The Review of reviews, 1891 The Mentor-Disciple Relationship in the Visual Arts and Beyond Gaetano A. LaRoche, 2024-07-03 This book undertakes a deep examination of mentor and disciple relationships in the development of artists It draws upon a variety of relationships and models including an in person mentor a mentor or apprentice scenario and non physical mentors such as historical figures in order to investigate their history and philosophy This volume specifically addresses the role of mentoring in the lives of contemporary aspiring artists asking if and how mentoring can be considered a form of human nurturance Deep historical inspections and philosophical inquiries are combined with analyses of interviews with contemporary artists ranging from 35 to 101 years old These holistic insights present the subject of mentoring in the arts from the multiple angles of art history and relevant ideas about the benefits of nurturance and acceptance in human development Using artists biographies and discussions of their work this book sheds light on the role that mentoring has played in their development and can play in contemporary education It will appeal to artists art history teachers educators art students and art scholars

History of the Great Reformation of the Sixteenth Century in Germany, Switzerland Jean Henri Merle d'Aubigné, 1846 History of the Great Reformation of the Sixteenth Century in Germany, Switzerland, &c J. R. M. de Aubigne, 1843 Raqib Shaw Raqib Shaw, 2024-10-22 The first monograph on more than thirty years work by the Indian born British artist whose opulent brightly colored paintings have made him one of the most extraordinary and sought after artists working today Shaw's work is as vibrant and ornate in color and detail as it is ambitious in scope with a remarkable synergy between his fantastical and often violent imagery and the delicacy of his technique Deeply inspired by the old masters but infused with his own personal iconography and drawing equally on eastern and western mythology his work represents a compelling and profoundly contemporary hybridization of aesthetics and sensibilities His opulent and intricately detailed paintings of fantastical worlds often with surfaces inlaid with vibrantly colored jewels and painted in enamel reveal an eclectic fusion of influences from Persian carpets and Northern Renaissance painting to industrial materials and Japanese lacquerware but ultimately reflect the universality of the human condition Collected here in the first comprehensive monograph on the artist to date are more than 100 of Shaw s works representing thirty years of painting in which intricate detail rich color and bejeweled surfaces mask the intensity and depth of his imagery
