Looking Back An Immigrant In The New World:

Looking Forward, Looking Back Jana Pohl, 2011 How is the life altering event of migration narrated for children especially if it was caused by Anti Semitism and poverty What of the country of origin is remembered and what is forgotten and what of the target country when the migration is imagined there a century later Looking Forward Looking Back examines today's representation of Jewish mass migration from Eastern Europe to America around the turn of the last century It explores the collective story that emerges when American authors look back at this exodus from an Eastern European home to a new one to be established in America Focusing on children's literature it investigates a wide range of texts including young adult literature as well as picture books and hence sheds light on the dynamics of the verbal and the visual in generating images of the self and other the familiar and the strange This book is of interest to scholars in the field of imagology children's literature cultural studies American studies Slavic studies and Jewish studies

Conversations with Bharati Mukherjee Bharati Mukherjee, 2009 The first naturalized citizen to win the National Book Critics Circle Award Bharati Mukherjee b 1940 born into a rigid hierarchy as a Bengali Brahmin and raised in the elite of Calcutta society joined the American masses by choice This journey from a privileged yet circumscribed life to one of free will and risk supplied the experiences she has turned into literature From her first interview originally published over three decades ago in her native tongue Bengali in the Calcutta journal Desh and appearing here for the first time in English to an in depth interview in 2007 granted specifically for this collection this volume provides a candid look at the woman who has been called the grande dame of diasporic Indian literature

Immigrant and Ethnic-Minority Writers since 1945, 2018-07-17 This study analyses how immigrant and ethnic minority writers have challenged the understanding of certain national literatures and have markedly changed them In other national contexts ideologies and institutions have contained the challenge these writers pose to national literatures Case studies of the emergence and recognition of immigrant and ethnic minority writing come from fourteen national contexts These include classical immigration countries such as Canada and the United States countries where immigration accelerated and entered public debate after World War II such as the United Kingdom France and Germany as well as countries rarely discussed in this context such as Brazil and Japan Finally this study uses these individual analyses to discuss this writing as an international phenomenon Sandra R G Almeida Maria Zilda F Cury Sarah De Mul Sneja Gunew Dave Gunning Kristina Iwata Weickgenannt Martina Kamm Liesbeth Minnaard Maria Oikonomou Wenche Ommundsen Marie Orton Laura Reeck Daniel Rothenb hler Cathy J Schlund Vials Wiebke Sievers Bettina Spoerri Christl Verduyn Sandra Vlasta

Touring Swedish America Alan H. Winquist, Jessica Rousselow-Winquist, 2006 With over 1.3 million Swedish Americans in residence it is no surprise that the United States has a wealth of landmarks that pay homage to the Swedish people and culture Touring Swedish America details the locations histories and stories behind more than 1,000 such places including the charming Holy Trinity Church built in stone and brick in Wilmington Delaware the rustic S M of the talkies one of the most popular genres was the gangster film through which the city was often portrayed as a powerful force that sent poor souls to their doom With the urban disturbances of the 1960s popular culture took another look at the city and decided that from Detroit to Watts to Harlem the problem had a different face Blaxploitation classics such as Shaft and Fort Apache the Bronx as well as police and crime films of the 60s and 70s offered a cinematic exclamation point to the famous Daily News headline Ford to New York Drop Dead Later filmmakers offered a more nuanced view of the city with Scorsese and Coppola paying homage to an old neighborhood of wise guys and goodfellas and Woody Allen offering the city as a home of urban aesthetes Meanwhile on television crime shows from The Streets of San Francisco to NYPD Blue Cops and all the CSI programs have for decades rooted their separate identities in the crime ridden city itself Yesterday s foreign threat to the body politic is today s jaded suburbanite and this work also considers the current development of the cyber city where urban exiles use their computers to re imagine the cities of their youth as safe warm places where we never locked our doors The City continues to thrill and repulse and even the Internet once again reduces the mean streets to a titillating story arc

