Musical Theatre Auditions and Casting Neil Rutherford, 2012-06-21. Musical theatre is a tough and over-crowded industry. Yet despite the huge competition, many performers find auditioning difficult with little knowledge of what the directors, creative teams and producers are looking for or how to win the part over with their unique talent. As a leading international casting director, Neil Rutherford has seen thousands of hopefuls audition over the years. Uniquely, he also understands what it is like to audition from his years as a professional actor in musical theatre. This book provides a unique perspective on the musical theatre audition process and how to improve the chances of landing a role. With wit, humour and insight, Neil Rutherford guides the reader through the crucial elements of musical theatre auditions, opening up the process of casting and auditioning to the thousands of hopefuls trying to secure work in this industry every year, as well as anyone involved in musical theatre. With a foreword by Tony Award-winning director Bartlett Sher, the book also contains contributions from some of the world's leading directors and musical directors, including Sir Richard Eyre and Jerry Mitchell, adding further valuable insight from those at the centre of the musical theatre world. This book is a vital tool for anyone hoping to improve their audition chances and survive in the world of musical theatre.

Downstage Upfront John Smythe, 2004. In its first 40 years, from conception to maturity through stages of growth, both painful and pleasurable, Downstage, New Zealand's first and longest running regional professional theatre company, has lived an extraordinary life. This large and lavishly illustrated biography is published to celebrate Downstage's birthday. It covers all the drama and larger-than-life personalities that have characterised Downstage's life and the many great productions, such as Colin McColl's internationally acclaimed relocation of Ibsen's Hedda Gabler to Karori. A major contribution to New Zealand's cultural history.

Frederick Douglass O'Neal Renee A. Simmons, 2022-01-26. First published in 1996. Despite national recognition as President of Actors Equity Association, AEA, pioneering efforts as co-founder of the American Negro Theatre, high visibility as one of the first black performers on television, and the notoriety of being blacklisted by the House Un-American Activities Committee, Frederick Douglass O'Neal remains a man about whom Americans naively ask, "Who was Frederick Douglass O'Neal?" The same question might be asked of numerous other historically significant black Americans. This book, which examines O'Neal's sixty-year professional career until his retirement from AEA, adds a few significant pages to this missing history.
