Proceedings, 1929 Marketing Management, 3rd Edition Kumar Arun & Meenakshi N., In today's socially networked and highly competitive world it is imperative that marketers are always truthful because customers eventually find out if they have been misled. This can lead to their angst with the company going viral thereby destroying the company's reputation. Marketing Management advocates marketing based on absolute truth. Also brand image is sensitive to market sentiments. Brands can be in danger; one wrong product or one shoddy campaign can destroy a brand built over years. Companies must align everything that they do with the core spirit of their brands. Further when everything seems to go digital it is important that marketers keep in mind that customers are primarily interested in their products/services. The book advocates that superior products and services will always be central to marketing.

Key Features Best Practices: Researched, implemented and result driven practices taken from leading companies across diverse industries throughout the world. Marketers can adopt these practices to elevate individual and organizational performance.

Corporate Insights Examples of marketing concepts being implemented by well known Indian companies and brands. Latest moves of companies.

Meenakshi, 2011 Marketing is a way of doing business It is all pervasive a part of everyone's job description Marketing is an expression of a company's character and is a responsibility that necessarily belongs to the whole company and everyone in it
