then examines the variations through which the themes have been adapted by modern writers to express their own awareness of the sin of knowledge Each myth is shown to capture the anxiety of a society when faced with new knowledge that challenges traditional values Ziolkowski's examples of recent appropriations of the myths are especially provocative From Voltaire to the present the Fall of Adam has provided an image for the emergence from childhood innocence into the consciousness of maturity Prometheus as the challenger of authority and the initiator of technological evil yielded an ambivalent model for the socialist imagination of the German Democratic Republic And finally an America unsettled by its responsibility for the atomic bomb and worrying that in its postwar prosperity it had betrayed its values recognized in Faust the disturbing image of its soul
