Short History Of African Philosophy:

A Short History of African Philosophy, Second Edition Barry Hallen, 2009-09-03 A Short History of African Philosophy discusses major ideas figures and schools of thought in philosophy in the African context While drawing out critical issues in the formation of African philosophy Barry Hallen focuses on recent scholarship and relevant debates that have made African philosophy critical to understanding the rich and complex cultural heritage of the continent This revised edition expands the historical perspective takes account of recent discoveries and new canonical figures highlights new discussions about gender as a cultural and philosophical phenomenon clarifies issues regarding indigenous cultures and human rights and builds on the notion that African philosophy shares methods and concerns of philosophy worldwide This short reference is an essential resource for students scholars and general readers A Short History of African Philosophy B. Hallen, 2009 A concise survey of philosophy in the African context African Philosophy Pascah Mungwini, 2022-03-24 Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2023 Caught between the history of exclusion and the reality of the world philosophies approach this is an introduction to African philosophy unlike any other With distinctive insight Pascah Mungwini brings together African philosophy and the emancipative mission introducing African thought as a practice defined by its own history and priority questions while always in dialogue with the world He charts the controversies and contestations around the contemporary practice of philosophy as an academic enterprise in Africa examining some of philosophy's most serious mistakes omissions and failures Covering the history of African philosophy's development and trajectory Mungwini's introduction focuses on the struggle for intellectual liberation His compelling portrayal reveals that true liberation begins by understanding one's own world an essential point for anyone beginning to explore another philosophical tradition on its own terms Ka Osi So Onye: African Philosophy in the Postmodern Era Jonathan Chimakonam, Edwin Etieyibo, 2018-02-28 This collection is about composing thought at the level of modernism and decomposing it at the postmodern level where many cocks might crow with African philosophy as a focal point It has two parts part one is titled The Journey of Reason in African Philosophy and part two is titled African Philosophy and Postmodern Thinking There are seven chapters in both parts Five of the essays are reprinted here as important selections while nine are completely new essays commissioned for this book As their titles suggest in part one African philosophy is unfolded in the manifestation of reason as embedded in modern thought while in part two it draws the effect of reason as implicated in the postmodern orientation While part one strikes at what V Y Mudimbe calls the colonising structure or the Greco European logo phallo euro centricism in thought part two bashes the excesses of modernism and partly valorises postmodernism In some chapters modernism is presented as an intellectual version of communalism characterised by the cliché our people say Our thinking is that the voice of reason is not the voice of the people but the voice of an individual The idea of this book is to open new vistas for the discipline of African philosophy African philosophy is thus presented as a disagreement discourse Without rivalry of thoughts Africa will settle for far less

This gives postmodernism an important place perhaps deservedly more important than history of philosophy allocates to it It is that philosophical moment that says philosophers must cease speaking like gods in their hegemonic cultural shrines and begin to converse across borders with one another In this conversation the goal for African philosophers must not be to find final answers but to sustain the conversation which alone can extend human reason to its furthest reaches

Philosophy in an African Place Bruce B. Janz, 2009-01-01 Philosophy in an African Place shifts the central question of African philosophy from Is there an African philosophy to What is it to do philosophy in this African place This book both opens up new questions within the field and also establishes philosophy in place a mode of philosophy which begins from the places in which concepts have currency and shows how a truly creative philosophy can emerge from focusing on questioning listening and attention to difference Reading Wiredu Barry Hallen, 2021-02-23 Reading Wiredu is the first comprehensive overview of the philosophical thought of Kwasi Wiredu Born in Ghana in 1931 Wiredu an important observer and critic of philosophy generally remains an original and penetrating African thinker Interrelating Wiredu s philosophical writings from across decades Barry Hallen sets forth the basic tenets and the defining features of his philosophy Wiredu s thought is divided into five distinct but interconnected areas his response to the philosophy of Quine on issues of logic and ontology issues of language in philosophical reflection the nature of truth as a practical and philosophical concern the principle of sympathetic impartiality that all human beings must live by to survive as a group and finally consensus building as rooted in intentional negotiated and rational exchanges that are part of everyday life Reading Wiredu explores the scope and depth of Wiredu s philosophical thought which can be framed through what he calls a genetic methodology a methodology that privileges environmental considerations in the production of various forms of thought Hallen s overview is intended to assist scholars and students in grasping Wiredu s complex philosophical thought

