Shoddy Cove:

Shoddy Cove Betty Levin, 2010-10-12 Clare's summer has been ruined. With Dad away, Clare is forced to accompany her mother to the Cossit Island Village living historical museum. Every day she has to wear long, awkward 1830s style dresses and card wool in the hot, gloomy Grimes homestead. Then two children appear: a boy who knows how to spin wool without even using a spindle and his little sister who throws a fit in the middle of a funeral reenactment. They are not ordinary tourists. Clare sees them day after day. Who are these strange children? What are they doing at Cossit Island Village? As Clare tries to unravel their story, she stumbles upon a second mystery, nearly two hundred years old and just as intriguing and suspenseful as the first.

Thorn Betty Levin, 2005 Thorn, a mysterious boy with a deformed leg, arrives on an island inhabited by the people of the Singing Seals and, though treated with fear and suspicion by most of the natives, is befriended by the girl Willow, chosen to be the next Keeper of Story.

Reading Raps Rita Soltan, 2005-12-30 Book clubs are sprouting up all over and so are book club guides, but not all book club guides are equal. Many focus on a specific type of book club or they take a generic approach of one size fits all and most do not take into account the special needs of librarians and educators working with young readers. This guide has it all and it will help you ensure that your book club meetings are both fun and educational. Focusing on children in grades 3-8 and their families, the book offers 100 ready-made book club instructions for popular children's and YA titles from newer releases such as Theresa Nelson's Ruby Electric and Blue Balliett's Chasing Vermeer to perennial favorites and award-winning classics such as Johanna Hurwitz's Much Ado about Aldo and Gary Soto's Baseball in April and Other Stories. Along with thought-provoking discussion questions, you'll find all the background information you need to conduct lively book discussions with a variety of readers: plot summary, themes, and characters description, genre, reading level, author, and award information, related reads, and more. The guide describes four types of family-oriented book clubs: family, mother-daughter, father-son, and readers' rap, as well as a book club for kids only. The author provides practical instructions for making each type of book club successful. For each title, she provides a plot summary, characterization sketches, questions to use for provocative discussion, and follow-up bibliographies on similar reads. Notes on genres, themes, and reading levels are also provided. The selected titles reflect some of the best, most current and most popular children's literature. In addition, a broad scope of genres and multicultural titles are included. Perfect for public library programs and after-school book clubs, this is a one-stop resource with practical, ready-made plans that can easily be adapted to multiple environments, Grades 3-8.

Around Essex Robbi Storms, Don Malcarne, Ivoryton Library Association, 2001-11-08 Three hundred years of history follows you around today as you wander the streets of Essex. Centerbrook and Ivoryton, Essex harbor, is located on the Connecticut River, six miles north of Long Island Sound, between Mystic Seaport and New Haven. It is a major stopping point for boaters in the Northeast who come from various ports to dock in the harbor, dine at the Griswold Inn, take in the maritime history at the Connecticut River Museum, or walk along the narrow streets to view the fine old houses in this New England community Homes once owned by sea captains shipbuilders and captains of industry are a reminder of the area s glorious past True the old 1 200 foot Ropewalk a mainstay of maritime manufacturing was gone by 1900 Gone also are the Uriah Hayden Chandlery Judea Pratt s New City Smithy and Abner Parker s warehouse The harbor where working vessels once ruled is now a vibrant waterfront filled with pleasure boats A row of elegant Victorian houses lines the main street of Ivoryton village where only a century ago lived executives from Comstock Cheney Company the once great ivory and piano action factory Enough of the past remains to remind us of the industry that thrived along these riverbanks
