Shirin Neshat The Last Word:

Shirin Neshat la Ultima Palabra/the Last Word Shirin Neshat, Octavio Zaya, Hamid Dabashi, Museo de Arte Contemporáneo de Castilla y León, 2005 La exposición propone un repaso sobre la obra del artista a través de una veintena de fotografías y seis video instalaciones El proyecto se completa con un estudio exhaustivo sobre toda la obra videográfica y cinematográfica de la artista Shirin Neshat Steven Henry Madoff, Mahnaz Afkhami, 2015 This catalogue is published in conjunction with the exhibition Shirin Neshat Facing History organized by the Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Garden Smithsonian Institution Washington DC May 18 September 20 2015 Title page verso Translation and Transgression in the Art of Shirin Neshat Erin C. Devine, 2023-10-05 Precisely 30 years after the debut of her provocative photo portraits this book chronicles the early career of Iranian American artist Shirin Neshat In its first 20 years Neshat's work weaved viewers into complex readings of women and power in Iran Yet her images also drew criticisms of exoticizing Muslim women and later video installations were accused of lacking political assertion during stormy relations between the West and the Islamic world Now broadly recognized as a social justice artist this volume chronicles Neshat's evolution from photography to film from personal to political expression and expands existing scholarship to investigate underserved contexts for her work including the cinematic turn and emergent theories of globality in contemporary art Neshat's hyphenated identity was often attenuated by reductive and exoticizing discourses therefore this volume draws attention to her transnational methodologies informed by strategies of appropriation performativity and embodiment while articulating Persian visual and literary traditions Complicating simplistic ethnographies her disruption of neo Orientalist paradigms and representations has led audiences to reconsider Islamophobic Islamism and gender repressions that are political psychological and above all cross cultural This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history photography cinema studies performance transnational and global studies women's studies and Iranian studies Shirin Neshat Shirin Neshat, Barbara Gladstone Gallery, 2005 In her profoundly beautiful films Shirin Neshat raises the most pressing concerns and predicaments of humanity the conflict between madness and civilization freedom and constraint order and change inhibition and release despair and rage This book documents the visual philosophical and moral complexity of her uncompromising artistic quest Back cover After the Revolution Eleanor Heartney, Helaine Posner, Nancy Princenthal, Sue Scott, 2013-11-04 Why Have There Been No Great Women Artists asked the prominent art historian Linda Nochlin in a provocative 1971 essay Today her insightful critique serves as a benchmark against which the progress of women artists may be measured In this book four prominent critics and curators describe the impact of women artists on contemporary art since the advent of the feminist movement The Migrant's Time Saloni Mathur, 2011-09-27 The conditions of alienation and exclusion are inextricably linked to the experience of the migrant This volume explores both the increasing emergence of the theme of migration as a dominant subject matter in art as well as the ways in which the varied mobilities of a globalized world have radically reshaped art's conditions of production reception and display In a selection of essays fourteen distinguished scholars explore the universality of conditions of global migration and interdependence inviting a rethinking of existing perspectives in postcolonial transnational and diaspora studies and laying the foundation for empirical and theoretical directions beyond the terms of these traditional frameworks Contemporary Art, World Cinema, and Visual Culture Hamid Keshmirshakan, 2019-03-29 Contemporary Art World Cinema and Visual Culture Essays by Hamid Dabashi is a collection of writings by the acclaimed cultural critic and scholar A thorough Introduction rigorously frames chapters and identifies in Dabashi's writings a comprehensive approach which forms the criteria for selecting the essays for the volume The Introduction also teases out of these essays the overarching theme that holds them together the manner they inform a particularly critical angle in them and the way they cohere The Introduction dwells on the work of one scholar public intellectual and theorist of modern and contemporary arts to extrapolate more universal issues of concern to art criticism in general These scattered materials and their underlying theoretical and critical logic are a unique contribution to the field of modern and contemporary arts North American Muslim Women Artists Talk Back Kenza Oumlil, 2022-07-21 This book focuses on the ways in which North American Muslim women artists talk back to dominant discourses about Muslim identity and work to counter mainstream stereotypes and representations It examines the possibilities of constructing discourses of resistance to domination Against a backdrop of dominant media representations of oppressed and passive Muslim women the media interventions of the exceptional women artists whose voices are