A Brief History of Arabic Literature George Nicolas El-hage, Ph.d.,George Nicolas El-Hage Ph D,2017-11-02 During the Middle Ages the Arabs ruled the civilized world They succeeded in conquering Arabia Egypt Iraq Mesopotamia and Africa parts of China Spain Sicily Portugal Turkey Persia Syria Jordan and Lebanon Had they not been stopped by Charles Martel at the famous and decisive battle of Tours Poitiers in 732 A D the Arab conquest of the West would have spread into France and beyond and consequently would have changed the face of Europe and perhaps even shaped the modern world altogether This book in two carefully selected volumes is intended to be a short history of Arabic literature It provides the teacher with a quick summary and gives the beginning student a broad overview in chronological sequence of the historical and literary accomplishments of the Arab people from pre Islamic times up to the Modern Era Volume One covers the period from pre Islamic Arabia to the end of the Abbaasid Era Volume Two covers the period from the Arabs occupation of Spain to the Modern Era Of course there already exist many excellent books that deal with this subject matter however the uniqueness and usefulness of this book which is also presented to the curious and casual reader of Middle Eastern literature especially if he is able to also read Arabic lies in the fact that it not only provides interesting and didactic reading material but it also has the following features that other similar books do not have

- 1 The scope and timeline are so broad and comprehensive and spans the period from 500 A D 1984 A D all between the covers of one book in two volumes
- 2 The generous number of samples of poetry and prose selections from every poet or author mentioned in this book is included here in these two volumes in the original Arabic to illustrate the text and support the discussion on every poet and writer Hence the student of Arabic does not have to go searching for poetry or prose examples in order to understand or support an argument In this way he can immediately learn to appreciate a particular poet s poetry or writing

A Cultural History of the Arabic Language Sharron Gu,2013-10-17 This history of literary Arabic describes the evolution of Arabic poetry and prose in the context of music ritual performance the arts and architecture The thousands of years old language is perhaps more highly developed and refined than any other on earth This book focuses on what is unique about Arabic compared to other major languages of the world Greek Latin Hebrew English and Spanish and how the distinct characteristics of Arabic took shape at various points in its history The book provides a cultural background for understanding social and political institutions and religious beliefs more influenced by the rhythms and depths of poetic language than other cultures in the Middle East today The Cambridge Illustrated History of the Islamic World Francis Robinson, 1996 Islamic peoples account for one fifth of the world's population and yet there is widespread misunderstanding in the West of what Islam really is Francis Robinson and his team set out to address this revealing the complex and sometimes contrary nature of Muslim culture As well as taking on the issues uppermost in everyone's minds such as the role of religious and political fundamentalism they demonstrate the importance of commerce literacy and learning Islamic art the effects of immigration exodus and conquest and the roots of current crises in the Middle East Bosnia and the Gulf Throughout emphasis is placed on the interaction between Islam and the West from the first Latin translations of the Quran to the fatwa on Salman Rushdie This elegant book deliberately sets out to dismantle the Western impression of Islam as a monolithic world and replace it with a balanced view from current issues of fundamentalism to its dynamic culture and art Francis Robinson is the editor of two outstanding reference works Atlas of the Islamic World Since 1500 Cambridge 1982 and The Cambridge Encyclopedia of Islam 1989

re examines the cultural by products of the Nahda such as scientific debates journal articles essays short stories and novels and provides a new framework for rethinking the dynamics of cultural and social change in what today we know as Syria and Lebanon The lasting impact of the Nahda is given an innovative and thoroughly unique interpretation providing an indispensable perspective to studying the nuanced roles of the construction and development of gender ideologies in the nineteenth century Middle East The authors explore contemporary ideas concerning modern gender roles in the Middle East and the extent to which these emerged in nineteenth century Greater Syria How were these ideas incorporated into daily lives consumer patterns and cultural activities Was class a determining factor in the creation of gender relations in the Muslim world How were the subjectivities of gender moulded and articulated in fictional and non fictional texts The authors delineate both the evolution of a discourse on gender as well the real life activities of men and women as writers readers and participants in philanthropic and cultural societies literary salons and educational enterprises This book reemphasizes the position of the Nahda in the worlds of Damascus Aleppo and Beirut as an innovative deeply influential and significant socio cultural and political movement in its own right which played a major role in shaping modern Arab culture worldviews and self perception Zachs and Halevi here provide a new framework for rethinking the dynamics of cultural and social change and present a groundbreaking new interpretation of the cumulative impact of the Nahda on gender perception in the late Ottoman Period Nation and Translation in the Middle East Samah Selim,2017-09-29 This book focuses on the important aspect of translation in the Middle East region with special emphasis on translation movements and the production of modernity in a historical context defined by European imperialism enlightenment universalism and globalization
