Long Way From Home A Novel:

A Long Way from Home Claude McKay, 2007 McKay's account of his long odyssey from Jamaica to Harlem and then on to France Britain North Africa Russia and finally back to America As well as depicting his own experiences the author describes his encounters with such notable personalities as Charlie Chaplin George Bernard Shaw H G Wells Leon Trotsky W E B Du Bois Isadora Duncan Paul Robeson and Sinclair Lewis A Long Way from Home Peter Carey, 2018-02-27 Irene Bobs loves fast driving Her husband is the best car salesman in southeastern Australia Together they enter the 1954 Redex Trial a weeks long endurance contest of a car race that circles the entire continent With them is their lanky fair haired navigator deposed quiz show champion and failed schoolteacher Willie Bachhuber If they win the Redex the Bobs name alone will get them a dealership and Willie will have recharged a life currently ground to a halt But before any of that might happen their official strip maps will lead them without warning out of the comfortable white Australia they know so well A breakneck often hilarious eye opening adventure that at the same time reminds us how white people took possession of a timeless culture the high purpose they invented and the crimes they committed along the way A Long Way from Home is Peter Carey's late style masterpiece A Long Way from Home Pat Sandiford Grygier, 1997-03-27 A comprehensive account of the tuberculosis epidemic among the Inuit in the mid part of the century The Inuit were victims not only of the epidemic but also of the Canadian government's shockingly slow response and lack of concern for their culture Grygier's focus is on patients experiences and the programs set up to deal with the epidemic rather than on a purely medical discussion of the disease and treatment Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR A Long Way from Home Janet Plummer, 2014-01-16 The reader is drawn into the world of a spirited little girl from the Caribbean as she journeys with her mother to a new country Sometimes funny sometimes sad her simple story tugs at the heart You will feel like you are right there sharing the newness and excitement of the adventure Children will relate to her raw emotions and adults will be captivated by her transparency and honesty A must read for all A Long Way from Home Tom Brokaw, 2002-11-05 Reflections on America and the American experience as he has lived and observed it by the bestselling author of The Greatest Generation whose iconic career in journalism has spanned more than fifty years From his parents life in the Thirties on to his boyhood along the Missouri River and on the prairies of South Dakota in the Forties into his early journalism career in the Fifties and the tumultuous Sixties up to the present this personal story is a reflection on America in our time Tom Brokaw writes about growing up and coming of age in the heartland and of the family the people the culture and the values that shaped him then and still do today His father Red Brokaw a genius with machines followed the instincts of Tom's mother Jean and took the risk of moving his small family from an Army base to Pickstown South Dakota where Red got a job as a heavy equipment operator in the Army Corps of Engineers project building the Ft Randall dam along the Missouri River Tom Brokaw describes how this move became the pivotal decision in their lives as the Brokaw family along with others after World War II began to live out the American Dream community relative prosperity middle class pleasures and good educations for their children Along the river and in the surrounding hills I had a Tom Sawyer boyhood Brokaw writes and as he describes his own pilgrimage as it unfolded from childhood to love marriage the early days in broadcast journalism and beyond he also reflects on what brought him and so many Americans of his generation to lead lives a long way from home yet forever affected by it Praise for A Long Way from Home A love letter to the people and places that enriched a Tom Sawyer boyhood Brokaw has a knack for delivering quirky observations on small town life Bottom line Tom's terrific People Breezy and straightforward much like the assertive TV newsman himself Los Angeles Times Brokaw writes with disarming honesty The Atlanta Journal Constitution Brokaw evokes a sense of community a pride of citizenship and a confidence in American ideals that will impress his readers Richmond Times Dispatch Long Way from Home Frederick Busch, 1996-02-17 AM I YOUR MOTHER The headline screams out to Sarah from the pages of the personal ads Suddenly seized with an emergency feeling she abandons her husband Barrett and their six year old son Stephen to search for her biological mother in rural Pennsylvania Barrett convinced through intuition that Sarah has gone to Santa Fe deposits Stephen with his in laws and sets off in hot pursuit From these separate journeys begins a chain of events in which individual memories send a family in desperate search of itself and the shattering truth that awaits them From the author of Closing Arguments From the Trade Paperback edition

