The Banyan Tree Mariola Offredi,2000 This Book Which Is Published In Two Volumes Contains Most Of The Papers Presented At The Seventh International Conference On Earlyliterature In New Indo Aryan Languages Held At Venice In 1997 They Are Grouped In Part By Geographical Area In Part By Subject Matter In A Crossing Of Boundaries That Sharpens The Exchange Between The Two Bundelkhand Under the Marathas, 1720-1818 A.D. B. R. Andhare,1984 India and the British Empire Douglas M. Peers,Nandini Gooptu,2017-02-09 South Asian History has enjoyed a remarkable renaissance over the past thirty years Its historians are not only producing new ways of thinking about the imperial impact and legacy on South Asia but also helping to reshape the study of imperial history in general The essays in this collection address a number of these important developments delineating not only the complicated interplay between imperial rulers and their subjects in India but also illuminating the economic political environmental social cultural ideological and intellectual contexts which informed and were in turn informed by these interactions Particular attention is paid to a cluster of binary oppositions that

have hitherto framed South Asian history namely colonizer colonized imperialism nationalism and modernity tradition and how new analytical frameworks are emerging which enable us to think beyond the constraints imposed by these binaries Closer attention to regional dynamics as well as to wider global forces has enriched our understanding of the history of South Asia within a wider imperial matrix Previous impressions of all powerful imperialism with the capacity to reshape all before it for good or ill are rejected in favour of a much more nuanced image of imperialism in India that acknowledges the impact as well as the intentions of colonialism but within a much more complicated historical landscape where other processes are at work Maharashtra State Gazetteers Maharashtra (India),1960 Perspectives in Indian History M. Jankiraman Ph.D.,2020-11-03 Perspectives in Indian History deals with the history of India from 10 000 BC until 1857 AD It delves into the story of the Indus Saraswati civilization and the development of the Vedas Such a book has been written for the first time wherein India s history has been analyzed from the early Hindu period Hitherto most history books have emphasized the Muslim period or the British period These have been written by Muslim historians or European colonists which was often skewed by their fundamental bias that no civilization could equal their own During this retelling the author covers the interesting aspects of each age starting with the Ramayana He then examines hotly debated issues like whether Alexander the Great won or lost in India The author carries out an analysis of the causes of the conquest of India by the Muslims The author analyses detailed battleplans of major battles which affected India s history like Panipat Plassey and many others and discusses the weaponry and tactics used in these wars