Statistical Yearbook of the Immigration and Naturalization Service ,1991 Looking Backward, Moving Forward Richard G. Hovannisian,2017-07-05 The decades separating our new century from the Armenian Genocide the prototype of modern day nation killings have fundamentally changed the political composition of the region Virtually no Armenians remain on their historic territories in what is today eastern Turkey The Armenian people have been scattered about the world And a small independent republic has come to replace the Armenian Soviet Socialist Republic which was all that was left of the homeland as the result of Turkish invasion and Bolshevik collusion in 1920 One element has remained constant Notwithstanding the eloquent compelling evidence housed in the United States National Archives and repositories around the world successive Turkish governments have denied that the predecessor Young Turk regime committed genocide and like the Nazis who followed their example sought aggressively to deflect blame by accusing the victims themselves This volume argues that the time has come for Turkey to reassess the propriety of its approach and to begin the process that will allow it move into a post genocide era The work includes Genocide An Agenda for Action Gijs M de Vries Determinants of the Armenian Genocide Donald Bloxham Looking Backward and Forward Joyce Apsel The United States Response to the Armenian Genocide Simon Payaslian The League of Nations and the Reclamation of Armenian Genocide Survivors Vahram L Shemmassian Raphael Lemkin and the Armenian Genocide Steven L Jacobs Reconstructing Turkish Historiography of the Armenian Massacres and Deaths of 1915 Fatma Muge Go cek Bitter Sweet Memories The Armenian Genocide and International Law Joe Verhoeven New Directions in Literary Response to the Armenian Genocide Rubina Peroomian Denial and Free Speech Henry C Theriault Healing and Reconciliation Ervin Staub State and Nation Raffi K Hovannisian Illegal, Legal Immigration Kofi Quaye,2008-09-15 This book will inform and educate the general public on illegal immigration and its effects not only on those directly involved in the process but on the general population as well Writing about it in the context of its impact on contemporary society seems to be the best way to do it How the different media view it the degree to which the public has been influenced to view the question of immigration in the United States Europe and elsewhere are included in the issues discussed analyzed and elaborated on as we attempt to look at the process of immigration legal and illegal from the standpoint of its impact on society as a whole If some of the stories seem to be familiar it is because the people are real and the things they talk about actually happened They are essentially true stories told by people who want to share their real life experiences Only in a few instances have names been changed to protect the identities of those involved

Assimilating Asians Patricia P. Chu, 2000-03-29 This work combines social theory with literary analysis to look at how Asian American writers use literature to participate in the critique and analysis of their position in US culture The Postcolonial Age of Migration Ranabir Samaddar, 2020-05-11 This book critically examines the question of migration that appears at the intersection of global neo liberal transformation postcolonial politics and economy It analyses the specific ways in which colonial relations are produced and reproduced in global migratory flows and their consequences for labour human rights and social justice The postcolonial age of migration not only indicates a geopolitical and geo economic division of the globe between countries of the North and those of the South marked by massive and mixed population flows from the latter to the former but also the production of these relations within and among the countries of the North The book discusses issues such as transborder flows among countries of the South migratory movements of the internally displaced growing statelessness leading to forced migration border violence refugees of partitions customary and local practices of care and protection population policies and migration management both emigration and immigration the protracted nature of displacement labour flows and immigrant labour and the relationships between globalisation nationalism citizenship and migration in postcolonial regions It also traces colonial and postcolonial histories of migration and justice to bear on the present understanding of local experiences of migration as well as global social transformations while highlighting the limits of the fundamental tenets of humanitarianism protection assistance security responsibility which impact the political and economic rights of vast sections of moving populations Topical and an important intervention in contemporary global migration and refugee studies the book offers new sources interpretations and analyses in understanding postcolonial migration It will be useful to scholars and researchers of migration studies refugee studies border studies political studies political sociology international relations human rights and law human geography international politics and political economy It will also interest policymakers legal practitioners nongovernmental organisations and activists
