Prepare to Board! Nancy Beiman, 2013 Packed with illustrations this book explains the methods and techniques of animation preproduction with a focus on story development and character design Film William H. Phillips, 2009-01-02 This clear well illustrated text takes the reader through the basics of film analysis drawing on a wide range of film for discussion Questions of genre and the contexts and meanings of film are considered Seduction Catherine Gildiner, 2010-05-21 During her decade in prison Kate Fitzgerald has learned a few things The best way to survive is to absorb yourself in your own world Never make eye contact with your fellow inmates And the last person you can trust is your prison psychiatrist not only is he likely to be lazy and incompetent really why else wouldn't he be getting rich off of well heeled clients instead but if you complain about him you're going to be labelled as a permanent malcontent and denied parole So when Dr Gardonne offers Kate a temporary absence and a job working for him she only takes it because she knows that turning him down could be worse for her in the long run counted in prison years of course But the real challenge is figuring out why he would choose her On the surface it's pretty clear Kate has spent her incarceration immersing herself in the writings of Sigmund Freud and has become a recognized expert on his work Dr Gardonne represents the members of a psychoanalytic organization that is being attacked at its core Anders Konzak the hand picked director of the Freud academy has been boasting to the media that his new research on Freud will bring the entire profession of psychoanalysis to its knees He's also been receiving death threats And Kate as an outsider is the only one Konzak will talk to Though she doesn't trust Gardonne Kate accepts his offer and she races to uncover Konzak's secrets before he publishes his work Never one to work well with others Kate is less than thrilled to find out Gardonne has hired a private detective to be her partner Jackie Lawton is a hardened ex con who has spent most of his life in prison and only recently turned things around by starting his own business From the moment the two meet Kate sees that it won't be easy working with a man who isn't really interested in the intellectual battle at hand and who keeps her prison time at the forefront of every conversation And can he really be trusted When key players who were all last seen with Kate begin to turn up dead there's the very real possibility she's being set up by Gardonne After all who would believe the word of a convict serving time for murdering her husband All she can hope is that following the threads of Konzak's research to his sources will keep her one step ahead of Gardonne and lead her to the real killer With Seduction Catherine Gildiner gives us not only a gripping detective story full of shifting characters and fast paced twists but a remarkable intellectual thriller Through the letters and papers of Sigmund Freud Charles Darwin and the venerable Wedgwood family Gildiner brings the personalities and ideological conflicts of the past to life in the present Along the way we meet an assortment of characters from social misfits to the demure but resolute Anna Freud who is still living in the London house where she brought her ailing father for the last year of his life and where she actively guards his legacy The story takes us from Toronto to Vienna London the Isle of Wight New York and back again to Toronto each locale seen

 Constance Gosselin Schick, 1994 Gautier's poetry merits an attentive reading which respects his own essential criterion of poeticity namely textuality This is a poetry which puts on display its literariness that is its existence as cultural artifact In so doing however it also puts on display the absence of and its resistance to whatever personal or real signified it would evoke or name Its beauty and self indulgent pleasure reveal their hollowness and inadequacy Its chiseled polished surface renders its borders or limits and its play unsatisfyingly and teasingly perceptible Its very superficiality allows invites and seduces the reader to go entre les lignes and perceive the mystery not of what has been symbolically buried unburied concealed revealed but of the truly absent the ab mes superficiels Chapter 1 focusing on texts from the Poésies of 1830 studies the intextual repetition of Gautier's poetry the citations imitations and transpositions which make evident the poetry's displacement of the significant and the personal into aesthetic simulacra Chapter 2 deals with the poems of Gautier's second collection Albertus and analyzes the use of allegory and of humor as further markers of textual substitution The inherent lifelessness and illusoriness of the textual artifact is revealed in the poems of La Comédie de la Mort the collection examined in chapter 3 Chapter 4 analyzes the so called descriptive referential poetry of Espérance and finds that the monde extérieur of Gautier's poetry functions to express an absence of self and is itself always shown to be other than the Other The diminution of the poetic effected in Emaux et Camées is the subject of chapter 5 and chapter 6 deals with the contextuality the fetishism and the eroticism revealed in a miscellany of poems in particular the libertine poems which do not figure in Gautier's five major collections By short circuiting significations and transforming them into seductive appearances Gautier reveals himself to be
