Shopping For Pleasure:

Shopping for Pleasure Erika Rappaport, 2021-06-08 In Shopping for Pleasure Erika Rappaport reconstructs London's Victorian and Edwardian West End as an entertainment and retail center. In this neighborhood of stately homes, royal palaces, and spacious parks and squares, a dramatic transformation unfolded that ultimately changed the meaning of femininity and the lives of women, shaping their experience of modernity. Rappaport illuminates the various forces of the period that encouraged and discouraged women's enjoyment of public life and particularly shows how shopping came to be seen as the quintessential leisure activity for middle and upper class women. Through extensive histories of department stores, women's magazines, clubs, tearooms, restaurants, and the theater as interwoven sites of consumption, Shopping for Pleasure uncovers how a new female urban culture emerged before and after the turn of the twentieth century. Moving beyond the question of whether shopping promoted or limited women's freedom, the author draws on diverse sources to explore how business practices, legal decisions, and cultural changes affected women in the market. In particular, she focuses on how and why stores presented themselves as pleasurable, secure places for the urban woman, in some cases defining themselves as instrumental to civic improvement and women's emancipation. Rappaport also considers such influences as merchandizing strategies, credit policies, changes in public transportation, feminism, and the financial balance of power within the home. Shopping for Pleasure is thus both a social and cultural history of the West End, but on a broader scale, it reveals the essential interplay between the rise of consumer society, the birth of modern femininity, and the making of contemporary London. Shopping for Pleasure Erika Diane Rappaport, American Council of Learned Societies, 2000 Shopping for Pleasure Capital & Counties Property Company (London), 1969 The Shopping Experience Pasi Falk, Colin Campbell, 1997-08-15 This shrewd and probing book seeks to theorize shopping as an autonomous realm. It avoids the reductionist characteristics of economics and marketing. At the same time, it avoids the moralizing tone of many contemporary discussions of shopping and consumption. It also contains an appendix which gives a brief history and selected literature of shopping. Past Pleasures Carla Kulka, 2015-11-24 Cassandra loves going to antique shops. During her visit to a newly opened antique shop, Past Pleasures, she finds more than antiques at the shop. She finds happy memories plus a trail of blood. What will happen and how will her love life change? Whoever said senior citizens can't have a little excitement, mystery, and romance, Tony could never get ahead. His father was always criticizing him. He had a plan to free himself from his father. Too bad for him that he told his best friends about his plan. Life doesn't always go as planned for Tony. Cassandra, a widow, nor the Sergeant of the police force. This mystery keeps everyone guessing until the end, with bits of past memories and a sweet romance. Even seniors have their moments. ICAESS 2023 Sugeng Riadi, Dedi Kurniawan, Jessica Olifia, Andi Erna Mulyana, Vina Kholisa Dinuka, Rizki
