and theological discourse The book begins with the question how does someone speak of God understood not as a question about the criteria or authorised sources for theology but as a question of what is going on when theology is done How is it possible to speak as this particular historical embodied subject about God Muers investigates voice through engagement with historical and contemporary theologians particularly but not only with women who are speaking from relatively marginalised positions and contending with the lack of societal authorisation for their theological work Recognising that the question of voice is often equated in the contemporary context with the representation of identities and with how spaces and institutions can facilitate that representation the narrative considers more directly how questions of identity and context particularly in relation to gender shape the construction and representation of systematic theology and of theological tradition Muers examines the vocation of theology particularly in the contemporary Western academy and alongside other humanities subjects and a concluding chapter sets out a vision for ecumenical theological work The book draws extensively on the author's own Quaker tradition and on her experience of teaching and mentoring theologians

Sex on Earth as It Is in Heaven Patricia Beattie Jung, 2016-12-28 Offers a new theology of desire and delight based on the Christian hope for bodily resurrection This work is part of a growing chorus of theological voices raised in support of erotic desire Although most theologians have concluded that there will be no experience of sexual desire and delight in the world to come Patricia Beattie Jung critically examines the historical traditions and biblical rationales for this teaching She defends an alternative claim that there will be a healed and glorified experience of sex in heaven based on a compelling account of the Christian hope for bodily resurrection The first half of the work focuses on Christian foundations for the notion of sex in heaven while the second goes on to discuss some of the implications of those convictions for sex on earth Jung concludes with discussions of how best to nurture sexual delight on earth and how and why internet pornography fails in that regard The book provides a valuable alternative reading of Christian eschatological thinking about resurrected bodies and a sensitive refreshing and candid discussion about sexual delight Adrian Thatcher author of God Sex and Gender An Introduction More than a Monologue: Sexual Diversity and the Catholic Church J.
