Shipping News:

The Shipping News Annie Proulx, 2008-01-01 Winner of the Pulitzer Prize Annie Proulx's The Shipping News is a vigorous darkly comic and at times magical portrait of the contemporary North American family Quoyles a third rate newspaper hack with a head shaped like a crenshaw no neck reddish hair features as bunched as kissed fingertips is wrenched violently out of his workaday life when his two timing wife meets her just desserts An aunt convinces Quoyles and his two emotionally disturbed daughters to return with her to the starkly beautiful coastal landscape of their ancestral home in Newfoundland Here on desolate Quoyles Point in a house empty except for a few mementos of the family's unsavory past the battered members of three generations try to cobble up new lives Newfoundland is a country of coast and cove where the mercury rarely rises above seventy degrees the local culinary delicacy is cod cheeks and it's easier to travel by boat and snowmobile than on anything with wheels In this harsh place of cruel storms a collapsing fishery and chronic unemployment the aunt sets up as a yacht upholsterer in nearby Killick Claw and Quoyles finds a job reporting the shipping news for the local weekly the Gammy Bird a paper that specializes in sexual abuse stories and grisly photos of car accidents As the long winter closes its jaws of ice each of the Quoyles confronts private demons reels from catastrophe to minor triumph in the company of the obsequious Mavis Bangs Diddy Shovel the strongman drowned Herald Prowse cane twirling Beety Nutbeem who steals foreign news from the radio a demented cousin the aunt refuses to recognize the much zippered Alvin Yark silent Wavey and old Billy Pretty with his bag of secrets By the time of the spring storms Quoyles has learned how to gut cod to escape from a pickle jar and to tie a true lover's knot

of your research needs Understanding Annie Proulx Karen Lane Rood, 2001 In this study independent scholar Rood introduces students and the interested reader to the writings of contemporary American writer Annie Proulx Coverage includes a discussion of the major themes in Proulx's well known novels such as Postcards Accordion Crimes and The Shipping News as well as three others Rood also provides background information on Proulx's life and her development as a writer c Book News Inc Mapping Generations of Traumatic Memory in American Narratives Dana Mihăilescu, Roxana Oltean, Mihaela Precup, 2014-06-12 This volume collects work by several European North American and Australian academics who are interested in examining the performance and transmission of post traumatic memory in the contemporary United States The contributors depart from the interpretation of trauma as a unique exceptional event that shatters all systems of representation as seen in the writing of early trauma theorists like Cathy Caruth Shoshana Felman and Dominick LaCapra Rather the chapters in this collection are in conversation with more recent readings of trauma such as Michael Rothberg's Multidirectional Memory 2009 the role of mediation and remediation in the dynamics of cultural memory Astrid Erll 2012 Aleida Assman 2011 and Stef Craps focus on postcolonial witnessing and its cross cultural dimension 2013 The corpus of post traumatic narratives under discussion includes fiction diaries memoirs films visual narratives and oral testimonies A complicated dialogue between various and sometimes conflicting narratives is thus generated and examined along four main lines in this volume trauma in the context of multidirectional memory the representation of trauma in autobiographical texts the dynamic of public forms of national commemoration and the problematic instantiation of 9/11 as a traumatic landmark RUBURY: NOVELTY OF NEWSPAPERS P Matthew Rubery, 2009-06-01 Rapid industrialization and new advances in technology marked the Victorian period as one of prodigious socio cultural change Chief among the many transformations of quotidian life was the swift and widespread dissemination of information made possible by the emergence of the daily newspaper an unprecedented new media The changes it wrought in politics history and advertising of the age have all been well documented But its influence on one area remains overlooked the Victorian novel Redressing this oversight The Novelty of Newspapers highlights the variety of ways the changing world of nineteenth century journalism shaped the period's most popular literary form Arising in the 1800s and soon drawing a million readers a day the commercial press profoundly influenced the work of Brontë Braddon Dickens Conrad James Trollope and others who mined print journalism for fictional techniques Five of the most important of these narrative conventions the shipping intelligence personal advertisement leading article interview and foreign correspondence show how the Victorian novel is best understood alongside the simultaneous development of newspapers In highly original analyses of Victorian fiction this study also captures the surprising ways in which public media enabled the expression of private feeling among ordinary readers from the trauma caused by a lover's reported suicide to the vicarious gratification felt during a celebrity interview from the distress at finding one's behavior the subject of unflattering editorial commentary to the apprehension of distant cultures

through the foreign correspondence Combining a wealth of historical research with a series of astute close readings The Novelty of Newspapers breaks down the assumed divide between the epoch s literature and journalism and demonstrates that newsprint was integral to the development of the novel News as Changing Texts Udo Fries,Nicholas

Brownlees,Roberto Facchinetti,2015-10-28 The updated and revised edition of this volume maintains its focus on the dialectic interrelation between news and change News is intended as a textual type in its evolutionary and revolutionary development while change is discussed with reference to the form content and structure of news texts The news texts in question range from the first forms of periodical news in the seventeenth century up to the news blogs and social media of the present day Divided into four chapters representing key historical moments in the process of news writing each chapter makes use of a set of corpora specifically designed to suit the needs of scholars working in those particular fields Topics that the authors examine include pronominal usage and the interrelationship between news writer and reader heads and headlines the language of advertisements and other text classes the trend towards conversationalization and impartiality and perspective in modern day news These and other topics coupled with the varying corpora that are exploited to analyse them call into question basic methodological issues that are examined from different perspectives Throughout the volume the authors contextualise the news publications of the day so as to better understand the continuous process of adjustment and renewal that news texts are subject to over time South African Shipping News and Fishing Industry Review ,1967
