The Japan-British Exhibition of 1910 A. Hotta-Lister, 2013-10-23 The rapid development of Japan at the turn of the last century, including the defeat of Russia in 1904, intrigued the western Imperial powers but also aroused reactions of contempt and suspicion. Britain was the most important of the powers upon which Japan earnestly wished to impress herself to mitigate the rising tide of anti-Japanese sentiment. An exhibition in London therefore was seen as a timely event by the Meiji Government to advance Japanese agendas in political, economic and educational terms. This is the first major study of this remarkable venture, fully reviewed and documented, and concerned principally with the Japanese side of the story

The Koreas Mary E. Connor, 2009-06-30 Asia in Focus The Koreas is the most complete accessible and up-to-date resource available on both North Korea and South Korea. Asia in Focus The Koreas presents an authoritative and unprecedented look at the contrasts and similarities between the history, geography, politics, economy, culture and society of North Korea and South Korea. It offers a wealth of new insights into North Korean life as well as extensive explorations of Korean music, arts, language, cuisine and popular culture, including the Korean wave which began with the export of Korean television dramas to other parts of Asia and has spread South Korean culture around the world. Also included are sections on women's history and roles, class and ethnicity and a wide range of contemporary issues. For a deeper understanding of one of the most closely watched regions of the globe, this volume is a must

A Concise History of Korea Michael J. Seth, 2019-11-19 This clear, concise book provides a balanced history of Korea, exploring the origins and development of Korean society, politics and culture from their inception to the two Korean states of today

Park Chung Hee and Modern Korea Carter J. Eckert, 2016-11-07 This first volume in a two-part study examines the origins of South Korean authoritarianism as personified by the militant political leader. For South Koreans, the twenty years from the early 1960s to late 1970s were the best and worst of times: a period of unprecedented economic growth and of political oppression that deepened as prosperity spread. In this masterly account, Carter J. Eckert finds the roots of South Korea's dramatic socioeconomic transformation in the country's long history of militarization, a history personified in South Korea's paramount leader, Park Chung Hee. In Park Chung Hee and Modern Korea, Eckert reveals how the foundations of Park's leadership were established during the period of Japanese occupation. As a cadet in the Manchurian Military Academy, Park and his fellow officers absorbed the Imperial Japanese Army's ethos of victory at all costs and absolute obedience to authority. When Park seized power in 1961, he applied this ethos to the project of Korean modernization. Korean society under Park exuded a distinctively martial character. Eckert shows its hallmarks included the belief that the army should intervene in politics in times of crisis, that a central authority should manage the country's economic system, and that the state should maintain a strong disciplinary presence in society reserving the right to use violence to maintain order A milestone in the literature of modern East Asia Bruce Cumings author of Korea's Place in the Sun The Post-Imperial Age: The Great Powers and the Wider World J.P.D. Dunbabin, 2014-07-15 This volume looks at the impact on the wider world of the end of the European empires and their replacement by a new international order dominated by East West rivalries After surveying the decolonization process the book looks successively at the different patterns of experience in Southern Africa South East Asia and India East Asia and the Pacific the Middle East and the Americas It concludes with a sustained analysis of the International System the functioning of international organizations and the global role of money and trade Asia and Oceania Trudy Ring, Noelle Watson, Paul Schellinger, 2012-11-12 From the Taj Mahal to the Parthenon from Gettysburg to Heidelberg from Beacon Hill to Tower Hill from the Great Wall to Hadrian's Wall from Jerusalem to Kyoto the International Dictionary of Historic Places presents some 1 000 comprehensive and fully illustrated histories of the most famous sites in the world Entries include location description and site office details and a 3 000 to 4 000 word essay that provides a full history of the site and the condition of the site today An annotated Further Reading list of books and articles about the site completes each entry A Brief History of Korea Yŏng-ik Yu, 2000 Collision Course Bryce Harland, 1996 America is drifting towards another collision with Asian countries This book sets the situation in perspective by tracing the development of relations between them during the last two centuries No longer needing allies as it did during the Cold War the United States is now using its economic power to force them to open their markets to its exports and to move towards Western democracy American pressure is making Asians appreciate what they have in common and helping to overcome the divisions that have kept them dependent on outside powers But collision is not inevitable America has played a critical part in the transformation of East Asia It still has much to teach and it now has much to learn as well By studying Asian experience Americans can re learn the importance of self discipline and face Asian competition without relying on their power and resorting to protectionism APEC shows the way for the United States and other Western countries to benefit from the fast growth of Asian economies and make the whole of the Pacific area more prosperous A Short History of Mediæval and Modern Times Philip Van Ness Myers, 1906
