Shock And Awe War On Words:

America and the Misshaping of a New World Order Giles Gunn, Carl Gutiérrez-Jones, 2010-06 An important and telling critique of the myth and rhetoric of contemporary American expansionism and grand strategy What is particularly original about these essays and unusually rare in studies of American foreign policy is their provocative combination of cultural and literary analysis with a subtle appreciation of the historical transformation of political forms and principles of world order Stephen Gill author of Power and Resistance in the New World Order Donna Haraway: Live Theory Joseph Schneider, 2005-06-20 This is an introductory guide to the work of Donna Haraway a key contemporary theorist The Philosophical Animal Eduardo Mendieta, 2024-06-01 Humans are animals who fictionalize other animals to assert their humanness We are philosophical animals who philosophize about our humanity by projecting images onto a mirror about other animals Spanning literature philosophy and ethics the thread uniting The Philosophical Animal is the bestiary and how it continues to inform our imaginings Beginning with an exploration of animals and women in the literary work of Coetzee famous for his book on the Lives of Animals Eduardo Mendieta then dives into the genre of bestiaries in order to investigate the relation between humanity and animality From there he approaches the works of Derrida and Habermas from the standpoint of genetic engineering and animal studies While we have intensely modified many species genetically we have not done this to ourselves Why Finally Mendieta deals with the political and ethical implications suggested by this question before ending on an autobiographical note about growing up around so called animals and in particular horses

Transnationalism and the German City J. Diefendorf, J. Ward, 2014-04-24 Too often scholars treat transnationalism as a conflict in which the local regional and national give way to globalized identity As these varied studies of German cities show though the urban environment is actually a site of trans localism that is not merely oppositional but that adapts itself dialectically to the forces of globalization The Discourse Trap and the US Military J. Michaels, 2013-03-19 This book proposes the idea of a discourse trap in which the discourses and associated terminology devised for political or military reasons can entrap policymakers by motivating or constraining their actions Strategic Terror Beau Grosscup, 2013-07-18 Presenting a global history of aerial bombardment this book shows how certain European powers initiated aerial bombardment of civilians after World War I and how it was an instrument of choice in World War II Beau Grosscup shows that such methods used initially as a means of terrorizing native populations in Africa and the Middle East have become the primary form of terrorism in more recent decades While such strategic terror is not classed as terrorism in the West this reflects an unwillingness to confront the human costs and immorality of aerial bombardment Grosscup argues that if terrorism is to be diminished the role of aerial bombing in sustaining global violence must be recognized mondiale oorlog The Emotional Politics of Racism Paula Ioanide, 2015-05-20 With stop and frisk laws new immigration policies and cuts to social welfare programs majorities in the United States have increasingly supported intensified forms of punishment and marginalization against Black Latino Arab and Muslim people in the United States even as a majority of citizens claim to support colorblindness and racial equality With this book Paula Ioanide examines how emotion has prominently figured into these contemporary expressions of racial discrimination and violence How U S publics dominantly feel about crime terrorism welfare and immigration often seems to trump whatever facts and evidence say about these politicized matters Though four case studies the police brutality case of Abner Louima the exposure of torture at Abu Ghraib the demolition of New Orleans public housing units following Hurricane Katrina and a proposed municipal ordinance to deny housing to undocumented immigrants in Escondido CA Ioanide shows how racial fears are perpetuated and how these widespread fears have played a central role in justifying the expansion of our military and prison system and the ongoing divestment from social welfare But Ioanide also argues that within each of these cases there is opportunity for new mobilizations for ethical witnessing we must also popularize desires for justice and increase people s receptivity to the testimonies of the oppressed by reorganizing embodied and unconscious structures of feeling Commitment and Complicity in Cultural Theory and Practice B. Firat, S. De Mul, S. Van Wichelen, Sarah De Mul, Sonja Van Wichelen, 2009-05-21 An international line up of scholars examines the role of the intellectual in the twenty first century looking at the gap between contemporary cultural theory and cultural practice and asking whether knowledge and methodologies in the humanities can intervene in everyday politics and vice versa Ethnographies of U.S. Empire Carole McGranahan, John F. Collins, 2018-08-02 How do we live