showcased in this book demonstrate that Muslim women are diverse and autonomous agents who have historically and continue contemporarily to fight against all forms of injustice including those that seek to circumscribe their realities and experiences To explore expressions and articulations of alternative discourses this book analyzes the media texts of exceptional women artists the stand up comedy of Palestinian American Maysoon Zayid the cinematic interventions of Iranian American Shirin Neshat and the television comedy of Pakistani Canadian Zarqa Nawaz Using a methodology consisting of a textual analysis grounded in the theoretical framework of postcolonial theory and informed by gender studies and alternative media research the analysis is supplemented with semi structured interviews with the artists This book is suitable for scholars and students in Gender Studies Media Studies Cultural Studies Sociology and Politics Shirin Neshat Arthur C. Danto, 2010 Not only is this book filled with breathtaking imagery commentary is included to get a better glimpse into the creative process of one of the most original artists of our time Zinke Magazine Her eponymous new book is anything but simplistic Shirin Neshat chronicles the artist's exploration of complex themes such as exile and the role of gender within Islam National Public Radio A handsome and provocative monograph a powerful and moving group of artistic snapshots that undoubtedly will make readers interested in viewing the original film and video works in their transcendent and spiritually absolute glory Fest21.com Shirin Neshat's work has never been afraid of tackling the binaries pulling us in opposite directions whether they be tensions between East and West men and women faith and reason FlavorPill com The World is My Home Andrew Davison,2017-09-08 As recent events indicate Iranian Middle Eastern and Islamic politics more broadly have been deeply influential in world affairs Hamid Dabashi has been a highly visible and prominent commentator on these affairs explaining interpreting and providing a critical perspective This volume gathers together his most influential and insightful writings As one of the foremost contemporary public intellectuals and scholars of our time Dabashi s interests and writings span subjects ranging from Islamic philosophy and political ideology to Iranian art and Persian literature from Sufism and Orientalism to Iranian and world cinema and contemporary Arab and Muslim visual arts and from postcolonial theory and globalization to imperialism and public affairs There is a direct connection between his theoretical innovations and the angle of his public interventions on the urgent global issues of the day This book brings together some of his most important writings especially those that offer new ways of understanding Islam Iran Islamist ideology global art and the condition of global modernity The book shows the underlying conceptual themes that unify Dabashi s wide ranging and brilliantly insightful corpus Dabashi combines deep knowledge of the subject matter about which he writes and highly refined sociological hermeneutical and cultural interpretive skills moving far beyond the limiting distorted and intellectually stifling character of reigning absolutist conventions He places existing authoritative frameworks under close scrutiny in order to produce novel and penetrating insights These essays reflect historical and geographical worlds that are best viewed when Hamid Dabashi s work is read as a whole which this one volume work makes possible for the first time The Historiography of Persian Architecture

Mohammad Gharipour,2015-08-27 Historiography is the study of the methodology of writing history the development of the discipline of history and the changing interpretations of historical events in the works of individual historians Exploring the historiography of Persian art and architecture requires a closer look at a diverse range of sources including chronicles historical accounts travelogues and material evidence coming from archaeological excavations The Historiography of Persian Architecture highlights the political cultural and intellectual contexts that lie behind the written history of Persian architecture in the twentieth century presenting a series of investigations on issues related to historiography This book addresses the challenges complexities and contradictions regarding historical and geographical diversity of Persian architecture including issues lacking in the 20th century historiography of Iran and neighbouring countries This book not only illustrates different trends in Persian architecture but also clarifies changing notions of research in this field Aiming to introduce new tools of analysis the book offers fresh insights into the discipline supported by historical documents archaeological data treatises and visual materials It brings together well established and emerging scholars from a broad range of academic spheres in order to question and challenge pre existing historiographical frameworks particularly through specific case studies Overall it provides a valuable contribution to the study of Persian architecture simultaneously revisiting past literature and advancing new approaches This book would be of interest to students and scholars of Middle East and
