Pasture and Flock: New and Selected Poems Anna Jackson, 2018-03-08 There are some poets you travel the routes of so often you could feel your way in the dark that turn that corner and then the plummet towards the end What does it give you after all to meet in person in a room A thought the dog doesn't share when having known the followed route the stored scent an affair of the air here is the other dog Incarnate Guessed and host Poets know words know routes know ghosts Uneasy nights out with dead Russian poets dalliances with German gasfitters and emotionally fraught games of badminton are brought together for the first time along with a brand new body of work in this time spanning selection of Anna Jackson's poetry Local gothic suburban pastoral and answerings back to literary icons are all enhanced by Jackson's light hand and sly humour Pastoral yet gritty intellectual and witty sweet but with stings in their tails the poems and sequences collected in Pasture and Flock are essential reading for both long term and new admirers of Jackson's slanted approach to lyric poetry