in and with empire The contributors to Ethnographies of U S Empire pursue this question by examining empire as an unequally shared present Here empire stands as an entrenched if often invisible part of everyday life central to making and remaking a world in which it is too often presented as an aberration rather than as a structuring condition This volume presents scholarship from across U S imperial formations settler colonialism overseas territories communities impacted by U S military action or political intervention Cold War alliances and fissures and most recently new forms of U S empire after 9 11 From the Mohawk Nation Korea and the Philippines to Iraq and the hills of New Jersey the contributors show how a methodological and theoretical commitment to ethnography sharpens all of our understandings of the novel and timeworn ways people live thrive and resist in the imperial present Contributors Kevin K Birth Joe Bryan John F Collins Jean Dennison Erin Fitz Henry Adriana Mar a Garriga L pez Ol via Maria Gomes da Cunha Matthew Gutmann Ju Hui Judy Han J K haulani Kauanui Eleana Kim Heonik Kwon Soo Ah Kwon Darryl Li Catherine Lutz Sunaina Maira Carole McGranahan Sean T Mitchell Jan M Padios Melissa Rosario Audra Simpson Ann Laura Stoler Lisa Uperesa David Vine Martha Rosler Rosalyn Deutsche, Elena Volpato, Martha Rosler, Jewish Museum (New York, N.Y.), 2018-01-01 The politically engaged work of Martha Rosler is fascinating and provocative this wide ranging survey brings timely insights at a moment of resurgence for political activism and feminism Animal Subjects Jodey Castricano, 2008-05-20 Although Cultural Studies has directed sustained attacks against sexism and racism the question of the animal has lagged behind developments in broader society with regard to animal suffering in factory farming product testing and laboratory experimentation as well in zoos rodeos circuses and public aquariums The contributors to Animal Subjects are scholars and writers from diverse perspectives whose work calls into question the boundaries that divide the animal kingdom from humanity focusing on the medical biological cultural philosophical and ethical concerns between non human animals and ourselves The first of its kind to feature the work of Canadian scholars and writers in this emergent field this collection aims to include the non human animal question as part of the ethical purview of Cultural Studies and to explore the question in interdisciplinary terms The Insecure American Hugh Gusterson, Catherine Besteman, 2009-11-24 Americans are feeling insecure They are retreating to gated communities in record numbers fearing for their jobs and their 401 k s nervous about their health insurance and their debt levels worrying about terrorist attacks and immigrants In this innovative volume editors Hugh Gusterson and Catherine Besteman gather essays from nineteen leading ethnographers to create a unique portrait of an anxious country and to furnish valuable insights into the nation s possible future With an incisive foreword by Barbara Ehrenreich the contributors draw on their deep knowledge of different facets of American life to map the impact of the new economy the war on terror the war on drugs racial resentments a fraying safety net undocumented immigration a health care system in crisis and much more In laying out a range of views on the forces that unsettle us The Insecure American demonstrates the singular power of an anthropological perspective for grasping the impact of corporate profit on democratic life charting the links between policy and vulnerability and envisioning alternatives to life as an insecure American When Species Meet Donna J. Haraway, 2013-11-30 In 2006 about 69 million U S households had pets giving homes to around 73.9 million dogs 90.5 million cats and 16.6 million birds and spending more than 38 billion dollars on companion animals As never before in history our pets are truly members of the family But the notion of companion species knotted from human beings animals and other organisms landscapes and technologies includes much more than companion animals In When Species Meet Donna J Haraway digs into this larger phenomenon to contemplate the interactions of humans with many kinds of critters especially with those called domestic At the heart of the book are her experiences in agility training with her dogs Cayenne and Roland but Haraway s vision here also encompasses wolves chickens cats baboons sheep microorganisms and whales wearing video cameras From designer pets to lab animals to trained therapy dogs she deftly explores philosophical cultural and biological aspects of animal human encounters In this deeply personal yet intellectually groundbreaking work Haraway develops the idea of companion species those who meet and break bread together but not without some indigestion A great deal is at stake in such meetings she writes and outcomes are not guaranteed There is no assured happy or unhappy ending socially ecologically or scientifically There is only the chance for getting on together with some grace Ultimately she finds that respect curiosity and knowledge spring from animal human associations and work powerfully against ideas about human exceptionalism
