Suzanne Lacy Sharon Irish, Suzanne Lacy, Often controversial and sometimes even shocking to audiences the work of California based artist Suzanne Lacy has challenged viewers and participants with personal accounts of traumatic events settings that require people to assume uncomfortable positions multisensory productions that evoke emotional as well as intellectual responses and even flayed lambs and beef kidneys Lacy has experimented with ways to claim the power of mass media to use women s consciousness raising groups as a performance structure and to connect her projects to lived experiences The body and large groups of bodies are the locations for her lifelike art revealing the aesthetics of relationships among people In this critical examination of Suzanne Lacy Sharon Irish surveys Lacy's art from 1972 to the present demonstrating the pivotal roles that Lacy has had in public art feminist theory and community organizing Lacy initially used her own body or animal organs to visually depict psychological states or social conditions in photographs collages and installations In the late 1970s she turned to organizing large groups of people into art events including her most famous work The Crystal Quilt a 1987 performance broadcast live on PBS and featuring hundreds of women in Minneapolis and pioneered a new genre of public art Irish investigates the spaces between art and life self and other and the body and physical structures in Lacy's multifaceted artistic projects showing how throughout her influential career Lacy has created art that resists racism promotes feminism and explores challenging human relationships

Art After the Bomb Darrell D. Davisson, 2008 This book is requisite reading material for any person claiming to be an educated and informed member of the global community Our understanding in the West of the Eastern cultures specially the different cultures involving the Muslims is alarmingly low The book strives to offer a view from the ground a keyhole perspective that offers the readers a close and personal peek into some of the ethical underpinnings and the philosophical guiding parameters that inform the Muslim and the Eastern mind There are over 1.3 billion Muslims in the world It would be a serious intellectual fallacy to assume that they are all homogenous or to be more preposterous assume they are all terrorists It is extremely tragic that it took the Iranian hostage crisis to teach us about Shia Islam and 9/11 to teach us about Wahabi Islam Properly acquired knowledge not just what we learn from the media will allow us to be anticipatory and rational rather than being reactive and emotional For the Muslim reader specially the children and the youth the book strives to offer a deeper understanding of Islam beyond the boundaries of ritual Islam into the wide open space of spiritual and intellectual Islam To inspire them to appreciate and live up to the wonderful legacy of Islam and not to be mired down into some deviant interpretations of people with questionable motives The book is designed to encourage the process of tearing down walls and building bridges We share common dreams aspirations and challenges We share a common globe and a common destiny The author believes that there are no clashes of civilizations just clashes of ignorance and misunderstanding Arts Digest ,1989 Encyclopedia of New Jersey Maxine N.
