AUTHOR S INTRODUCTION I m convinced that the Gospel enters our experience with the most sharpness and clarity at the points of the pain and passion of our life encounters As a comfortable middle class straight white male American Christian I ve had virtually everything to learn from the people to whom I ve been sent Experiences in the Philippines and Pacific Islands those while working with the World Hunger Emphasis of The United Methodist Church and while assigned to ecumenical organizations have had profound impact upon my faith and my approach to Bible study and worship preparation Serving as pastor of congregations that openly welcomed gay and lesbian persons into a full participation have extended this experience I m also convinced that the Gospel most powerfully enters the experience of those to whom we ve been sent when it speaks practical hope to vulnerabilities and pain At their best and as they were intended to be ministries of service are a vital integral part of the task of evangelization which not only involves preaching Good News but BEING Good News Preaching and reflecting are meaningless without serious engagement with real life The simplest of traditional cultures to which I was introduced have helped me in my spiritual journey As a Filipino anthropologist friend said after spending some weeks with the so called Lost Tribe the Tasaday in South Cotabato We ll not realize how much we have to learn from them until we admit to what we ourselves have lost My friends in traditional indigenous cultures have made me more sensitive to deeper meanings in stories and parables Perhaps they re more aware than we so called educated folk that this is how we transmit our culture and values It s in the stories where we find the greatest richness of the Bible in both the old and New Testaments Jesus constantly taught through story parable and metaphor Taking a shallow literal approach to these causes us to miss the many layers of meanings and themes which the writers intended to be addressed While stories may not prove something they illustrate something and they carry their own conviction It s up to us to incorporate them into our insight and understanding Hearing the stories of others has put me in closer touch with my own May mine do the same for you Meditations on My Mountain Jon Newbill,2016-01-06 This book is a compilation of poems prayers and thoughts along the way climbing my Mountain a climb that has been both physical mental and spiritual Yet my Mountain is not a destination It s about the climb The Mountain and I both know the climb begins anew each day For there are no endings without new beginnings or as I like to say every day is a BegEnding Man is Love ,1873 "Ethel's Love-Life" and Other Writings Margaret J. M. Sweat,2020-12-25 In a series of lengthy letters the unsettled and unruly Ethel Sutherland writes to an initially unnamed and ungendered correspondent and patiently discloses the troubled history of her past romantic attachments to both men and women Not until the third letter does she reveal that her correspondent is Ernest the man to whom she is engaged to be married Wanting to make him understand how all of her past loves are included and sublimated in her love for him she especially wants to explain how women often love each other with as much fervor and excitement as they do men and although this love is curiously freed from all the grosser elements of passion as it exists between sexes nevertheless it retains its energy its abandonment its flush its eagerness its palpitation and its rapture Margaret Jane Mussey Sweat 1823 1908 a native of Portland Maine and wife of a United States congressman published Ethel s Love Life in 1859 The book is sometimes credited as an early even the first lesbian American novel but such a label Christopher Looby observes in his Introduction somewhat misrepresents what is distinctive and surprising about the book Ethel s Love Life confounds our received binary distinctions between the spiritual and the carnal and indeed between the sexual and the nonsexual the boundaries between such categories being not nearly as well policed at the time as they later became It is here reprinted along with Sweat s Verses 1890 and five of her published essays on Charlotte Bront George Sand the contemporary novel and the friendships of women Upstairs Andrew Kingsley Weatherhead,2000 Examines the role played by the large house in works by Woolfe Waugh Murdoch and others Ibrahim Madeleine de Scudéry,1652 A Course in Miracles Made Easy Alan Cohen,2015-10-27 A Course in Miracles ACIM the self study spiritual thought system that teaches the way to love and forgiveness has captured the minds and hearts of millions of people and delivered inner peace where fear and pain once prevailed Its universal message is unsurpassed in its power to heal Yet many students report that they have difficulty grasping the principles or encounter resistance to the lessons So even while they yearn for the spiritual freedom the Course offers they put the book aside hoping one day to get to it Alan Cohen ACIM student and teacher for over 30 years takes the Big Picture ideas of the Course and brings them down to earth in practical easy to understand lessons with plenty of real life examples and applications A Course in Miracles Made Easy is the Rosetta stone that will render the Course understandable and relatable and most importantly generate practical healing results in the lives of students This unique reader friendly guide will serve longtime students of the Course as well as those seeking to acquaint

Love-Letters to Victor Hugo Juliette Drouet, 2015-12-29 Sunday 8 30 p m 1833

Before beginning to copy or count words 59 I must write you one line of love my dear little lunatic I love you do you understand I love you This is a profession of faith which comprises all my duty and integrity I love you ergo I am faithful to you I see only you think only of you speak only to you touch only you breathe you desire you dream of you in a word I love you that means everything Do not therefore give way any more to melancholy permit yourself to be loved and to be happy Fear nothing from me never doubt me and we shall be blissful beyond words I am expecting you shortly and am ready with warm and tender caresses which I hope will cheer you Your Juju 1833

Since you left me I carry death in my heart If you go to the ball to night it must be at the cost of a definite rupture between us The pain I suffer at imagining you moving among that throng of fascinating careless women is too great for you to be able to inflict it without incurring guilt towards me Write to me Care of Madame K If I do not hear from you before midnight I shall understand that you care very little for me that all is over between us and for ever J Wednesday 2 30 p m 1833 I cannot refrain dearly beloved from commenting upon the profound melancholy you were in this morning and upon the doubt you manifest on every occasion as to the sincerity of my love This unjustifiable suspicion on your part disheartens me beyond all expression It intimidates me and makes me fear to confide to you the incidents my dubious position exposes me to To day for instance I concealed from you the visit of a creditor who presented himself to the porter but was not shown up I paid him out of my own resources without your knowledge because you are always telling me I do not love you This expression from you makes me feel that you hold a shameful opinion of me and my character rendered possible perhaps by my situation but none the less false unjust and cruel I love you because I love you because it would be impossible for me not to love you I love you without question without calculation without reason good or bad faithfully with all my heart and soul and every faculty Believe it for it is true If you cannot believe I being at your side I will make a drastic effort to force you to do so I shall have the mournful satisfaction of sacrificing myself utterly to a distrust as absurd as it is unfounded Meanwhile I ask your pardon for the guilty thought that came to me this morning and which may possibly recur if you continue to see in my love only a mean spirited compliance and an unworthy speculation This letter is very lengthy and very sad to write I trust with all my soul that I may never have to reiterate its sentiments I love you Indeed I love you Believe in me Juliette Wednesday 8 15 p m 1833
