The Spiritual Transformation of Jews Who Become Orthodox

Roberta G. Sands,2019-06-01 A psychological study based on extensive interview data of Jewish adults who take on a devout lifestyle Spiritual transformation is the process of changing one's beliefs values attitudes and everyday behaviors related to a transcendent experience or higher power Jewish adults who adopt Orthodoxy provide a clear example of spiritual transformation within a religious context With little prior exposure to traditional practice these baalei teshuvah literally masters of return in Hebrew turn away from their former way of life take on strict religious obligations and intensify their spiritual commitment This book examines the process of adopting Orthodox Judaism and the extensive life changes that are required Based on forty eight individual interviews as well as focus groups and interviews with community outreach leaders it uses psychological developmental theory and the concept of socialization to understand this journey Roberta G Sands examines the study participants family backgrounds initial explorations decisions to make a commitment spiritual struggles and psychological and social integration The process is at first exciting as baalei teshuvah make new discoveries and learn new practices Yet after commitment and immersion in an Orthodox community they face challenges furthering their education gaining cultural knowledge and raising a family without parental role models By showing how baalei teshuvah integrate their new understandings of Judaism into their identities Sands provides fresh insight into a significant aspect of contemporary Orthodoxy Sands's judicious and comprehensive application of social science theories to the study of Jewish returnees provides a unique contribution to the social scientific study of religion Roberta Rosenberg Farber coeditor of Jews in America A Contemporary Reader

Marriage and the Economy Shoshana Grossbard-Shechtman,2003-04-28 Marriage and the Economy explores how marriage influences the monetized economy as well as the household economy Marriage institutions are to the household economy what business institutions are to the monetized economy and marital status is clearly related to the household economy Marriage also influences the economy as conventionally measured via its impact on labor supply workers productivity savings consumption and government programs such as welfare programs and social security The macro economic analyses presented here are based on the micro economic foundations of cost benefit analysis game theory and market analysis Micro economic analysis of marriage divorce and behavior within marriages are investigated by a number of specialists in various areas of economics Western values and laws have been very successful at transforming the way the world does business but its success at maintaining individual commitments to family values is less impressive
