Sheriff And Outlaws In The Global Village:

Sheriff and Outlaws in the Global Village Daniel Plesch, 2002 Cultural Writing Before September 11 globalization and the threat from weapons of mass destruction were the greatest challenges the world faced Now we must add the problem of global terrorism Dan Plesch Senior Research Fellow at the Royal United Services Institute for Defense Studies and founder of the British American Security Council was often seen on the BBC and CNN following the attacks His theoretical and practical experience is evident in this important and timely pamphlet he makes a powerful cogent and radical analysis of the relationship between globalization the weapons trade weapons of mass destruction and terrorism all in the light of US security strategies and also presents a group of specific policy measures as a solution to the daunting problems facing the world

Changing Citizenship Audrey Osler, Hugh Starkey, 2005-04-16 How can citizenship in schools meet the needs of learners in multicultural and globalized communities Can schools resolve the tensions between demands for effective discipline and pressures to be more inclusive Educators politicians and the media are using the concept of citizenship in new contexts and giving it new meanings Citizenship can serve to unite a diverse population or to marginalise and exclude With the introduction of citizenship in school curricula there is an urgent need for developing the concept of cosmopolitan and inclusive citizenship Changing Citizenship supports educators in understanding the links between global change and the everyday realities of teachers and learners It explores the role that schools can play in creating a new vision of citizenship for multicultural democracies Key reading for education researchers and students on PGCE B Ed and Masters courses in Education as well as citizenship teachers and co ordinators Changing Citizenship is of interest to all concerned about social justice and young people s participation in decision making