A Long Ways from Home Mike Martin, 2016-08-22 A weekend visit to picturesque Newfoundland by a large crew of outlaw bikers leaves behind another mess for Sgt Windflower to clean up This time he's facing violence murder mystery and intrigue This adventure has Windflower questioning everything he thought he knew There are troubles on the home front cutbacks in the policing budget old friends leaving and new ones not quite here yet Windflower is seeking to find answers in territory that is both dangerous and unfamiliar This instalment in the Sgt Windflower Mystery series has our hero dashing all over the beautiful little island of Newfoundland Along the way he never wavers in his pursuit of justice But he stills tries to find a way to enjoy the natural beauty that lays all around him and to bring out the best from everybody he meets A Long Ways from Home is about more than just homicides or the dirty dealings of outlaw bikers It is also about helping people and communities face up to and overcome new and very difficult challenges Windflower relies on his friends and allies including some four legged ones to help him and them find the answers He also discovers that we are never really alone even when we are a long ways from home A Long Way from Home William Cotter Murray, 1974 Staying Power Peter

Fryer, 2010-09-06 Staying Power is recognised as the definitive history of black people in Britain an epic story that begins with the Roman conquest and continues to this day BR BR In a comprehensive account Peter Fryer reveals how Africans Asians and their descendants previously hidden from history have profoundly influenced and shaped events in Britain over the course of the last two thousand years BR BR This edition includes a foreword by Paul Gilroy explaining the genesis of the book and its continuing significance in black history today The West Indian Novel and Its Background Kenneth

Ramchand,2004 An account of the emergence of the West Indian novel in English this work provides valuable insights into the social cultural and political background offering concise and focused accounts of the growth of education the development of literacy and the formation of West Indian Creole languages Africa and the Americas Richard M. Juang, Noelle Morrisette, 2008-03-12 This encyclopedia explores the many long standing influences of Africa and people of African descent on the culture of the Americas while tracing the many ways in which the Americas remain closely interconnected with Africa Ranging from the 15th century to the present Africa and the Americas Culture Politics and History explores the many ways Africa and African peoples have shaped the cultural life of the Americas and how in turn life in the Americas reverberates in Africa This groundbreaking three volume encyclopedia offers hundreds of alphabetically organized entries on African history nations and peoples plus African influenced aspects of life in the Americas It also features authoritative introductory essays on history culture and religion demography international relations economics and trade and arts and literature In doing so it traces the complex and continuous movement of peoples of African descent to the West the mechanics and lingering effects of colonialism and the slave trade and the crucial issues of cultural retention and adaptation that are essential to our understanding of the effects of globalization Cold War Exiles in Mexico Rebecca Mina Schreiber, 2008 The onset of the Cold War in the 1940s and 1950s precipitated the exile of many U S writers artists and filmmakers to Mexico Rebecca M Schreiber illuminates the work of these cultural exiles in Mexico City and Cuernavaca and reveals how their artistic collaborations formed a vital and effective culture of resistance The Culture of Sports in the Harlem Renaissance Daniel Anderson, 2017-03-21 During the African American cultural resurgence of the 1920s and 1930s professional athletes shared the spotlight with artists and intellectuals Negro League baseball teams played in New York City s major league stadiums and basketball clubs shared the bill with jazz bands at late night casinos Yet sports rarely appear in the literature on the Harlem Renaissance Although the black intelligentsia largely dismissed the popularity of sports the press celebrated athletics as a means to participate in the debates of the day A few prominent writers such as Claude McKay and James Weldon Johnson used sports in distinctive ways to communicate their vision of the Renaissance Meanwhile the writers of the Harlem press promoted sports with community consciousness insightful analysis and a playful love of language and argued for their importance in the fight for racial equality The Poetics of American Song Lyrics Charlotte Pence, 2012-01-02 The Poetics of American Song Lyrics is the first collection of academic essays that regards songs as literature and that identifies intersections between the literary histories of poems and songs The essays by well known poets and scholars including Pulitzer Prize winner Claudia Emerson Peter Guralnick Adam Bradley David Kirby Kevin Young and many others locate points of synthesis and separation so as to better understand both genres and their crafts The essayists share a desire to write on lyrics in a way that moves beyond sociological historical and autobiographical approaches and explicates songs in relation to poetics Unique to this volume the essays focus not on a single genre but on folk rap hip hop country rock indie soul and blues The first section of the book provides a variety of perspectives on the poetic history and techniques within songs and poems and the second section focuses on a few prominent American songwriters such as Bob Dylan Bruce Springsteen and Michael Stipe Through conversational yet in depth analyses of songs the essays discuss sonnet forms dramatic monologues Modernism ballads blues poems confessionalism Language poetry Keatsian odes unreliable narrators personas poetic sequences rhythm rhyme transcription methods the writing process and more While the strategies of explication differ from essay to essay the nexus of each piece is an unveiling of the poetic history and poetic techniques within songs
