Body and Tradition in Nineteenth-Century France William G. Pooley,2019-12-05 The moorlands of Gascony are often considered one of the most dramatic examples of top down rural modernization in nineteenth century Europe From an area of open moors they were transformed in one generation into the largest man made forest in Europe Body and Tradition in Nineteenth Century France explores how these changes were experienced and negotiated by the people who lived there drawing on the immense ethnographic archive of Félix Arnaudin 1844 1921 The study places the songs stories and everyday speech that Arnaudin collected as well as the photographs he took in the everyday lives of agricultural workers and artisans It argues that the changes were understood as a gradual revolution in bodily experiences as men and women forged new working habits new sexual relations and new ways of conceiving of their own bodies Rather than merely presenting a story of top down reform this is an account of the flexibility and creativity of the cultural traditions of the working population William G Pooley tells the story of the folklorist Arnaudin and the men and women whose cultural traditions he recorded then uncovers the work carried out by Arnaudin to explore everyday speech about the body stories of werewolves and shapeshifters tales of animal cunning and exploitation and songs about love and courtship The volume focuses on the lives of a handful of the most talented storytellers and singers Arnaudin encountered showing how their cultural choices reflect wider patterns of behaviour in the region and across rural Europe

The Anglo-Scottish Ballad and its Imaginary Contexts David Atkinson, 2014-03-12 This is the first book to combine contemporary debates in ballad studies with the insights of modern textual scholarship Just like canonical literature and music the ballad should not be seen as a uniquely authentic item inextricably tied to a documented source but rather as an unstable structure subject to the vagaries of production reception and editing Among the matters addressed are topics central to the subject including ballad origins oral and printed transmission sound and writing agency and editing and textual and melodic indeterminacy and instability While drawing on the time honoured materials of ballad studies the book offers a theoretical framework for the discipline to complement the largely ethnographic approach that has dominated in recent decades Primarily directed at the community of ballad and folk song scholars the book will be of interest to researchers in several adjacent fields including folklore oral literature ethnomusicology and textual scholarship
