The botched robbery didn't do it Neither did the three gunshots It wasn't until he was administered last rites that David Borkowski realized he was about to die at age fifteen A Shot Story From Juvie to Ph D is a riveting account of how being shot saved his life and helped a juvenile delinquent become an esteemed English professor Growing up in a working class section of Staten Island David and his friends thought they had all the answers They knew where to hang out without being hassled where to get high and what to do if the cops showed up But when David and his friend called in a pizza order so they could rob the delivery man things didn't turn out as they'd planned Staring down the barrel of a gun David and his friend panicked and took off as the cop fired Convinced the cop was shooting harmless salt bullets David darted through lawns as the cop gave chase Much later when David was bleeding to death did the cops realize they had hit one of their own the son of a fellow cop Borderline illiterate at the time of the shooting David took his future into his own hands and found salvation in books But his attempts to improve his life were stymied by lack of familial support Bound on all sides by adults who had no faith in his ability to learn or to succeed David persevered and earned his Ph D Funny and poignant but always honest and reflective A Shot Story tracks David Borkowski's life before and after the accident and tells how his having been a rather unremarkable student may have been a blessing in disguise A wonderful addition to the working class narrative genre A Shot Story presents a gripping account of the silences of working class culture as well as the male subculture of Staten Island Through his heartfelt memoir Borkowski explores the universal lesson of turning a wrong into a rite of passage months about the type of rifle the killer used It was all clickbait and politics not answers or justice That wasn't good enough for us My dad is a real tough guy but Meadow had him wrapped around her little finger He would do anything she wanted and she would want him to find every answer so that this never happens again My dad teamed up with one of America's leading education experts to launch his own investigation We found the answers to the questions the media refused to ask Questions about school safety that go far beyond the national gun debate And the answers to those questions matter for parents teachers and schoolchildren nationwide If one single adult in the Broward County school district had made one responsible decision about the Parkland shooter then my sister would still be alive But every bad decision they made makes total sense once you understand the district's politically correct policies which started here in Broward and have spread to thousands of schools across America Hunter Pollack Foreword
