Shopping Arcades Margaret MacKeith,1985 Reader's Guide to British History David Loades,2020-12-17 The Reader's Guide to British History is the essential source to secondary material on British history This resource contains over 1 000 A-Z entries on the history of Britain from ancient and Roman Britain to the present day Each entry lists 6-12 of the best known books on the subject then discusses those works in an essay of 800 to 1 000 words prepared by an expert in the field The essays provide advice on the range and depth of coverage as well as the emphasis and point of view espoused in each publication A Bibliography of British History, 1914-1989 Keith Robbins,American Historical Association,Royal Historical Society (Great Britain),1996 Containing over 25 000 entries this unique volume will be absolutely indispensable for all those with an interest in Britain in the twentieth century Accessibly arranged by theme with helpful introductions to each chapter a huge range of topics is covered There is a comprehensive index An Economic History of London 1800-1914 Professor Michael Ball,David T Sunderland,2001-04-26 In 1800 London was already the largest city in the world and over the course of the next century its population grew rapidly reaching over seven million by 1914 Historians have often depicted London after the Industrial Revolution as an industrial backwater that declined into the mass exploitation of labour through sweating dominated by City The Routledge Companion to the History of Retailing Jon Stobart,Vicki Howard,2018-11-08 Retail history is a rich cross disciplinary field that demonstrates the centrality of retailing to many aspects of human experience from the provisioning of everyday goods to the shaping of urban environments from earning a living to the construction of identity Over the last few decades interest in the history of retail has increased greatly spanning centuries extending to all areas of the globe and drawing on a range of disciplinary perspectives By offering an up to date comprehensive thematic spatial and chronological coverage of the history of retailing this Companion goes beyond traditional narratives that are too simplistic and Euro centric and offers a vibrant survey of this field It is divided into four broad sections 1 Contexts 2 Spaces and places 3 People processes and practices and 4 Geographical variations Chapters are written in an analytical and synthetic manner accessible to the general reader as well as challenging for specialists and with an international perspective This volume is an important resource to a wide range of readers including marketing and management specialists historians geographers economists sociologists and urban planners The History and Conservation of Shopping Arcades Margaret MacKeith,1986 Objects of Desire C. Dennis,2004-11-23 What determines where people shop Why would shoppers visit one shopping centre rather than another Developers backers planners and Government will wish to estimate the viability of proposed new centres Developers wish to plan build and or improve shopping centres to maximize profitable retail sales and shopper satisfaction This book explores a range of perspectives from the traditional to the latest thinking These approaches are drawn together with a summary of the hypotheses for which the author has found support Corridors Roger Luckhurst,2019-05-13 We spend our lives moving through passages hallways corridors and gangways yet these channeling spaces do not feature in architectural histories monographs or guidebooks They are overlooked undervalued and unregarded seen as unlovely parts of a building s infrastructure rather than architecture This book is the first definitive history of the corridor from its origins in country houses and utopian communities in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries through reformist Victorian prisons hospitals and asylums to the corridors of power bureaucratic labyrinths and housing estates of the twentieth century Taking in a wide range of sources from architectural history to fiction film and TV Corridors explores how the corridor went from a utopian ideal to a place of unease the archetypal stuff of nightmares

Flagship Marketing Tony Kent,Reva Brown,2009-03-14 Flagships are the physical apogee of consumerism places where brand experiences are most defined and interactions with consumers are highly refined This book marks the first comprehensive study of the concept of the flagship bringing together a range of scholarly insights from the field covering issues such as consumerism areas of consumption and experimental marketing theory and practise The ways in which flagship projects communicate brand values both externally and internally form an important part of this book and provide new perspectives on late twentieth century commercial and cultural policy and practice Kent and Brown offer a truly interdisciplinary approach to the concept offering a variety of perspectives on the debates surrounding flagship function and its role as a place of consumption Chapters focus on the development of prestigious stores hotels and arts and cultural centres as showcases for branded experiences and products and as demonstrations of commercial and public policy Cases and examples include The Eden Project in the UK automotive showrooms in Germany hotels in Dubai and Las Vegas and Vienna s cultural quarter Theoretical discussion explores the tensions between costs and profitability conspicuous consumption and the sustainability of iconic forms The book enables readers to explore the flagship concept from different perspectives and while a marketing approach predominates it provides a disciplinary challenge which will open up new ways of understanding the concept

Women and Planning Clara H. Greed,2003-09-02 The first comprehensive history and analysis of women and the planning movement covering the philosophical practical and policy dimensions A central theme is how men have rewritten planning in their own image in creating modern urban space
