A Trick of the Dark B.R. Collins, 2010-09-06 Zach and his sister Annis have been uprooted by their parents from their comfortable home to a remote and half built barn in France Zach is being removed from his bad influence friends their parents are trying to salvage their marriage and still remain on speaking terms whilst the bitterness of their father's affair bubbles underneath the surface And Annis Annis just keeps going keeping her head down trying to keep it together So far so normal And then Zach uncommunicative and contrary as ever these days defies everything their parents have said and makes his way to the unsafe ruined building at the edge of their new garden and leans up against the wall The wall bulges totters and suddenly collapses on top of him Annis horrified sees him crumpled on the ground Desperate she races towards him not daring to think anything at all She sees him on the ground broken silent not there any more And then unbelievably he moves Zach moves Zach in an extraordinary and instinctive decision has broken his bond with his own soul the essence of himself By doing so he has cheated death By doing so he has also cheated life He is unable to touch any human person again And the essence of himself his other his soul is chasing him determined to rejoin what should rightfully be together Zach is on the run from himself whom he can never escape from death but also from the life that he can never enjoy again Perhaps only a sister can help him now

Jackalope Dreams Mary Clearman Blew, 2008-01-01 The departed men in her life still have plenty to say to Corey Her father a legendary rodeo cowboy who punctuated his lifelong pronouncements with a bullet to his head may be the loudest But in this story of Montana a story in which the old West meets the new and tradition has its way with just about everyone it is Corey's voice we listen to In this tour de force of voices big and small sure and faltering hers comes across resonant and clear directing us to the heart of the matter

Quiet Savage Marlene Collins, 2014-03-27 It is April of 1948 as

Marty Toliver her pilot husband his father and two children fly high above a snow encrusted landscape With their 1937 Grunman Goose airplane filled with camping gear and enough food to feed five people for two weeks the family is more than ready for their adventure near a Calgary lake But when the plane encounters an unexpected storm everything changes in an instant Moments later Marty crawls from the planes wreckage to find herself stranded in a mountain wilderness with two small children completely unprepared for such a catastrophe Marty is determined to do everything she can to keep her children alive in a desolate cold and unfamiliar environment As she struggles with the strenuous tasks required to survive she must rely on her novice hunting butchering and plant gathering skills Soon Marty realizes that rescuers are not coming it is up to her to find a way out of the deep mountain valley and back home But she is about to discover that her mission may be more difficult than she ever imagined In this tale of survival one woman must become what she has always considered savage in order to survive and keep her children alive

Shadow of the King Helen Hollick,2010-03-01 They knew what was coming Man and beast knew what lay ahead After the war cry Bitter the grave At long last the peace King Arthur was born to usher in has settled over the realm But Arthur was also born to be a warrior and all true warriors are restless without a fight Yearning for battle and ever loyal Arthur is easily deceived into setting sail for Gaul to defend its territories leaving his country vulnerable and leaderless A beacon of hope in a land of desolation he was to be the Lord of the Summer Land for now and forever But first the Pendragon must face the ultimate test one that will take all his courage strength of will and honor to survive Because once destiny is fulfilled can you ever truly win again Helen Hollick has it all She tells a great story Bernard Cornwell Hollick s interpretation is bold affecting and well worth fighting to defend Publishers Weekly

The Cat and The Masked Woman Colette,2025-03-05 My little puma My darling cat My mountain lion How will you go on living if we leave each other Colette 1873 1954 is one of the most widely read and critically acclaimed French writers of the twentieth century The Cat first serialised then published in volume form in 1933 is one of her short novels This story of a middle class couple in 1920s Paris follows the familiar romantic structure of the eternal triangle with the unexpected twist that the female rival is not a woman but a cat The novel displays her capacity to conjure up a vibrantly physical world and a particular social moment her radical yet nuanced view of gender roles and her empathy with non human creatures The Masked Woman is a collection of short texts mainly written for the daily newspaper Le Matin focusing on small moments that mark a transition in a person s life and on certain recurring themes the pleasure and the pain in relationships between women and men the wearing of masks both literal and metaphorical female complicity and solidarity They are also linked by Colette s inimitable narrative style by the vividly material fictional universe she creates and her liking for surprise and paradox that challenges a commonsensical view of the world
