

LOWER MIDDLE-CLASS

DEFINITION

Lower middle class refers to a socio-economic group that falls between the working class and the middle class. This group typically has some level of post-secondary education or vocational training but might still face financial challenges or lack job security. They often have a standard of living above poverty level, but might struggle to maintain consistent financial stability.

EXAMPLES

- Modest Housing: Often live in smaller homes that are functional and may be located in more densely populated neighborhoods.
- Limited Savings: While they might have some financial buffer, it's often insufficient for long-term security, making them more vulnerable to economic downturns.

A Lower-middle-class Education Robert Murray Davis, 1996 The title of the book Davis explains is a description not a value judgment Compared to a middle class education which is supposed to help you maintain status so that you can understand what your family is saying a lower middle class education is supposed to improve your status so that your family will not understand what you are saying When Davis left his hometown in rural Missouri and arrived in Kansas City to attend Rockhurst College he had yet to see television or the New York Times or a foreign film The college aimed to mold such impressionable young men into upstanding Catholic laymen but Davis's increasing interests in girls jazz and writing took him down a path less traditional than the one the college had in mind Davis's account shows the real 1950s Though now hailed as the era of staunch family values this was a time when such values were starting to be challenged when an increasing number of people sought alternative ways of seeing and experiencing the world Called the Silent Generation because they did not openly rebel many of these young people did not easily accept the values their parents and teachers espoused The lessons Davis learns during his college years extend beyond those provided in the classroom With increasing experience he realizes what he cannot do or be he cannot live at home again and despite a serious love interest is not ready to marry or settle down By the time of graduation he does know he wants to be a writer but after a stint as a journalist for a small town newspaper he pursues a career as a professor the role he finally knows will suit him best