Ethnophilosophy and the Search for the Wellspring of African Philosophy Ada Agada, 2022-01-12 This book provides a case for the de stigmatisation of ethnophilosophy by demonstrating its continuing relevance in contemporary African philosophy The book brings together established and brilliant young scholars who defend ethnophilosophy as a unique source of African philosophy with the capacity to colour African philosophical scholarship thereby distinguishing African philosophy from other philosophical traditions of the world and setting the stage for philosophical dialogue in the 21st century characterised by multiculturalism and globalisation The volume addresses the future of African philosophy by closely linking the past of this tradition with the exciting projects of the contemporary system builders whose works emerge from the ethnophilosophical while transcending it The book is aimed at African philosophy experts scholars of intercultural philosophy African studies scholars and graduate students of African and intercultural philosophy Consolationism and Comparative African Philosophy Ada Agada, 2021-11-18 In a major challenge to African philosophy this book demonstrates the importance of the universalisation question for every committed African philosopher Rooted in Africa s colonial legacy the universalisation question challenges the African thinker to show how authentically African philosophical concepts and phenomena can be universally applicable in a globalising world In this highly original book the author inserts the philosophy of consolationism into African philosophical discourse constructing a unique philosophical system that is at once African and universally relevant The book engages major African and Western philosophers of diverse ideological leanings in a compelling dialogue that announces the future of world philosophy as one of interculturality in which a common philosophical horizon is forged out of the cultural diversities of the world for the edification of humanity in a continually changing world This book will be an important read for researchers in the fields of African Studies intercultural philosophy philosophy of mind and existentialism African Philosophies Séverine Kodjo-Grandvaux, 2025-08-19 For many students of philosophy in the West philosophy is understood as a discipline stemming from Ancient Greece embracing the great thinkers of medieval and early modern Europe and continuing through to the present day To the extent that other philosophical traditions are taken into account these tend to be selected philosophical traditions of Asia Rarely is African philosophy considered in this context even though Africa and the West are deeply interconnected through long histories of colonialism and slavery In this important book Séverine Kodjo Grandvaux argues that a serious engagement with African philosophy is long overdue She shows that there is a rich tradition of philosophical thought in Africa that addresses issues ranging from the legacies of colonialism to the nature of time the state responsibility identity dignity and personhood An engagement with African philosophy also offers a fresh perspective on Western philosophy prompting us to interrogate ourselves and our own history Conceptualizing African philosophy becomes a way of conceptualizing the world and of understanding how to know ourselves through the gaze of another African Philosophies is not so much a survey of philosophy in Africa but rather an account of how the question of African philosophy emerged in the second half of the 20th century and of what we can learn from a serious engagement with African philosophy today It will be of great interest to students and scholars in philosophy in colonial and postcolonial studies and throughout the humanities Toward Afrodiasporic and Afrofuturist Philosophies of Religion Jon Ivan Gill, 2022-04-14 Based on the categories of mainstream philosophy of religion we must ask the question if said categories are adequate to describe the conceptual frameworks of traditions not philosophically dependent on Western theistic understandings such as religious traditions and philosophies of life emerging from the continent of Africa and appearing in the United States the Caribbean North Central and South America and Europe This book hosts students from Pomona College and Pitzer College Claremont Colleges Claremont California who have analyzed the field of philosophy of religion as it stands to determine which of its insights can be applied to Afro diasporic and Afrofuturist notions of religion and which ones cannot Their reflections in these chapters will ask how do we define Afro diasporic religion what would a robust philosophy of religion of Afro diasporic and Afrofuturist religions draw from what categories would it contain how would we construct such a non Western methodology of philosophy of religion and what sources would we use to construct such a philosophy of religion In an attempt to aesthetically experience what Afro diasporic and Afrofuturist philosophies of religion are could be the text will rely heavily on fiction novels poetry music movies and texts written by Afro diasporic people from various social locations and perspectives on some African notions of religion among other centers of reflection

Atuolu Omalu Jonathan O. Chimakonam, 2014-12-15 The story of African philosophy is surrounded by controversy Decades after the great debate over its mere existence many vital questions have been left unanswered From examining the origins of African philosophy to addressing fundamental issues in ontology epistemology ethics and political thought this

Groundwork for a New Kind of African Metaphysics Aribiah David Attoe,2022-01-05 It is not far fetched to say that much of what is termed African metaphysics remains a traditional affair without the sort of critical analysis that sheds away the burden of myths and ethnocentric rigidity African ideas about the nature of being God causality death etc have largely remained the same and unchallenged mainly due to the hesitancy of some African scholars to question these suppositions or build beyond them In this book Aribiah David Attoe presents a unified African metaphysics that first interrogates important notions held by many traditional African thinkers and then builds upon them to propose a largely materialistic account of African metaphysics The book re imagines and reconstructs the idea of God being causality and death in African metaphysics tackling some of the problems associated with these concepts in African thought It also opens up new vistas of thought while engaging and encouraging African metaphysicians to explore a previously ignored perspective Endangered African Knowledges and the Challenge of Modernity Donald Mark C. Ude,2024-04-02 This book presents an innovative African philosophical response to coloniality and the attendant epistemicide of Africa s knowledge systems drawing on Igbo thinking This book argues that theorizing modernity requires a critical conversation between African and Western scholarship in order to unpack its links with coloniality and the subjugation of Africa s indigenous knowledges In setting out this discussion the book also connects with Latin American scholarship demonstrating how the modern world is structured to marginalize and destroy knowledges from across the Global South This book draws on Igbo epistemic resources of solidarity thinking positioned in contrast to capitalist knowledge patterns thereby providing an important Africa driven response to modernity and coloniality This book concludes by arguing that the Igbo sense of solidarity is useful and relevant to modern contexts and thus constitutes a vital resource for a less disruptive more balanced and more wholesome modernity At a time of considerable global crises this book makes an important contribution to philosophy both within Africa and beyond
